THANKS OF N.S. PEOPLE DUE COMMISSION

HALIFAX, Jan. 15.—Premier E. N. Rhodes, yesterday gave out the following statement regarding the finding of the Duncan Royal commission.

"The thanks of the people of Nova Scotia are due to the members of the Royal Commission who have given so generously of their efforts to thoroughly investigate and report upon the coal and steel industry and particularly the underlying causes of unrest which have existed in recent years. Their report, constitutes a comprehensive and authoritative document which I trust will be approached in that same spirit of fairness which has characterized the work of the commissioners in their method of conducting the enquiry.

WILLIAMS PLEA FOR DEBT CANCELLATION

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The French minister of finance, Caillaux, comes forward with a new plea for cancellation of interest on war debts. In an article he writes: "A new monthly publication, he urges that until such cancellation takes place there will be no economic stability in the world. Only one formula can allow us to get on, he says, 'let a sponge be placed across the slate whereon our obligations are inscribed.' He adds: 'I have reason to believe this view is shared by many statesmen.'"

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ADAM ROGERSON.

On Monday Dec. 7th 1925, there entered into rest at Victoria, P. E. I., Mary Ann (Inman) Rogerson, widow of the late Adam Rogerson, who predeceased her by seven years and one month. She was a daughter of the late Mark and Fanny Inman and was married to Mr. Rogerson in 1869, going directly to the homestead where she had always lived and where she died. Of this union there were born two sons and two daughters, Henry, Parker and Fanny, now living on the homestead and Jennie, Mrs. Haslam, in Saskatchewan. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Samuel Cameron of Victoria and Mrs. Robert McVittie of Westmoreland. Mrs. Rogerson suffered a slight stroke of paralysis about nine years ago, gradually becoming more and more helpless, until for the past two years she has been entirely confined to her bed, but through it all she was a model of Christian patience, never complaining and always having a smile for her visitors even in the midst of pain. During all those years she was tenderly and lovingly cared for by her daughter Fanny who consecrated her life to the very smallest desire and need of her mother. Being a good mother, and calling her blessed. The funeral was held on the following Wednesday, in St. John's Church, and in spite of a storm of snow and rain, the Church was filled with neighbors and friends who came to pay their last respects to her whose entire life of seventy-nine years had been spent in their midst, fifty six years of which she had spent in the home where she died. MRS. MARY McLEAN.

There passed away to her eternal home on the evening of Dec. 22nd, a respectable Christian woman, in the person of Mrs. Mary McLean, widow of the late Archibald McLean, of Rocky Point, in the 78th year of her age. She had been ill for about three months. The sad event occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Lane of this city, where she was tenderly and lovingly cared for. She was a great sufferer from rheumatism, but bore her sufferings with great patience and Christian resignation to the Divine will. She was frequently visited during her illness by the pastor of the People's church, to whom she often expressed her great faith in God, and her desire to go to her heavenly home. A kind and affectionate mother, she will be sadly missed by her bereaved family, who are as follows: John and Duncan, of Rocky Point; Mrs. Lucy Bailey and Mrs. E. L. Ryan, in the U. S.; and Mrs. Walter Lane of this city, at whose home the funeral service was conducted by Mr. E. C. Robertson, of the Church of Scotland. The funeral was by boat to Rocky Point, thence to New Dominion cemetery, where interment took place. The Guardian joins in sympathy with the bereaved family.

MRS. JOHN MORRISON

On Dec. 8th it was learned with regret that Mrs. John Morrison, Georgetown, had passed away in the seventy-fourth year of her age. Her death came as a shock to her many friends, for although she was in ailing health for some time, no one felt the end was near. For the last three years, she suffered greatly owing to the loss of her sight, the result of painful eye trouble, but under those trying conditions, no one heard a murmur of complaint or a tone of impatience. Cheerfulness and resignation to God's Will made her last years bright, when that grave at

The Duty Of A Woman

Dr. Tell Ailing Sisters How New Health Can be Obtained. The duty of one woman to another is to tell her. But the wrong advice is worse than no advice at all. "That," says Mrs. Florence, 311 Royal Apts. Merrick street, Hamilton, Ont., is why I tell it my duty to give women a reliable information concerning Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. In the first place I may say I am a graduate nurse of one of our Hamilton schools of nurses, having had a number of years' experience in nursing nervous and delicate cases of women. I may state that for the last five years I have not been feeling well. I have been under the care of our physician. He informed me that I was of a delicate nature, and that I was tired out. My stomachs were flat, I was tired out, and I had a rapid heart and a weak feeling. If I entered a warm room I became hot and clammy. Black spots would come before my eyes, and I had sharp pains in my head. I did not sleep well at night and would toss around in bed. My appetite was poor. I tried a number of medicines that were advertised, but with no good results. I began to feel despondent as when I met friends they would say, "My, you look terrible." I lost in weight and my spirits. My husband came home one evening asking, as he usually does, how I was feeling, and at my answer he said, "Well, try these," and handed me a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He said they were new, and they surely gave me quick results. By the time I had taken four boxes I can honestly say I felt like a different person. I could hardly realize it myself. People I met would say, "Why, you look splendid. What have you been doing?" My reply would be that I had been taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and their answer usually was, "Well, they certainly have helped you." I now sleep well and eat well. I feel like my work and feel toned up. My color has returned, and the pills have given me new vitality. I am deeply thankful that my husband brought me the first box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I will gladly tell anyone what these pills did for me, and you have full permission to publish this statement in the hope that my experience may help someone else. If you will send your name and address to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., a little book, "Building Up the Blood," will be mailed you postpaid. This little book contains many useful health hints. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at a cent a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

57 Feet of Pearls Left King Victor

ROME, Jan. 15.—A 57-foot rope of pearls was willed to King Victor Emmanuel by the late Queen Mother Margherita, according to reliable reports of the royal household. Margherita's pearl collar was second only to that of the Maharajah of Kaurthak in value and beauty. King Humbert began the collar for his queen and gave her a string of pearls on each birthday. Margherita bought each string herself. The collar, which now is to go to the King, consists of 32 strings of pearls of a total length of nineteen yards. Its value is 220,000,000 lire, other jewels are distributed among the family by Margherita, but the bulk of her estate goes to Crown Prince Humbert, whom she particularly loved. The body of the Queen was buried in the Pantheon Monday.

Treat German Prices Too Indulgently

FRANKFORT, Germany, Jan. 15.—Paul Loebe, President of the German Reichstag, believes the German Government is treating the former German Princes too indulgently in regards the properties they formerly held in the various parts of the Empire. Addressing a meeting of Republican organization here, he declared there should be a popular referendum to decide whether the properties should not be expropriated. Those Princes whose private fortunes are not sufficient to support them would receive pensions under his scheme.

African Cyclone Does Much Damage

TUNIS, North Africa, Jan. 15.—A cyclone has visited South Tunisia, raising a sandstorm which lasted more than two days. Enormous numbers of trees were uprooted including hundreds of palms in the Gasse Oasis. Trains have been interrupted. A deluge of rain put an end to the sandstorm.

Eclipse of Sun

(Canadian Press) NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—A few minutes before midnight tonight the moon will come between the sun and the earth and draw a black line of total eclipse some 7,000 miles in length from central and over the island of Sumatra and Borneo and to the edge of the Philippine Islands.

Spirits Blamed For Leaf's Red Tint In Fall

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Alcohol which long has been blamed for coloring the human nose with a rosy tint, is now put forth as the reason why leaves turn red in the autumn. S. G. Hibben, of the Westinghouse Lamp Company, said that certain chemical reactions in the leaves of plants, at a certain period in their life cycle, cause them to reject sunlight, regardless of the weather.

Thousands Of Mothers Use No Other Medicine

Baby's Own Tablets Are the Ideal Remedy for Babies and Young Children. Canadian mothers are noted for the care they give their little ones—the health of the baby is most jealously guarded and the mother is always on the lookout for a remedy which is efficient and at the same time absolutely safe. Thousands of mothers have found such a remedy in Baby's Own Tablets and many of them use nothing else for the ailments of their little ones. Among them is Mrs. Howard King, of Truro, N. S., who says: "I can strongly recommend Baby's Own Tablets to mothers of young children as I know of nothing to equal them for little ones."

State Ownership of Coal Mines

LONDON, Jan. 15.—From ministerial sources the Daily Mail learns that the members of the Coal Commission, now sitting to inquire into the coal industry, are virtually unanimous in favor of the state acquiring the ownership of mining rights in Great Britain. A recommendation by the Commission in favor of the state ownership would be warmly welcomed in labor quarters, which long have demanded national ownership of mines. The Mail, however, argues that since a Conservative Government would be prepared to compensate the present owners, for which purpose some issues of government stock would be necessary, the actual transfer of the mines from private to national ownership would be of spectacular rather than actual importance.

Says Women Will Look Like Men

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Women will look like men if they continue to smoke, Joseph Byrne, Managing Director of the National Beauty Shop Owners' Convention, said today. The tobacco face is becoming more common among women, he added. "Features of women who smoke," he said, "grow sharper as the nicotine habit grows upon them. The skin becomes taut and sallow. The hair loses their rosy color. The corners of the mouth show wrinkles. The lower lip shows a tendency to project beyond the upper lip. The eyes acquire a stare and the lids rise and fall more slowly." Mr. Byrne suggests that the tennis racket would make a good substitute for the cigarette.

Duchess of Argyll

Who died on Christmas Eve in London and whose body was taken by a small vessel to the Island of Iona, in the Hebrides, for burial. The island belongs to the Argyll family and is associated with Christianity of the sixth century. It is said to contain the graves of 48 Scottish kings. She was a daughter of Queen Victoria and lived in Canada when her husband was Governor-General.

Prince Appears In Garb Innovation

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The Prince of Wales appeared in public Monday wearing a bright green leather overcoat with a fur collar. The Royal innovation created a sensation among the male flappers and is likely to create a new winter fashion. The Prince never yet has failed to make his sartorial idiosyncrasies popular.

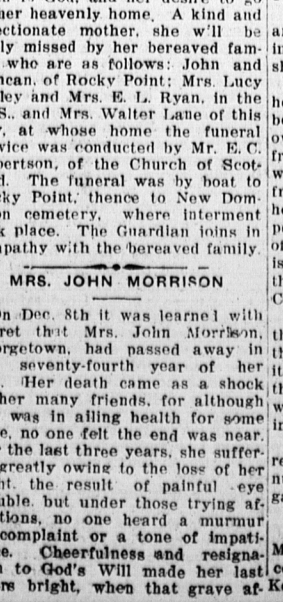

Rhine Residents Scared By Shock

LONDON, Jan. 15.—An earthquake shock caused many people living along the Rhine to awaken from sleep early today and rush out of their houses to open spaces, says an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Cologne. The shock was felt generally throughout western Germany and even in Hamburg. No damage was reported.

Airships Would Call At Ireland

BALDONNEL Ireland, Jan. 15.—Ireland as the future calling place for ocean aerial liners, is seen by Major General Sir H. Brackner, director of civil aviation of the British Air Ministry, after a visit to the Free State's air force headquarters in Dublin. He visualizes a route from America to Ireland and thence to London and to the continent. The trans-Atlantic routes, he thinks, might be traversed by big airships carrying passengers and goods, aeroplanes being used for the shorter routes to connect with the transcontinental services.

Megan Lloyd George

Lloyd George's daughter and constant companion, who was taken suddenly ill and operated on for appendicitis before her father could reach London from Italy. The operation was successful.

U. S. Miners May Force Issue

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The anthracite joint conference which resumed negotiations December 29, adjourned today without reaching a settlement and without setting any date for renewal of negotiations. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 12.—With the announcement that the peace party had been broken off in New York, came the decision of the Grievance Committee representing the Union Mine Workers of the Pennsylvania Coal Company at Pittston today, to launch a movement to call out all anthracite mine maintenance men to force the issue.

More Books Issued

LONDON, Jan. 15.—More books were printed during 1925 than in any previous year in the history of British book production. The total published was 13,202, or 496 more than in 1924. Fiction apparently holds first place in public taste for 2,769 volumes of it were published last year. Religious books came second.

Hostile To Rudy

BERGAMO, Italy, Jan. 15.—Rodolph Valentino's film "Monsieur Beaucaire" was howled off the screen in a local cinema theatre last night. The demonstration is attributed to the feeling aroused by the Italian actor's recent application for United States citizenship. A movement to boycott Valentino's films in Rome recently brought personal orders from Premier Mussolini that they were not to be interfered with.

Avoided Expense Of Going To Hospital

That's Why Madame L. Genoud Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills. Alberta Lady Relieved of Anemia, Gastritis of the Stomach and Neurasthenia. Charron, Alta., Jan. 15.—(Special)—"I have suffered for twenty years with bad kidneys. Have been treated from time to time for anemia, gastritis of the stomach and neurasthenia and no doctor succeeded in relieving me. I arrived at the most critical period of my life and felt very sick. A good neighbour told me about Dodd's Kidney Pills. In eight days I was on my feet again, avoiding the expense of going to hospital. I can recommend your marvelous pills to all persons who suffer like I did."

Theatre Posters Declared Indecent

MONTREAL, Jan. 15.—Practically ten per cent. of the local theatre posters examined during the year 1925 were "contrary to public decency" according to the first annual report of City Censor of posters submitted today at the City Hall.
