P. H. and Mrs. Trainor arrived last night from a visit to Boston, accompanied by Master Francis Trainor of Dorchester, Mass., who will spend the summer here.

Jas. Montgomery, Bedeque, left this morning on a visit to his son H. J. Montgomery, Wataskin, Alberta. He was accompanied by Mrs. David Montgomery who goes to Wataskin on a visit to her daughter Mrs. Wilson McKay.

Advertisers are requested to have their "changes" in not later than ten o'clock each Saturday for the Morning Daily and Rural Daily, as Guardian employees have a half holiday each Saturday. The business and news departments are open as on other days.

A fleet of coal laden vessels arrive to Peake Bros. Co.—The schooner "Warren W." "Howard," "Brilliant," "Circassian," "John Millard," C. E. Chisholm, "Joseph McGill" and Jessie Newall have all arrived from Dominion Coal Co's Mine C. B. with cargoes of Reserve Screened Runmine and slack coal to Peake Bros. Co.

The members of the Selman Stock Co., who are making notable hits at the Opera House this week express their delight with the beautiful weather they are having during their stay here. Nearly all have succumbed to the summer charm of this Province and are expressive of their admiration. Several of the members have been in Charlottetown on former occasions.

Mr. Sagerson the actor advanced man of the Selman Stock Co., now playing in this City left this morning for the mainland. He is one of the most entertaining of the dwellers of Bohemia land and rare good company. His many accomplishments mark him out from the crowd of average men, and his gifts are by no means confined to the talent for artistic drawing which many here have had opportunity of admiring.

L. W. Archibald leader of the Maritime Boys Camp returned yesterday from a trip to Georgetown and Montague, in the interest of the camp. There will probably be four or five boys from Montague attend camp possibly one from Georgetown five or six from Kensington and six or seven from Summerside. About twenty Charlottetown boys are planning to go. Two or three from Murray River. In all there will probably be about 40 boys from the island. This will be by far the largest representation that ever attended this popular outing from the island. Mr. Archibald would be glad to hear from any other boys who would like to attend either from Charlottetown or from any other part of the island. No better place could be desired for a two weeks vacation for a boy. Any boy between the ages of 12 and 17 may go whether a member of the Y. M. C. A., or not.

These warm days make boys think of where they will spend their vacation. There is no better place than the Y. M. C. A. Maritime Boys Camp. About forty Island boys have already expressed their intention of going. It should be one of the best camps held yet. It will be held July 28 to Aug. 11th at the warmest season of the year when boys enjoy camping out. Any boy may go whether he is a member of the Y. M. C. A. or not. The cost to Charlottetown boys including traveling expenses will be $2. The "Elmer" Steam Boat Co. will give a special rate of $1 return, to the boys going from Montague to Picton which is the same as the rate by the Steam Navigation Co. The camp fee alone for the two weeks is $7.50 all Rail-roads given return for one way fare.

Miss Marianne French—the leading woman of the Selman Stock Co. now showing in this City, made her dramatic debut with "Oliver Twicken" in a modest role. "Talent will soon out"—and in a very short time she was promoted to the more taxing roles. The young woman was determined to succeed in her chosen profession; no work seemed too hard for this aspirant of dramatic honours. Her part in the play was constantly given up to the study of the leading dramatists—Pinero, Jones, Fitch, Thomas. All the best plays found way to her study. Miss French has a fond for "Mottos and Epigrams." Below are given a few of her favorites. Three things to be—pure, just, and honest. Three things to govern—the temper, tongue, and conduct. Three things to wish for—health, friends, and contentment. Three things to give—alms to the needy, comfort to the sad, appreciation to the worthy. Be critical of your work that others may judge it less harshly. Know more than your work demands. Extra change is a convenient thing. No trial—no triumph. Things sublime are always simple at heart. Be satisfied with the things you cannot change. The easiest way to make people happy is to make them good. Make the best of yourself if it is all you have. Stand up for yourself—if you don't who will? Believe in yourself—if you don't who can? When all is said and done work is the greatest blessing life can give. To strive fearlessly for the things I want to have. Never seek the company of any but the truly congenial. Never to speak unless I have something to say. Never to do at all what I do not care to do well. Never to own at all what I do not own altogether. To seek beauty instead of fashion, comfort instead of luxury, wisdom instead of pleasure. To think clearly, live keenly, love deeply; this shall be my symphony.

H. B. Ritchie, 216 State Street, Boston, has a ready market for consignments of salt mackerel and canned lobsters from this Province. With the exceptionally good market offering Provincial exporters should without delay write to Mr. Ritchie, who is the lately elected president of the Boston Fish Bureau and who is thoroughly conversant with the wants of the American people.

The Prince Edward Island Poultry Association held a very successful meeting last Tuesday evening, quite a number being present. It was decided to hold the winter fair Jan. 14 and 15 of next year. Great interest is being taken in this event it being the first of its kind. Exclusively Poultry of the Maritime Provinces. A lot of cups, medals etc. for special prizes have been offered including the Lieutenant Governor's. No doubt the entries will be large. Not only Island bred fowls but a great many fanciers have imported very expensive eggs this last season. The next meeting which will be very important will be held July 2nd in the P. W. C. Every member is requested to attend.

The annual meeting of the Boston Fish Bureau was held at Long Wharf, Boston, last week. Among the officers elected for the ensuing year who are well known in this Province are: Howard B. Ritchie of 216 State Street, Boston who has been elected president, also F. L. Clements of Barclay Clements, Co., Boston and William H. Mahoney of Prior and Mahoney, Boston are on the executive committee. The above gentlemen are large commission dealers in fresh and salt fish and from year to year solicit consignments for shippers in this Province through the medium of The Guardian's advertising columns.

The Always Busy Store

Miss Ruth Crosby, Bonshaw, has returned home from a pleasant visit week from Regina to spend the summer with her parents, Archdeacon and Mrs. Jas. and Mrs. Howatt.

Miss Grace Inman, teacher, South Shore spent her vacation in Hampton the guest of her cousins Mrs. J. F. Proffit and Miss Lottie Inman.

It is simply no use for correspondents to send unsigned news to this office expecting to have same published. No notice can be taken of paragraphs that come without the senders' names.

A grand tea party will take place at St. George's, Lot 55, on Tuesday July 7th of which further notice will be given next week. Meanwhile date should be set down as a day off to enable everyone to have a most enjoyable time.

W. H. Inman, Hampton, met with quite a serious accident lately. Mr. Inman was about to get on the front of a truck wagon to which a young horse was harnessed when the animal started throwing Mr. Inman under the wheels and badly fracturing his collar-bone in two places. Mr. Inman is making rapid progress toward recovery.

Miss Bertie Reagh returned last week from Regina to spend the summer with her parents, Archdeacon and Mrs. Reagh, Milton.

Miss Margaret McNevin and Miss Laura Murchison, Bonshaw, were visiting in Argyle Shore recently the guests of Miss Nettie McNevin.

New Wonderland is more than rapidly coming to the front as a popular place of amusement. It presents a fine show, short enough to tempt the most fastidious fresh air lover to linger for half an hour in the Market Hall. The pictures are good, clear and steady—the music is excellent, both vocal and instrumental—and the inducements are strong enough to prove irresistible to those who desire to spend a while during the evening in good, clean amusement, coupled with profitable pleasure and enjoyment.

"Samson" is synonymous with strength. "Samson" brand pants are strongest.
