NOTES FROM THE UNION COMMERCIAL COLLEGE

"I am always interested in the good work of the school, which has been of so much benefit to me, as well as many others". Statement of Miss Julia Kelly of Portsmouth, N. H. formerly bookkeeper with Stanley Bros. of this city.

Miss Madeline MacCormac, Little Pond, registered at the Union Commercial College this week.

Almost every day applications are received at the Union Commercial—the school that has won the confidence of the people.

For speed and efficiency you should study touch typewriting. If you had to look for every step you take in walking to work in the morning you would make slow progress, wouldn't you? If you had to watch by sight every action of your feet and hands your work would be cut down fully 75 per cent. And so with your typewriting. Our system of touch typewriting enables you to read your copy while your hands operate the key board. This increases your speed fully 50 per cent.

Mr. R. L. Cleveland who was here some time ago investigating the fox business for Boston financiers in general and The Boston American newspaper in particular, had most of his copy for the Boston American Fox edition typewritten by Miss Block, a U.C.C. graduate of last spring. Mr. Cleveland was so pleased with Miss Block's work that he has sent for her to fill a position in the Boston American office on State Street.

Penmanship classes every day at the Union Commercial College. Is it any wonder the graduates are good penmen?

At the Union Commercial College students are given individual, practical and personal attention. The slightest discourtesy on the part of any member of the teaching staff is something the management will not permit.

The Gregg system of short hand has proved by actual results that it is the best system in use today. As Mr. E. C. Howard, Principal of the San Francisco Business College a law and general reporter and stenographic teachers of Ben Pitman shorthand, says: "I formed a trial class in Gregg being placed by the side of the Ben Pitmanic writers. The Gregg pupils proved superior at the end of a month—two, three, four, five and six months—at every test they could write faster and read faster and read better than any Pitmanic student of the same instruction." And remember this from a man who teaches and practices Benn Pitman Phonography.

MEXICAN PETROLEUM

LOS ANGELES, November 7—In connection with the announcement that the directors of Mexican Petroleum company had adjourned until next Wednesday without taking any action on the common dividend, it was stated by directors that the company had sufficient money in the treasury to pay the common dividend, but distribution of this will depend altogether on outcome of Mexican troubles. Company has so far suffered no serious losses but should disturbances become so Violent in the vicinity of Tampico as to interfere with shipment of oil to outside points the revenue of the Mexican Petroleum company would be greatly reduced and it is with this possibility in mind, according to the directors, that action on dividend was delayed.

SPORTING NEWS

The old time Intermediate Football rivals met in a hot conflict at the A. A.A.A. grounds on Saturday afternoon. A very large crowd took advantage of the excellent weather and attended to witness a wonderfully good game for intermediates. The field was in an excellent condition and the boys had every facility for good ball. As the goal posts on the east end of the field were not in place tries could not be converted nor field goals kicked.

In the first half the "new" game played, and consequently very little scrim work took place.

Prince of Wales kicked off against the sun and followed it to the Saints twenty-five yard line where it went in touch. The Saints got the leather on their throw-in and dribbled it to the Prince of Wales territory. The Saints still continued to gain and the P. W. C.'s were forced to ruse.

A lot of open play here took place then Henry Fitzgerald of the Saints, got away for a magnificent run taking the ball well into his opponents territory before he was downed.

Shortly afterwards the Saints got the ball from the throw-in of an intouch about the "Princes" twenty-five yard line. They dribbled and Curran their star half back, whose kicking was a feature of the game, got the "pig skin" over to the line making the first score for the Saints. The Saints after some more dribbling worked the ball again back into P.W.C. territory, McCarey then got the ball for a nice run being forced into touch by his opponents. He got the ball on the throw-in, however, and made another good run.

Here a delay ensued owing to an injury to one of the P. W. C.'s, Vans McLean, who retired and was replaced by Spindles. Prince of Wales on the resumption of play started to rush things. By clever work they got the ball down to the S. D. C. line. But Fitzgerald, whose runs were a feature of the game, saved the situation making a nice run and taking the ball out of danger.

The first half ended with play near the "Princes" line.

In the second half the old game was played and the P.W.C. team, who had the heavier scrim, seemed to play it more effectively than the new game.

The Saints kicked off with sun against them. McCarey caught it and made a beautiful run.

Some good kicking here took place both teams indulging skillfully. The Prince of Wales then became the aggressors and forced the Saints to ruse.

Nice runs were next made by McCarey and Whitlock the latter played an excellent steady game as also did the former whose only fault appeared to be in not passing to his team mates.

Prince of Wales got a free kick which was caught by Fitzgerald who came back for another nice run after some even play McCarey on an excellant run took the ball down to the Saints ten yard line. Although the "Princes" would get the ball down near their opponents line they seemed unable to score although superior in scrim work. Before the half ended good runs were made by Butler, of the Saints, and Landrigan, Davison, Boates, McCarey and Koughan of Prince of Wales. The latter who played full back was one of the stars of his team, his beautiful kicks and runs saving many that looked like sure scores.

The game ended 3-0, however in favor of Saint Dunstans College. Mr. Reginald Fitzgerald, of the Connaught team, refereed quite efficiently and satisfactorily.

HARVARD VS. PRINCETON

(Canadian Press)

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—Harvard defeated Princeton 3 to 0 on Saturday afternoon.

SHOOTING.

What may probably be the last organized shoot of this season for city riflemen took place at the Kensington range yesterday afternoon, when a number of rifle enthusiasts took advantage of the fine day and were rewarded with some sport. Some very good shooting was done, the weather conditions being favorable therefor. On early setting in of dusk now, the shooting, at the longer ranges was done first, commencing with the 500 yards; the 200 yards being the last range taken. Jim Landrigan was in great form and commenced with a possible at 500 yards, and at 600 he made 33 out of 35, thus going down to the 200 with the excellent score of 68 out of 70. He had an excellent chance of winning the Stanley Medal for the man making a century who has not already done so this season, but at the 200 yards range when with his last shot he wanted a bulls-eye to do the trick, he only made an inner, and so failed to get the hundred by just one point. His score of 99 was, however, an excellent bit of shooting. Other good scores were made by W. S. Louson, (97), Capt. Stanley (93), E. G. Love (93), and G. M. Moore (93.).

ENGAGED TO LONG LOST BROTHER.

LONDON, Ont., Nov. 8.—Alice and Carl Jacobson, brother and sister, lost to each other since childhood, were brought to-day to know themselves in their true relationship after a courtship which was about to result in marriage.

Several years ago in England Carl was adopted by a family named Smithson, who went to New York and finally came to this city. A few months ago Carl met Alice Jacobson, also from England, and they soon became engaged.

The young woman in writing to her parents enclosed a picture of Carl and told of her engagement. The parents were of the opinion that it was the long lost son, and an investigation revealed the fact that the engaged couple were brother and sister.

BOOKED TO FLY ACROSS ATLANTIC IN A DIRIGIBLE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.— Prospect for a transatlantic voyage by airship seems to be a matter of the immediate future, according to the statement by A. L. Cronemyer of the Hamburg American line. He is the passenger traffic manager of the line, and recently returned from Hamburg where he saw the manager of the company that operates the Zeppelin dirigibles over a passenger carrying route from Berlin.

Mr. Cronemeyer said that this company contemplated the construction of a huge dirigible that would be large enough to cross the North Atlantic and then fly over the United States to the Panama Pacific Exposition at San Francisco in 1915. The design of the big dirigible has not yet been wholly formulated, but he declared that it would have the capacity for sufficient fuel to last on such a long voyage and would possess a speed of about sixty miles an hour.

The transatlantic Zeppelin would have passenger accommodations for thirty persons, and, according to Mr. Cronemeyer, that number have already signified their intention of taking passage, at the rate of $5,000 each.

"The Hamburg-American line," he said, "has always attended to the business of booking the passengers for the Zeppelin airships that flying Germany and will do the same with this new transatlantic flyer."

Frail, Weakly Child

MADE STRONG BY VINOL

So many cases like this are coming to our attention for the benefit of fathers and mothers of weak, sickly, ailing children in this vicinity we publish the following letter:

Mrs. J. P. Weatherford, Litchfield, Ill., says: "We have had an invalid child for the past nine years and until we began using Vinol, we sometimes thought there was little hope for him. He would have terrible coughing spells at night, and they would leave him so exhausted. We tried everything, but to no avail. At last some one suggested that we try Vinol, and we noticed a change in him from the very first. The coughing spells ceased and he gained in strength right along. We would not be without it and would advise parents who have frail and weakly children to try Vinol."

This is because the child needed the strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains. No oil, delicious taste. Children love it. We give back your money if Vinol does not benefit. E. A. Foster, druggist, Charlottetown.

BOSTON, November 7—"Grandfather of all living lobsters," was the title accorded a giant crustcean brought to port today. The lobster was the largest landed here in fifty years, the old-time lobstermen said. When they had finished their observations the following figures were given out:

"Weight, twenty-seven pounds, age about fifty years, spread from claw to claw thirty-seven inches, length of claw twenty-four inches, feelers twenty inches, width of back ten inches. Would make salad for twenty-five persons."
