GEESE FOR BREEDING ten Embden geese and gander ten Toulouse geese and gander. J. P. Tanton, Box 36, Summerside. 2i

C. O. F. ORGANIZER—McLEOD Mills desires to meet all members of Court Charlottetown No. 576 tonight in Orange Hall Richmond Street at 8 p.m. Important to all old members.

FUNERAL FRIDAY.—The funeral of the late Alfred H. Small will take place Friday at 2 p. m. instead of Thursday as already announced owing to the fact that his son failed to make connections with the boat yesterday. He was unaware of his father's death until his arrival in Sackville.

AT THE PRINCE EDWARD "The Little Church Around the Corner," one of the big features at the Prince Edward last night was much enjoyed by the large audience present. This melodrama of the screen surely lived up to all the good things said about it. It will be repeated again today.

DANGEROUS SIDEWALKS.—The attention of citizens is called to the dangerous condition of many of the sidewalks, owing to neglect in spreading sand or ashes over the slippery surface, and thus preventing possible accidents. This should be looked upon as a public duty.

PERSONALS

Mr. H. S. McLeod, general merchant of Vernon River, was a visitor to the city yesterday. Mr. McLeod is very optimistic as to the business outlook for 1924 in his section and reports trade very brisk.

Births

SAYERS—On Nov. 8th, at the Daysland Hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sayers, of Killam, Alberta, (nee) Miss Hammill, of Kinkora, P. E. I., a son, Francis Joseph.

SANDERSON—At Midgell, P. E. I. on November 15, 1923, to Mr. and Mrs. Victor K. Sanderson, a son, Kimble Calvin.

Marriages

PURDY—UNQUHART— At the Methodist Episcopal Church, Santa Rosa, California, Saturday, December 8, E. Bertha Purdy to William J. Unquhart, (Miss Purdy is the daughter of Mrs. Ira Purdy of this city and has many friends in Charlottetown).

Deaths

MacQUILLAN.—In this city, Dec. 19th John MacQuillan, aged 69 years. The funeral will take place from his late residence, 20 Haviland St., Friday morning at 8.45 to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to R. C. Cemetery.

German Socialist Uprising Imminent

(Canadian Press.)

BERLIN, Dec. 19.—The Munich correspondent of the Vossiche Zeitung reports the circulation of a rumor that a National Socialist uprising is imminent there. Authorities are taking precaution. The National Socialists are of the party of Adolph Hilter the Fascist leader who is in prison waiting trial for his part in the unsuccessful November "putsch" in Bavaria.
