Where upwards of 80 guests gathered to do honor to the popular young couple. To the strains of the wedding march softly played by Mrs. Stillmen Frizzle the bride and groom were escorted to the seats of honor by Mr. William Stewart Jr. and Mrs. Chester MacLean friends of the bride. A table laden with many lovely gifts were opened by the bride and the names of the donors were announced by Mrs. George Carson. The gifts were taken from the bride and were tastefully arranged by Mrs. C. MacLean and Mrs. Stuart MacKinnon; after which Earle in his usual pleasant manner on behalf of his bride thanked the people for their kindness. RED CROSS CAMPAIGN ORGANIZATION

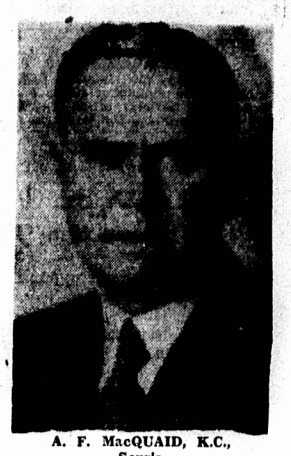
CAPT. N. W. LOWTHER
Vice-Chairman
Heading Charlottetown Collection

PETER G. CLARK
Summerside
Prince County Chairman

H. F. MacPHEE, K.C., M.L.A.
Charlottetown
Queens County Chairman



A. F. MacQUAID, K.C.,
Souris
Kings County Chairman

Week after next is Red Cross Campaign week when all Prince Edward Islanders will be privileged to contribute generously and abundantly to ensure that the great work of the Red Cross may be carried forward fully and completely in the culminating struggles of this Invasion Year.

Meanwhile there is great activity in preparing and organizing for the great collection.

Last year's campaign in this Province was an outstanding and wonderful success. This year the need is undoubtedly greater than ever and the ambition is that every subscription will be upped at least ten per cent. Already a number of advance subscriptions received show much greater increases.

Very fortunately practically all of those who filled the key positions in the campaign organization in the past are available and eager to carry on again and it is fully expected that the same spirit of co-operation will be in evidence right down the line with every collector anxious to get the work completed quickly and beat out last year's record by a good margin.

Mr. D. J. Bonnell is the Provincial Chairman and general organizer of the campaign. Four vice-chairmen each head one of the four area organizations into which the Province is divided — Peter G. Clark of Summerside for Prince County, H. F. MacPhee, K.C., for Queens County outside of Charlottetown, A. F. McQuaid for Kings County and Capt. N. W. Lowther for Charlottetown. Messrs. A. G. Parks and L. H. Poole of Montague carry the responsibility for Southern Kings County.

The Patrons are Hon. B. W. LePage, Lieut. Governor, Hon. J. Walter Jones, Premier and Hon. G. D. DeBlois while the Honorary Chairman are Dr. W. J. MacMillan, Provincial President of the Red Cross and Mr. George J. Tweedy, representative to the National Council. The Honorary City Chairman is Mr. George M. Moore.

Major T. Edgar MacNutt is honorary secretary, Miss Iphigenie Arsenault, secretary, Mr. Arthur Belcher, honorary treasurer, Mr. Alban Farmer, treasurer.

The General Executive consists of: Dr. J. A. Clark, W. S. Grant, Noel H. DeBlois, Russell C. Clark, Dr. H. D. Johnson, Hon. H. H. Cox, J. F. Leightizer, E. C. Johnstone, J. E. Campbell, J. J. Duffy, T. Roy Cudmore, E. P. Foley, R. D. Quigley, N. D. MacLean and the Publicity committee is made up of Robert L. Cotton, N. D. MacLean, Lt.-Col. K. S. Rogers, W. A. Gaudet, J. R. Burnett, F.J.I., W. C. McLeod.

Other committees are headed as follows: Commando Committee,—Robert T. Holman; Promotions Committee, George A. Walters; Special Names Committee, George J. Tweedy; Non-Resident Committee, W. E. Champion and Sidney T. Green; Women's Committee, Mrs. J. A. MacMillan.

There is a special committee for the Armed Forces consisting of Colonel G. Elliot Full, Lt.-Col. J. R. Paton, Lt.-Com. C. P. McKenzie, Group Captain H. N. Hampton and Major A. S. Robertson.

In the organization of Queens County outside of Charlottetown Messrs. Samuel Kennedy and Ernest MacNutt are the committee for the First District. J. O. Hyndman and Reginald Bell for the Second District. A. W. Hyndman and J. J. Morris for the Third District. S. A. McLeod and M. W. Wood for the Fourth District. N. A. Darrach for East Royalty, Lincoln Wood for Central Royalty and Gordon Rodd for West Royalty.

Splendid Increases

Very soon after announcement was made of the dates for the Red Cross Campaign enthusiastic supporters from various parts of the Province began sending in their subscriptions to Red Cross headquarters at Charlottetown. It is particularly pleasing to note how many of those already heard from have materially increased their contributions this year. One who sent seven dollars last year has sent fifty dollars this year, another who sent ten dollars last year has sent twenty dollars this year, several have increased from five to ten dollars and one friend of the cause who sent $25. in 1942, sent $50. in 1943 and now has forwarded $75.00 for the 1944 campaign. Pretty good while the campaign is only being organized.

She was in failing health for the past few years, and for the last number of months received every possible nursing care from her daughter, Mrs. Vincent J. Leonard.

Mrs. McQuillan was of a very cheerful disposition, and her solicitude for others made her a much loved Mother and respected neighbor. Despite the heavy duties she was called upon to perform, as the surviving parent of eleven children, she was bright and cheerful, and was ready at all times to take part in any activities for the good of the community. She will be greatly missed by a large circle of relatives, friends and neighbors.

Shanks, and Anne, Mrs. Clarence Pfromm, Guyahoga, Falls, Ohio; Katherine, Mrs. Peter C. Trainor and Bertha, Mrs. Vincent J. Leonard, Charlottetown; James and Patrick of Boston, Mass.; Owen of Elmwood, P. E. I., Joseph and John at home.

During her illness, Mrs. McQuillan was frequently visited by Rev. Louis A. Dougan and Rev. Frederick Cass. The last rites of the Roman Catholic Church were administered by Lev. Louis A. Dougan.

The funeral was held from her home at New Haven to St. Anne's Church, Tyrone, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Leonard Ayers, who also conducted the services at the grave.
