Capt. F. J. McNeill Is Promoted To Rank Of Major

Captain Francis J. McNeill, officer commanding C Squadron, 17th Recce (Reserve) Regiment at Summerside has been promoted to the rank of major.

Other officers in the squadron are: Captain Leaman Casey, M.C., Captain Leo Blaquiere, Lieut. Allison England, 2nd Lieut. Harry Bishop, M.M., 2nd Lieut. Tanton McNeill.

Major McNeill's connection with the army dates back to 1929 when he joined the P.E.I. Highlanders as a signaller.

When war broke out he held the rank of sergeant and was commissioned the following year, he served in Italy and in North-Western Europe, being wounded in action in Italy.

He is science teacher at the Summerside Academy and is associated with the family business of James A. McNeill and Sons.

Prepare Brief Asking For Auxiliary Ferry

At a special supper meeting at the Queen Hotel, Summerside, last night, delegates from Charlottetown, Crapaud, Summerside and Alberton-West Prince Boards of Trade put final touches on a brief to be presented to the Federal Government asking for an auxiliary ferry service at Borden.

Mr. F. W. Curtis of the Charlottetown Board presided.

Before the brief goes to Ottawa it will be presented to the Provincial Government for approval and support in approaching the Dominion authorities, it was reported.

Details of the brief were not made public.

Kingdom Come, through the healing ministry of the Church." She was assisted by Miss Millicent Strong and Miss Minnie Wright while Mrs. L.M. Calbeck sang very acceptably.

"The Buddhist Chant" The offering, taken by Mrs. W. K. Llewellyn and Mrs. D. J. MacLeod was dedicated by prayer.

The study book chapter was "Doctors Old and New" and Mrs. Bowness and her committee in a very interesting drama told the story of three Chinese doctors who have taken post graduate courses at McGill University and who are now doing exceptionally fine work in their own country.

They also told of the work of the Outpatient Clinics and the Public Health Programme now being carried on in West China under Christian influence as well as explaining the purpose and extent of the medical missions being carried on in China.

Prayer for the work now being done was offered and the meeting closed by singing an appropriate hymn and the benediction.
