The regular meeting of the Town Council was held Monday night. Bills to the amount of $1505 were passed. The matter of the opening of Russell Street was discussed. The President of the Labor Union addressed the Council regarding a sick member of the Union against whom an execution was issued.

The election court to try the petition in the case of Nelson Howatt, petitioner, vs. A. A. Lefrerey, respondent, opened yesterday at 11 a. m. The court delivered judgment as to expiring of the time for commencement of trial and intimated that they were prepared to proceed with the trial. Counsel on behalf of the petitioner then addressed the court to the effect that they had no evidence to offer and upon motion of Mr. Wyatt in behalf of respondent the petition was dismissed with costs against the petitioner.

It will interest those who love good chocolates to learn that J. H. Locke has just received 20 cases and 15 pails of Ganong's confectionery. If you want some nice G. B. Chocolates in 1 lb. boxes or in bulk call at this old reliable fruit and confectionery store. With eighteen years experience in handling these goods he can give his customers the very lowest prices wholesale and retail. 13 d w f m 31.

As usual Gourlie's drugstore has a big variety of Xmas goods on display including perfumes of all kinds including the best French and English makes, put up beautifully in dainty packages. For smokers' supplies they are headquarters, having pipes of the G. B. D. and H. B. B. brands, these being the world's best. This firm has the sole agency for Kodaks here. A Kodak makes a very acceptable gift and is not expensive, costing from $1 to $20 each. There are many other useful and handsome articles suitable for Xmas in their stock. It will pay you to call at Gourlie's drugstore before purchasing Xmas gifts.

The social and entertainment at Freetown on Thursday evening last under the auspices of Court Freetown I. O. F. was quite a success. The fine weather and good sleighing brought the young men and maidens from far and near filling the Foresters' Hall to its utmost capacity. David Arbing made an ideal chairman. Although not a Forester he praised the Order for the good work that the society does in providing a scheme of insurance and sick benefits, the cost of which is within the reach of every working man. Instrumental music was supplied by Messrs Melver and Reeves. L. U. Fowler gave two readings which were much appreciated. J. M. Clark, M. L. A., who is always at home at a gathering of Foresters, gave an interesting address on the benefits and strength of the Order. In concluding his half hour address he paid a warm tribute to the High Standing Committee for the efforts in arranging for free Hospital care for members in this province. The best appreciated part of the program were the songs by J. W. Melver, the popular teacher from Kinkora. He was twice on the program, and being each time endorsed made four songs from "Johnny," who is always welcome at any gathering. A vote of thanks moved by J. H. Crossman, seconded by R. B. Auld was tendered to Mr. Melver for the contributions to the program. The pies were auctioned by L. U. Fowler and brought good prices. The total proceeds amounted to over $87.00 which goes towards the payment of an organ.—Com.
