When travelling abroad it necessitates one taking a lot of baggage and running considerable risk of losing same through a wreck, railroad accident, fire in hotel or through theft. Any person can obtain a policy at small cost covering all these risks, also policies that will indemnify for any illness or bodily injury one may receive by applying to Hyndman & Co. Charlottetown.

The attention of readers is called to S. A. McDonald's large advertisement in this issue. This is the first white goods sale the firm has had since embarking in the dry goods trade in addition to the clothing, men's furnishings and Customed tailoring business. They will offer every 5th yard sold, no matter what the price may be whether 5 cts or $1.00, for one cent per yard. Supposing a lady purchased say 50 yards of their 20 cent cotton she would secure 10 yards of same for 10 cts., or one cent per yard for 10 yards. The same thing applies to ready to wear goods in white wear every 5th garment of the one price will be sold for 9 cts each. The idea is one that will no doubt appeal to the buying public. On Saturday the firm are going to open up every department of their store on the same generous offer. Every 5th article of the one price will be sold for 9 cts, no matter if the price is 5 cts or $50.00. Intending purchasers are requested to call as early in the day as possible to avoid the rush.

Oh! tear the old paper down! Your tired of it, so is everybody

You are not giving your home a fair chance to look its best if you keep the same old dingy paper on the walls forever. We venture to say that if you wore the same old dress that you were married in that maybe you would not look up to the minute yourself. And you have to see the paper oftener than the dress too.

Fresh bright cheerful paper on your walls really means more homelike and happier surroundings for yourself and your family. A great many smart people think that it means better health as well. We have the paper, it is chosen by experts of years of experience, the patterns are meeting with the enthusiastic approval of everyone, the colorings are tasteful, the prices are within easy reach.
