British Losses In Mahsud Territory

(Special to The Guardian.)

ALLAHABAD, India, Feb. 8 — The Daily Pioneer's correspondent on the Northwest frontier reports that two brigades operating in the Mahsud territory engaged in a stiff fight on February 4 with rebels, who were caught between two converging columns and suffered severely.

The British losses were three officers and two other ranks wounded. Four Indian officers killed and eleven Indians of other ranks wounded, one of whom died of wounds. On Feb. 5th the British forces were persistently harrassed by snipers, and the Royal Welsh Fusiliers suffered casualties which they were unable to withdraw before dark. One British officer and eleven of other ranks were wounded and two British and one Indian of other ranks were killed and three Indians of other ranks wounded.

Aeroplanes co-operated in the operations, and one observer was slightly wounded.

SHARP-TOOTHED CONSCIENCE PROFITABLE TO TREASURY

MONTREAL, Feb. 6.—Not the least interesting and enjoyable portions of Sir Robert Horne's address given before the Women's Canadian Club today were those in which he referred in an intimate and humorous vein, to his experiences as Chancellor of the Exchequer.

Sir Robert rather surprised his audience when he told them of the considerable sums of money which the Chancellor receives from time to tmie from persons troubled by their conscience.

In one case related to him a large sum was received, accompanied by the following laconic utterance:

"This is the result of the gnawings of conscience. When it gnaws again I wil lsend you some more."

MANY UNUSUAL USES FOR LEMONS

It is not generally known that if a lemon is well warmed before being cut and squeezed it will yield twice as much juice as otherwise. Lemons not required for immediate use should be kept in a pan of cold water in a cool place in order to retain their freshness.

A tablespoonful of honey mixed with the same quantity of strained lemon-juice is recommended as an excellent cure for a sore throat. "Parson's throat," which is the outcome of overmuch talking or singing, will soon vanish after being dosed with this mixture. Beat up an egg with a desertspoonful of castor sugar, stir in a desertspoonful of lemon juice, and drink at once.

Some persons find headaches are speedily cured by drinking a cup of fairly strong freshmade tea in which a slice of lemon takes the place of sugar. Again, if boiled milk has to be taken, and is insipid to the palate, a couple of slices of lemon can be added to the milk during the boiling process. Remove the lemon before serving.

Lemons are invaluable household helps. Ink stains on table linen can be removed by covering the marks with common salt and then saturating it with lemon juice. Very obstinate stains may need several treatments.

The addition of a thick slice of lemon to the water in which handkerchiefs, underlinen and other white goods are boiled will ensure their "washing white," without having injurious effects on the materials.

White marble that is dirty may be cleared by giving it a rub with lemon-juice, then washing with soapsuds.

For the toilet lemons also have their use. Half a lemon, from which most of the juice has been squeezed, makes a first-class washing sponge; it is used to whiten the skin and remove wrinkles.

Mr. Bramwell fulfilled his duties up to a few weeks ago, when he became ill.

Championships For Golf Players

TORONTO, Feb. 4.—At the meeting of the Royal Canadian Golf Association here yesterday afternoon, the open championship tournament was awarded of the Lakeview Club, Toronto. The amateur championship, by a decision of the meeting, after a great deal of discussion, will be held on the course of the Kanawaki Club, Montreal. The date was fixed for the week of July 2.

The Mount Bruno Club, of Montreal, was the only one from which an invitation for the ladies' championship was received and it was accepted.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, George S. Lyon Lambton, and Toronto Golf Clubs, unanimously; secretary-treasurer, Mr. B. L. Anderson, Toronto. Among the committeemen is W. A. Henry, K. C., Halifax Golf Club, Halifax.

The meeting was in favor of the amateur championship being decided by 18 hole match play system down to the semi-final and 36-hole match play in the semi-finals and final. This was moved by S. B. Gundy and Dudley Dawson, while W. J. Thompson and G. H. Turpin supported the 36 qualifying round and 36 hole match play throughout. The matter will be decided definitely by the incoming executive.

Universal Rules

NEW YORK, Feb 4—Lawn tennis rules are the same throughout the world as a result of a formal acceptance yesterday by the United States Lawn Tennis Association, at its annual meeting, of the code adopted recently in London by the other fourteen principal tennis players. Universal standardization will not materially affect the United States rules, as most of the change were in the phrasing of the code.

The Featherweights

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—It was learned today that Tommy Noble, who hold the Lonsdale belt, emblematic of the featherweight championship of England, has been matched to meet Johnny Dundee of New York, in a fifteen-round junior lightweight championship. The contest will be staged in Madison Square Garden some time this month.

Turkey Calling Out Reserve Officers

(Special to The Guardian.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb 8 — The Turkish military commander at Constantinople has ordered all active and reserve officers to report for duty immediately. Severe penalties are provided in case of failure. General Pelle the French High Commissioner, told the Globe correspondent that Ismet Pasha must have received a despatch from Angora at the last minute to reject the treaty, because the Grand National Assembly had favored peace until then. "I hope it will not be another despatch from ems" said General Pelle.

It is understood that the Allies have not only refused to withdraw their ships from Smyrna, but that the British have sent heavy ships from Constantinople, the Dardanelles and Malta to Smyrna.

VALLEY OF THE KINGS CLOSED TO PUBLIC

LUXOR, EGYPT, Jan.20.—There is great indignation here over the report that the Valley of the Kings, including the tomb of Tutankhamen is to be closed completely to the public on account of an exclusive agreement which has been made with a newspaper in London.

No details of the agreement are available here, but it is understood from remarks alleged to have been dropped yesterday by Howard Carter, American archaeologists who discovered the tomb of Tutankhamen, that what the scientists call the "tourist nuisance" is to be abolished.

This causes considerable indignation, as more than 10,000 visitors, mainly from the United States, had planned to visit Luxor in February and March to visit the famous tomb.

DID YOU KNOW THIS?

Spots caused by rust should be treated as soon as possible after they have appeared. Rubbing with a cork which has been dipped in olive oil will generally take away newly formed marks. When the rust has gained a firm hold it may be removed with emery paper which has been soaked in parafin. In bad cases this will probably take some time, for often rust bites deeply into metal. Much labor can be saved by wrapping round the affected part pieces of rag soaked in parafin and allowing them to remain out for a day.

MONTREAL, Feb 4—By their defeat of Ottawa four to one in the N. H. L. fixture at the Mount Royal Arena here on Saturday night, Canadiens once more take the lead in the league race. The game was marked by many incidents, including a delayed start of half an hour, fast hockey mixed with occasional loose displays, a disputed goal, some minor tussels between players, and a severe injury sustained by Captain Eddie Gerard, of the Senators, which necessitated his withdrawal from the game in the second period. Turk Situation Again Easier

(Special to The Guardian.)

It is believed here that the ultimatum will be withdrawn by Turks. Pleasure is expressed at the fact that France and United States have joined in protest.

World's Fastest Pro Skaters To Compete Here

ST. JOHN, N. B., Feb 5—According to an announcement made last evening the professional speed skating championships will be held in this city during the week beginning February 19. Entries have been received from Edmund Lamy of Caranac Lake; "Bobbie" McLean, of New York; Norval Baptie of Winnipeg; and Ben O'Sickey, of Cleveland. Negotiations, looking to the booking of "Art" Staff of Chicago; Everett McGowan of St. Paul; Moris Wood of Columbus, and Eddie Day, of Toronto, are well under way. It is said that Miss Gladys Lamb, of Pittsburg, and other lady skaters will make exhibitions in connection with the meet. Miss Lamb is conceded to be one of the best skaters of her sex in the world.

The work of Staff, McGowan, McLean and Lamy was highly commended by the many in attendance at last season's "pro." meet here, and it is on this account that arrangements have been practically concluded to have the cream of the professional skating world come to St. John again. If the result of the Canadian professional championships of last year is any criterion, skating fans may look for a record-breaking meet. No less than eight records have been lowered during the last few months by these athletes, including the two-mile, five-mile, one-mile, half-mile, 75-yard, and 50-yard figures.

The Boxing Fans

NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb 4—Repeal of the state boxing law will be sought in event that the state athletic commission bars the world's heavyweight title bout between Champion Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills, negro challenger. Senator James J. Walker, author of the present legislation permitting professional boxing, has announced.

OWNS FOUR HOUSES AND NOWHERE TO LIVE

An almost unbelievable case of a woman with six children living in a cowshed has come to light in Leicestershire, England, when the husband, who has been nine weeks in a sanatorium, and is shortly returning to the cowshed, appealed to the Council to get them rooms in the workhouse. They have lived in the cowshed for eighteen months. "It snowed on us as we lay in bed last winter," the man said. "We cannot stand another winter there." One girl of seven had died from the cold. The curious part of the matter is that the man owned four houses, but could not get possession of them, owing to governmental leasing regulations.

DISCOVERED AMERICA BEFORE COLUMBUS.

There is much reason to suppose that Columbus was not first European discoverer of American. In a letter written by a Venetian gentleman, Antonio Zeno, to his brother Carlo, about 1400, there is an account of some fishermen who had been blown out to sea 26 years before and had been thrown up on a strange coast, where they were well received by the people. The land was an island with a high mountain whence flowed four rivers. There was a populous city surrounded by walls; and the king had Latin books in his library which nobody could read. All kinds of metals abounded, and especially gold. The name of the country was Estatiland, some schodare have attempte to find grains of truth in his yarn; Estatiland has been identified as Newfoundland, and the populous city with walls about it has been explained as an Indian encampment surrounded by a palisade. Another supposed pre-Columbian voyage to America is that of the Polish pilot, John Szkolny, who is said to have sailed in 1476 to Greenland, in the service of Christian I of Denmark, and to have touched upon the coast of Labrador.

BLAMES MAN FOR DIVORCES.

Judge Adolph Joseph Sabath, noted Chicago jurist, who has heard 6,200 divorce cases, is well qualified to speak of marriage and divorce.

Judge Sabath says: "In only one-third of the divorce cases that come into court, the woman is to blame."

Judge Sabath has often worked for reconciliations in cases that come before him. His complete knowledge of all causes and circumstances have started many couples on the right path.

The judge and Mrs. Sabath are on their way for a recreation trip to Europe. They will revisit a little town, Zabori, in Bohemia, now Czecho-Slovakia, where in 1866 the learned judge was born and went to school.

Coming to Chicago as an immigrant boy with his humble parents, the future politician and judge (a man can be both in the United States) went to business college and then to law school. For the ten years preceding 1907 he was a police magistrate, but then turned congressman for five congresses, being returned to his law practice in 1917. He has always shone in local politics and was a judge of the divorce court, where he has found plenty to do.

Aiming At A Star

There are tricks to all trades, as has been observed so often, and no one realizes it any better than the parents of adolescent children. One afternoon after school Gladys came rushing into the house calling: "Mamma! Mamma!"

"Here I am, upstairs in the sewing room," mamma answered.

Gladys stormed up the stairs and into the sewing room.

"Oh, mamma," she began breathlessly. "Mamma, can I get married and have a husband and a lot of children and everything?"

"Why, my child!" gasped her mother. "What can you be thinking of to ask such a question!"

Gladys stood a moment in downcast silence. Then:

"Well, if I can't do that, mamma, could I have an apple and go over to Mary's to play till dinner time?"

Severe Kidney Trouble

Mrs. F. Rinehart, Campbellville, Ont., writes:

"I had trouble with my kidneys and very frequent urination. This was followed by pains which at times were very severe. The doctor said I had inflammation of the bladder and that an operation might be necessary. To this I refused, and began using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. From the first few doses I felt the benefit. The pains left, urination was corrected, and I have had no recurrence of these ailments."
