Dr. W. H. Pethick, V. S. Antigonish, Travelling Inspector of cattle for Nova Scotia, is touring this province on official business. He is accompanied by his wife.

St. Peter's Sunday School Picnic will take place today, Wednesday at Lookey Point. The steamer will leave Prince Street wharf at 11 o'clock. Refreshments may be procured on the grounds.

Among the outward passengers from this city yesterday, were George Hoar to Boston, C. D. Bell, to Summerside, H. H. Acorn to Souris, Ernest Winchester to Boston, Mr Baxter to Summerside, Elmer Ross to Boston, W. Lester Wallace to Boston.

A splendid addition is being made to the Revere Hotel in the shape of an annex. The new building will be 50 feet high. The upper story will contain ten bed rooms, and the ground floor will contain enough room for three stores. This enterprising move on Mr Brown's part was made because the present building was not large enough for business.

His Honor, the Lieutenant Governor, will preside at the lecture on "Old Age annuities" to be delivered tonight in the Y.M.C.A. by Dr Sampson, the noted lecturer. As this subject is one of vital interest to all wage earners and men on salary they should plan to attend this lecture. The admission is free. Prof. Watts has charge of the musical program.

Many readers of the Guardian will regret to learn of the sudden death at Chicago of Archibald B. Holmes on the 30th of June. Mr. Holmes was in his 26th year, being the third son of James Holmes, a native of Bradalbane but now in Chicago. The late Mr. Holmes was connected with a large mercantile establishment in all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He was a constant member of the church of Christ. His father, two brothers, J. S. and Charles in Chicago and three sisters Miss Lida at home, Mrs. Thos. H. Yeo, Union, Lot 33, and Mrs. G. Alger, Texas, survive him.

Miss Helen Marshall, teacher of the primary department in the High School, Sackville, has resigned her position and will be succeeded by Miss Brownell, of Point de Bute. At the school closing last week, after eulogistic remarks on Miss Marshall's teaching qualities, and words of regret at her departure by Principal A. D. Jonah and Professor S. W. Huntington, she was presented with a pearl brooch by her pupils. Miss Marshall replied in a few words expressing her sorrow at leaving the school. St. John Telegraph—Miss Marshall has many friends in this Province.

Messrs Founet & Chandler have just received a stock of the celebrated Carpenter-Morton Roofing. This Roofing is a very tough, elastic, rubber-like coating, which is guaranteed to last and wear for many years. It is cheaper than shingles, steel, or tin, and is much more durable. A little booklet free tells about it.

We are ready to handle all kinds of Funeral work.

We will do it a little better than any person else can.

And we will not charge you too much either.

Our Plant is absolutely new and up-to-date.

Embalming is a specialty with us.

Another lot of lace yoke ends-19c

The tremendous rush for the last lot of these suggested that we try to get you another line of the same sort. We have succeeded, and the new lot is even better than the last—the remnants are 16 inches wide and 18 inches long, just enough to make a pretty yoke in a wash dress, the quality of lace is such as would sell in the ordinary way for 60c to 1.00 per yard, and while these are here you may choose for.....19c
