Will Meet on April 4th to Discuss Reciprocity.

Tariff Bill Read Third Time

A WARM SESSION

Special to The Guardian. WASHINGTON, Mar. 5—The Senate having failed to sit on reciprocity agreement, President Taft has called an extra session of Congress to meet on April 4.

The bill to create a permanent tariff board passed the Senate Saturday amid turbulent scenes. Senator Gore, Oklahoma, sought to offer the Canadian reciprocity agreement as a rider but the tariff bill was passed to its third reading and he was shut out.

CAPTAIN KENDALL OF CRIPPEN FAME IS IN HALIFAX

HALIFAX, March 3—The Allan Line Lake Erie, in command of Captain Henry George Kendall, the only and original discoverer of Dr. Crippen and Miss LeNeve, arrived in port at five a. m. yesterday from Glasgow after a voyage which was uniformly unfavorable. Bad weather was encountered from the time she left Monville, at 11 a. m. a week ago Sunday.

The Lake Erie encountered no ice for the reason that she went far south to avoid it. The bad weather continued till the ship was near Sable Island.

The Lake Erie landed 77 second and 143 third class passengers at Halifax. She will take 59 second and 68 third class passengers to Boston. About 500 tons of cargo is being discharged here, and a lot of cargo is being taken on at this port for Glasgow.

Captain Kendall made his first visit to Halifax since his world-wide achievement. He has sailed to and from this port for years in company of C.P.R. liners. Captain Carey took sick just before the Lake Erie was ready to sail and had to go to the hospital. Captain Kendall was called upon to take his place. "How did you know I was on board?" asked the captain. It was the turn of the press to look mysterious and to hint that all things are as an open book in these days of wondrous speed.

Captain Kendall naturally takes a pride in being the first to utilize wireless telegraphy in the arrest of a murderer. In connection with this he made mention of the fact that it is more than sixty-five years ago that telegraphy was first used for the purpose. In 1845 a woman named Sarah Hart was murdered at Slough, near London. Her screams were heard by a neighbor who saw a person dressed like a Quaker leaving the place by a pathway. He took the train to London. The Great Western Railway had just installed a telegraphic system and the message announcing the facts outsped the train. John Towell, the culprit, a member of the Society of Friends, was arrested and condemned. The Lake Erie goes from here to Boston.

THE MAN YOU MENT TO BE

By Arthur William Beer. A vision there came in the night to me: There stood before me with sad, stern eyes A man whose presence breathed a keen, wisdom and virtue, and high embrace. What was it brought back the years long fled? Who and what was this stranger to me? I questioned him straightway, he gravely said: "I am the man you meant to be." Then, stricken sorely, I turned away, Gone for aye was the wasted past.

AN ELOQUENT DISCOURSE ON AMUSEMENTS

Last evening in St. James' Church Rev. T. F. Fullerton delivered a strong address on "Amusements." The talented speaker chose as his text the words "Add to your knowledge of the world, and to the joy of the Church when it kept aloof cavaliers whose joyous nature and his love of the sports of the day was thought not in keeping with the demeanor of a Christian. He showed the fallacy of this, saying Jesus did not go to the amusement, he went to the joyous man and not the man of taste and decorum. He wants the man of impulse, energy, and ambition, he living true religion embraces the whole of life, body, mind and soul.

The cavalier of yesterday is to be found in the sport of today. Sport an allurements to the broad path which leads to destruction. Idleness, he said, was not amusement; the proper definition of the latter was a form of work by which one obtains relaxation, it was a grace note in the music of life and was indispensable for cultivating a good temper, body and mind, and lifted the partaker out of monotony. Killing time was the sport of the fool, while the strenuous game was a change of labor and a relief from strain and formed a commendation in the eyes of the Chancellor of the Exchequer when showing that brain or muscle cannot stand an unbroken change. Youth, he said, was manhood in the making and must have exercise, there being no justification for the baby chest and shambling gait associated with life of today. He spoke of a youth who resolved into a desire to win admiration for his prowess and endurance. He told of Canada's games being played by the child, the youth and the men and women of all ages, and he drew a bright word picture of a hockey match which, he said, resembled the historical tournaments immortalized by eminent authors. He asked should the national game of Canada be condemned because there had been associated with it boisterous conduct, drinking and profanity? No, he said, these had nothing to do with the game; there was no more connection than hypocrisy had with religion. These habits would exist in that never was a hockey match.

He said he had one objection to hockey, there were too few played the game. He spoke of professionalism as that which stamped out moral virtue associated with sport. He dwelt at considerable length on the benefits of sport in moderation whereby strength of body and mind

GIRL AWARDED $10,000 VERDICT

NEW YORK, Feb. 28—Miss Henrietta French, the pretty South Dakota girl who sued David H. Deever, Jr., a wealthy young civil engineer of this city, for breach of promise of marriage, was awarded a verdict of $10,000 by a jury in the Supreme Court today.

Justice Erlanger reserved decision on a motion to set verdict aside, declaring it was "extremely excessive." "Why," said the justice, "this is a sympathetic verdict, and there is no justification for it. The only witness in the case were the plaintiff, defendant and the plaintiff's brother. No one in the whole State of South Dakota, where the promise was alleged to have been made, was called on to testify as to the engagement of the plaintiff and defendant. "Not a dollar of damage has been shown, except that naturally arising from the alleged breach. Not a dollar on wardrobe, wedding preparations, or anything else. I will take briefs on the question of a reduction of the verdict, which I regard as entirely disproportionate."

STRICT MEASURES ON LAKE SHORE RY.

TOLEDO, O., March 2.—A reduction of 2 per cent in wages, curtailment of the number of employees, and the working hours from 10 to 8 hours has been ordered for the locomotive department of the Lake Shore Railway in Toledo taking effect today. Instructions were issued to all men working in the boiler makers shops to stop work at 8 o'clock. Men who struck here nearly two weeks ago have been filled.

were developed, concluding this by saying that the man who played an honorable game in his sporting career would never degrade himself in after life.

Mr. Fullerton stated that never since the days of the decline of Rome was pleasure written so largely on human life as it was today. He strongly protested against the worship of pleasure. There was too many Clare Vere de Vere's who were so immersed in pleasure that they cannot afford an hour a week for the worship of God and are obscuring the vision of the Unseen and the Eternal.

He said the present sport must be exciting or it did not appease or satisfy. Do the stars shining above require a pyrotechnic display to catch the imagination? There was a place for pleasure, but that for which road was sacrificed was pleasure predominant. It defeated its own end. Most exquisite pleasure comes through pain and again the most exhaustive pain has come from pleasure. If extensive time was spent in indoor games of skill by which spiritual temperaments were lowered, precious time which God gave for higher and nobler ends was wasted.

The pastor concluded by exhorting his hearers to exercise self-control. St. Peter's admonition in the words of his text.

After a prayer and the singing of a hymn, Mr. Fullerton stated that pleasures were interfering with the attendance at prayer meetings on Wednesday evenings, and he reminded the congregation of their duty in this respect, claiming that one hour out of six days was not too much to ask.

ONTARIO PROVINCIAL ENGINEER ENDORSES OIL AS DUST LAYER

TORONTO, March 1—At this morning's session of the Association of Ontario Land Surveyors, W. A. McLean, provincial engineer of highways, gave an address on Surface Treatment for Dust-Laying and Road Preservation. He said sprinkling with water had failed and as the multiplication of automobiles has rendered the dust problem acute on rural roads, he urged the use of oil to prevent injury to crops, fruit lawns, and houses. He greatly favored the system used in Toronto, and thought it should be tried in other parts of Ontario. Paraffine oil, such as that used in Toronto, may be sprinkled from an ordinary watering-cart.

SIFTON'S ATTITUDE AS VIEWED IN THE WEST

WINNIPEG, March 3.—Hon. Clifford Sifton's stand on the reciprocity question created a sensation in Winnipeg. The legislation was in session when the news arrived and it was the sole topic of conversation.

Most of the Liberal papers comment on Mr Sifton's stand. The Saskatoon Phoenix says that it is merely an incident and that his loss will not be seriously felt. It had to come in this tragic break in Parliament, and for Western Liberalism it did not come too soon. In this fight we need to know who are for us and who are against us.

Other Western Liberal papers take a similar stand. On the same page with a column editorial entitled "Playing with fire" in the Winnipeg Free Press bitterly assailing en masse those who oppose the reciprocity past, today appears a half column editorial lauding the independent spirit displayed by Hon Clifford Sifton in his speech.

Mr. Sifton is interested in the Free Press. The Brandon Sun, (Liberal) published in the centre of the constituency represented by Mr Sifton, deals at length in a hostile way with Mr. Sifton's utterance.

CALCUTTA, March 1—The budget meeting for consideration today at a meeting of Viceroy's council. Sir Guy F. Wilson introduced a bill reducing the import tax on tobacco, cigars and cigarettes by one-third. This bill will become a law next week. This is the only fiscal change made in the budget.

The opium question also was discussed. Sir Guy, referring to the large surplus from opium, said that he could not consent that India should suffer losses which brought on corresponding benefit, for the case of reforms in China and the government should therefore safeguard India's legitimate interests so long as India's trade exists.

Ireland's Chief Secretary Brings down Gladstone's old Bill in a Modified Form

EARL OF CREWE ILL

Special to The Guardian. LONDON, Mar. 5—Augustine Burrell, Chief Secretary for Ireland, has announced the Government's Home Rule for Ireland Bill, which will be on the lines of Gladstone's second Home Rule measure subject to the modifications that time has shown will be wise and rational.

The Government is now engaged in inquiring into the fiscal position of Ireland preparatory to granting Home Rule.

Earl of Crewe, Government Leader in the House of Lords and Secretary of State for India, was removed in an ambulance yesterday from the Hotel to the home of his father, Earl of Rosebery, following a sudden and serious illness.

STORMY VOYAGE AHEAD FOR FRENCH SHIP OF STATE

PARIS, March 2.—The new French Cabinet finds its hands full of trouble even before it is fully formed. With the real power vested in the hands of the Socialists, and with Germany grumbling with dissatisfaction over the appointment of M. Theophile Delcasse to a post in the portfolio, the state faces a political crisis more serious than that which led to the downfall of Premier Briand and his ministry.

The attitude of the Monis Cabinet as introduced today with at least places in doubt, is most forcefully shown in the presence of four of the Radicals within the portfolio. They were M. Bertheaux, Minister of war, who led the interpellation, which caused M. Briand's downfall, M. Steeg, Minister of Public Instruction, M. Masse, Minister of Agriculture, and M. Messimy, Minister of the Colonies.

The reliance which M. Antoine Minos, the new Premier has implicitly placed in the new Ministry, in making his cabinet selections, augurs a stormy voyage for the French ship of state for a time at least.

Paris heard today that Germany is preparing to protest against the appointment of M. Delcasse, Minister of Marine, because of his activity against Germany in Morocco six years ago. At that time Delcasse, who was minister of foreign affairs was dropped on pressure from Germany. A Socialist program for the Chamber is already outlined.

The evidence showed that Miss Mullens, a maid employed by a Harvard professor, was lured to Squire's Field, Arlington, and attacked by M. Mantier and Delorey, and the body, with the head nearly severed, was found a day or two later. For six months the case was a complete mystery. But a quarrel between Mantier and Delorey led to the arrest of both and a confession by Delorey who claimed that Mantier cut the woman's throat. Delorey is a native of Antigonish, N. S.
