Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish to look well the rest of the year. The March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all Summer unless removed. Now is the time to use Othine—double strength.

—This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of Othine—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement; some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely.

TO SCOUT FOR SEALS

ST. JOHN'S, NFLD., March 13—The Newfoundland Government is being urged to employ one or more airplanes to assist the seal hunters during the coming spring, and if the Government does not take action in the matter, it is probable that the firms fitting out vessels for the seal hunt will co-operate to secure the services of a flying machine. For some years past seal hunting has not been prosecuted with much vigor, owing to the difficult financial conditions; and before building new vessels and going into the business heavily again the firms desire information as to the extent of the supply of seals. It is believed that with airplanes it will be possible to discover the "main patch" and determine its extent.

If scouting airplanes can locate the "main patch," and indicate how the seal ships can force their way to the ice floes carrying the main herds of seals, a new element of certainty will be introduced into the annual seal hunt. The method by which the hunters take the seals is to surround them on the ice floes and kill them by clubbing them on the nose.

PRINCES FOR ADOPTION

MOSCOW, March 11—Little princes and princesses by the score are available in Russia for adoption by wealthy foreigners. The parents, where there are any, are willing and even anxious, to let their children go because of their own poverty and inability properly to care for and educate them.

The mother of little Chafi Khan, Prince Kadjar, a near pretender to the throne of Persia, is one of the many who are willing to part with their sons. Prince Kadjar's great-grandfather was one of two brothers who disputed the Persian throne. When he failed, he fled to Russia, where the family became of some consequence.

The correspondent has been told by many such mothers that unless they find some means of getting their children abroad, the careers of the little ones will be ruined. If ever private property is returned to the original owners, these children will recover vast estates.

Other good features were the song and dance by Mary and Agnes Clark (encored); Jimmy Evans in song selection; recitation by Jimmy, "The Fool" (encored); "The Last Rose of Summer" and "Annie Laurie" by Miss Grace Palmer and Mr. Bill Loker in good specialties. This excellent show will be repeated this afternoon and evening.

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Fordsburg in South Africa

JOHANNESBURG, March 14—Fordsburg, a few miles from Johannesburg, at this hour is being bombarded by artillery and tanks and machine guns.

CAPETOWN, March 14—In the House of Assembly yesterday members of the Labor Party deplored the "ghastly slaughter" on the Rand in connection with the mining strike, and demanded that the Government negotiate immediately for the cessation of hostilities to prevent further loss of life.

Government spokesmen repudiated the assertions of labor members that the strike movement had only assumed a revolutionary character when the Government began to employ force.

PRETORIA, South Africa, March 14—Good progress has been made in suppressing the revolt, according to a long official communication issued today. Many new points where loyal forces were besieged have been relieved and great numbers of prisoners have been taken.

The police garrison at Brakhan, re occupied by Government forces has been without food or water for three days. The railway in the Pretoria-Germiston area has been cleared. The encircling movement of the Government forces is complete and the situation is well in hand.

Only certain portions of the central Johannesburg area, says the communication, now require clearing.

JOHANNESBURG, March 14—Government forces have captured Brakpan from the rebels, entering the town yesterday afternoon.

The commandos at Fordsburg, five miles west of this place, have been notified by the Government that they must evacuate their positions by 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, failing which they will be subjected to bombardment.

Advices from the western district yesterday afternoon showed the government forces were sweeping in from both sides upon the commandos fighting at Maraisburg, the advance government forces having reached the ridges overlooking the town.

It was believed the lull in the fighting meant that General Smuts, the Premier, who has taken personal charge of the Johannesburg situation, was making an effort to obtain the unconditional surrender of the strike commandos so as to avoid the loss of life which would be entailed in overwhelming them with his forces.

Brakpan is a coal mining centre, twenty-two miles east of Johannesburg and has been one of the strongholds of the revolutionists.

A Capetown despatch last night stated that Major-General Van Deventer was marching on Brakpan after having captured Benoni.

Montagu Makes His Explanations

LONDON, March 14.—Edwin S. Montague, in speaking before the Liberal Club at Cambridge, his constituency, today justified the policy he had pursued as Secretary of State for India and declared the doctrine of "cabinet solidarity" invoked in connection with his resignation on Thursday, had never been the ruling code in the Lloyd George cabinet.

"My disappearance," said Mr. Montagu, "has nothing to do with the doctrine of collective responsibility. It is an effort to preserve this government from the fate that must attend it.

"You know how dangerously near the government is to collapse. The Liberal members see their colleagues disappearing one by one. The Conservatives also have a lot to swallow the 'die hards' have shown in the Indian, as in all other matters, a complete lack of political sagacity. They are the most dangerous element in the political life of this country, and to them the great genius presiding over the country's destinies has given my head on a charger."

Mr. Montague said he had never been able to understand the motive for the prime minister's pro-Greek policy. "I do not think it is in the interests of the Greeks," he declared, "and I am certain it is calamitous to the British Empire."

Explaining the circumstances surrounding the publication of the Indian government's telegram setting forth the Indian Moslem attitude towards Turkey, Mr. Montagu said he had submitted the telegram to the members of the cabinet last Friday week. On Monday last, he continued, there had been a cabinet meeting at which he told Lord Curzon, the Secretary for Foreign Affairs, that on Saturday he (Montague) had authorized the publication of the telegram.

"If Lord Curzon had desired," Mr. Montagu declared, "he could have resumed his seat in the cabinet, which was still in session and could have urged his colleagues to object to the publication."

There was ample time to send a telegram stopping publication, he said, but instead of doing this Lord Curzon maintained silence and that evening wrote him "one of those plaintive, hectoring, bullying, complaining letters," which were so familiar to Lord Curzon's colleagues and friends.

Mr. Montague said he was convinced his policy for the development of India was "the right and the only policy."

"The official reason given for my resignation was that I, by publishing the Indian government's telegram, outraged the doctrine of collective cabinet responsibility. I cannot help smiling."

He asserted there had been an absolute disappearance of the doctrine of cabinet solidarity ever since Lloyd George had formed his government.

As for the government's Indian policy, Mr. Montague declared he did not believe his resignation meant any alteration in that policy.

Dodge Brothers Appoint Dealer

W. B. Prowse & Sons will sell Popular Detroit Car in this Territory.

Announcement is made by Dodge Brothers, Detroit, of the appointment of W. B. Prowse & Sons as their dealer in this city. W. B. Prowse & Sons will occupy the premises at 174 Great George St., with a complete salesroom and service station. Their territory includes the whole Province.

The remarkable popularity of the Dodge Brothers Motor Car has caused automobile men all over the country to clamor for sales privileges, but Dodge Brothers policy of quality in selling methods, as well as quality in the car, requires a painstaking investigation in every instance before a selection is made. In W. B. Prowse & Sons Dodge Brothers have a dealer on whom they believe they may rely for both progressiveness and fair business methods.

The prompt manner in which Dodge Brothers assumed one of the foremost position in the automobile industry is regarded as a striking testimonial to the high regard in which their name was held by the public even before they marketed a motor car bearing their name. Prior to that Dodge Brothers had built the vital parts for more than a half million other cars, establishing a reputation for thoroughness and mechanical skill.

This reputation has been more than upheld. If is said of Dodge Brothers in explanation of their unusual success, that they spare no money or effort in building a car to suit their particular ideas of thoroughness in manufacture. What their ideas on this subject mean to the purchaser of their product may be imagined from the fact that they have a staff of several hundred inspectors who do nothing but check up on workmanship in various processes of manufacture. In addition there are several large departments devoted entirely to similar work, such as the physical and chemical laboratories where raw and finished materials are subjected to tests so thorough as to leave no doubt of the quality.

It is significant that the first Dodge Brothers Motor Car ever built was made up exactly as a car is made in the regular line of production. Ordinarily the "experimental job," as the first car is known, is built of castings because of the great time and expense involved in preparing dies for forgings. Dodge Brothers, however, decided that their experimental car should be like the car they expected to build, in every detail, so that neither they nor the public might be "fooled." So they spent almost a year in making these dies and preparing otherwise for a completely manufactured car. As a result, when the car was built they knew what they had and what they and the public might expect of the products. As a further result this first car, although only an "experimental job" has rolled up a total of more than 150,000 miles, travelling year after year under all sorts of road conditions. This is but another of the many things unique in the history of Dodge Brothers as manufacturers.

Public approval of their principles of thoroughness is seen in the rapid expansion of Dodge Brothers Works made necessary by public demand. In December, 1914, it was a plant of less than 20 acres. Today Dodge Brothers Works covers 100 acres of floor space.

—ST. PATRICK'S DAY horse race will be held in Georgetown Harbor, the 17th. Class A, Free-for-all mixed; Class B, Green Race mixed. The races commence at 1.30 p.m. Liberal prizes will be awarded to winners. A good field of horses is expected.

—BAD ROADS—Roads west of Summerside, are in a poor condition for hauling. In most of the low places, there is a slough hole over which it is dangerous to drive a horse. Along the Western Road there are patches fully a mile long without any snow, consequently there is little hauling in these parts.—H.

—BUGLARY—While the inmates of a house on South Market St., were absent from 8 to 10 p. m. on Tuesday, thieves managed to gain an entrance through a back window and carried off a quantity of silverware and about $3 in cash. With only one policeman on the job, it is a difficult matter to locate the place where these operations are likely to occur, with the assistance of a detective, these robbers might be captured and an example made of them. The new Council Board will likely look into this matter and render the necessary assistance.—H.

Will the Farador Cure Cancer?

About a year ago a Charlottetown woman called on the writer, informing him that her doctor had pronounced her to have cancer of the breast and that she must be operated upon if she wanted to live. The poor woman wanted to know if the Farador would cure cancer. She was assured that it would not, but was strongly advised to try the Farador for a few days and if it relieved the pain she might be happy in the knowledge that she did not have cancer. The woman did as advised. The pain gradually died away and her health was built up. Was she cured of cancer? No. She was cured of some form of rheumatism which her well meaning physician had mistaken for cancer. In addition to being relieved of pain, the woman was relieved of great mental anxiety as she really believed that she had cancer.

The Farador will cure many diseases which are often considered to be incurable, and as it can never do any harm it is always wise to give it a chance to help. Not being a quick remedy it must be frankly admitted that there will be times when for good reasons it must fail to effect cures.

W. E. ENMAN,
Farador Representative,

Why Grandpa is So Popular

GOOD health and good humor usually go hand-in-hand. The sufferer from torpid liver, indigestion or irritated nerves cannot easily maintain a happy countenance and a cheerful disposition, whether young or old.

The grandpa represented in this picture has succeeded in maintaining his good health and good spirits by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to keep his blood rich and his vitality at high water mark.

Men and women of advancing years, are learning more and more the benefits to be obtained by the use of this great restorative. It seems to supply exactly what elderly people require in order to keep feeling well and happy.

Mr. D. F. Armstrong, R.R. No. 3, Mallorytown, Ont., writes:

"Through overwork and an extra amount of mental strain I became very nervous and run-down. I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and they certainly seemed to touch the right spot. It almost seemed for a time as though I fairly lived on them, and I can recommend this treatment to anyone requiring a medicine of this kind. I am now over 61 years old."

(Sworn before me at Mallorytown this 7th day of March, 1921." —D. S. Clow, J.P.)
