Laling, Esq., a former Academy student, for history in Grade 12, was also won by Margaret Douglas Bidden—who will next year start the second year of her B.A. at Dalhousie.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but pretty wedding took place at St. Ann's Church, Lot 65 on the morning of June 20, 1933, when Miss Katie Osborne, daughter of Mr. and the late Mrs. William Osborne, Riverdale, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John P. McMurrer son of Mr. and Mrs. James McMurrer, Green Road. The bride looked charming dressed in blue silk with proper accessories to match and was attended by Miss Lillian McMurrer, sister of the groom, while Mr. Eddie Osborne, brother of the bride, ably assisted the groom. After the wedding ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Fr. Herville, P. P., the bridal party motored to the bride's home where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. Later in the day they left by motor on a short honeymoon trip visiting various parts of the Island. Here's wishing Mr. and Mrs. McMurrer many happy years of wedded bliss.

The woodwork was done by MacDougall and Macaulay and the painting by H. H. Crossman. Every detail is perfectly reproduced and the model which was on display in St. John, was very favourably commented upon by the people in that city. The whole model is enclosed in a glass case.

THE "BUSH" THAT GOOD WINE DOESN'T NEED—Everyone is familiar with the phrase "Good wine needs no bush," but while its significance is well understood, it is in these days somewhat of a puzzle to most people to understand the connection of "bush" with "wine." Once upon a time it was perfectly clear to everybody. In the olden days the term "bush" was applied to the branch or bunch of ivy (perhaps as sacred to Bacchus) which was hung up as a vintner's sign. Later when sign-boards came into use, the term was applied to the sign-board of a tavern. But good wine needed no bush (or sign-board) because everyone in the community knew where the best wine was to be had. Just as the world makes a beaten path to the door of the man who can make a better mouse-trap than anyone else, so the community made a beaten path to the door of the vintner who made the best wine and it didn't matter whether he hung out a bush or not. It is the same way with all commodities and it is really a sign of weakness when too frantic efforts are made to interest people in a product. Too much "bush" sometimes causes the consumer to wonder if the product is all that it is cracked up to be. Take tea for instance. It is perfectly clear when you buy a pound of tea and get a jig saw puzzle or some other present thrown in, you are paying for two things—a pound of tea and whatever the present may be. Teas like MORSE'S TEAS do not depend upon prizes, premiums and presents for their popularity. In fact, the popularity of MORSE'S TEAS was built up on quality and on that basis it will be maintained. As a consequence of following this sound business policy MORSE'S BLUE-NOSE TEA at 35 cents per pound package has as good quality as many 40 cent teas and MORSE'S STANDARD TEA at 40 cents has quality equal to that of nighly advertised teas offered at 50 cents. MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE, Canada's Tea de Luxe, at 70 cents per pound package is 5 cents a pound lower than any other tea of Orange Pekoe grade.

FIRE LAST EVENING—About 8.30 last evening the firemen were called to extinguish a blaze in the attic of a house on Water Street. As the firemen responded promptly they were able to cope with the flames by means of the chemical, and thus averted what might have been a serious blaze.

BABY SHOW—Among the many attractions at the opening of the new P. E. I. Hospital will be the baby show. All babies born in the P. E. I. Hospital during the last five years will be eligible to compete for prizes which have been donated by the doctors of the P. E. I. Hospital staff. The babies will be judged by a committee of four doctors, and cash prizes will be awarded to the healthiest, normal babies in each class. Parents wishing to enter children in the Baby Show must send in applications not later than July 1st stating date of birth, with an entry fee of 25 cents to Mrs. A. Duvar, 120 Spring Park Road.

COUNTY COURT—On Friday before His Honor Judge Duffy in the County Court the cases of George and Wilbert Stetson vs. George Kitson and Samuel Silliphant were heard and disposed of. The cases arose over a potato transaction which occurred in the Spring of 1931, and followed the case of Archibald Johnson vs. Geo. Kitson in which judgment was given for the defendant a few days ago. A number of witnesses were called on each side, and on the conclusion of the Stetson case judgment was given for the defendant Kitson with costs. On the conclusion of the evidence for the plaintiff in the Silliphant case, Counsel moved for a non-suit, Counsel for the plaintiff consented to the same and judgment was given non-suiting the plaintiff with costs. Mr. M. A. Farmer for plaintiffs and Mr. R. R. Bell for the defendant.

FAMILY REUNION—The Dewar family at New Perth with their several members to the number of thirty held a family reunion on the old homestead farm at New Perth on the afternoon of June 21st and while their ages range from seventy years downward it is a family circle that has never been severed by the hand of death. They are Dr. G. F. Dewar, Charlottetown; Mrs. Shirley Snow of Brocton, Mass.; Mrs. E. S. Norton and Mrs. G. H. Parker of Georgetown, Royalty, and J. A. Dewar and Mrs. Isabella MacLaren of New Perth. They are a family that have acted well their part in supplying the healing touch to the fevered brow. The sisters were all trained nurses. After the party had partaken of its good things under which the tables groaned, a programme of music and addresses was carried out. The ideal weather and the beauty of the surroundings added an inspiration and charm that will be long remembered.

NICHOLSON — BAMPTON—The marriage of Irene Margaret, daughter of the late Alexander and Emma Nicholson of Cambridge, Mass., formerly of Cardigan, Prince Edward Island, to Lawrence Clinton Bampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bampton, Roxbury, Mass., took place at the home of the bride's mother on June 21, 1933. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Frederick Fitz of St. John's Episcopal Church. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Caleb was charmingly gowned in a long, sweeping model of white organdy with white picture hat and carried an arm bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her bridesmaid, Miss Beth Douglas, formerly of Georgetown, Prince Edward Island, wore a yellow organdy gown, cut on the same lines as that of the bride's, with yellow picture hat and carried tea roses. Mr. John R. Bampton, Jr., brother of the groom was best man. A reception followed the ceremony at which sixty guests, many of whom were former Prince Edward Island friends of the bride extended their best wishes and congratulations to the bride and groom. The bride's mother wore blue lace with corsage of orchids and the mother of the groom wore blue chiffon with corsage of tea roses. The bride and groom left immediately after the reception by motor on a honeymoon trip to Prince Edward Island. The bride travelled in a grey ensemble. Mr. and Mrs. Bampton are now the guests of Hon. J. A. and Mrs. Macdonald at Cardigan. They will reside at 7 Corney St., Medford, Mass.

MRS. WILLARD PIPPY

Just at the close of Thursday eve May 18th as the sun was sinking to rest in the West and there appeared two beautiful rain bows in the East, the gentle spirit of Mrs. Willard Pippy passed to its eternal rest, there to join her little daughter who passed away just a week before. After a very fleeting duration in this world, the darling was bidden on earth to bloom in Heaven. The late Mrs. Pippy was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Adams of Bloomfield, Lot 5 and came to this vicinity as a bride a little over a year ago, and endeared herself to all who knew her by her amiable and pleasing personality and willingness to serve and do her duty, she was just in the blossom of womanhood, being only 25 years old, and why one so young is taken is past our understanding, but God in his mercy knows the why and the wherefore and we must bow to His unchangeable grace and say "Thy will be done." Mrs. Pippy joined the United Church in Campbellton when quite young. While Rev. Mr. Elliot, now stationed at Pownall, had charge of that circuit and he had the sad privilege of conducting her funeral service which was held Saturday, May 20th, from her late residence and was largely attended.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. J. R. STEELE

The death occurred at an early hour yesterday morning of Mrs. J. R. Steele, aged 70 years, following a paralytic stroke on Thursday. Her passing is more sad owing to the fact that only on the previous day one of her sons, Frederick J. was married and was not at home at the time of the sad event. He with his bride (nee Grace Doucette) arrived at Tormentine on Saturday too late to catch the last trip of the boat, and were compelled to remain on the mainland until today when they arrived in the city.

The late Mrs. Steele was a lady of pleasing disposition, and a kind and obliging neighbor. She was a faithful member of the church of St. Dunstan's Basilica, and although unable to take an active part in society work, maintained deep interest in all their activities.

Born in this city seventy years ago the deceased lived here during her lifetime, enjoying a large circle of friends who will regret to learn of her passing.

She leaves to mourn the following sons: James, Providence, R.I., Raymond and Philip, Boston, Fred and Aloysius at home. Raymond and James arrived home on Saturday evening; Philip is expected tomorrow night. Also two sisters, Mrs. John O'Neill and Mrs. John Kelly of this city.

Two brothers also survive, Messrs. John and Patrick Curran, Peake's Station. Her husband predeceased her about twenty-eight years ago.

The funeral notice will appear later.

"Wild Girl" Wins Elaborate Praise

Presenting such popular favorites as Charles Farrell, Joan Bennett, Ralph Bellamy, Eugene Pallette and Irving Pichel in a vivid and colorful story of pioneer days in a California mining camp, "Wild Girl" offers many surprises to Capitol film followers.

Judging from the reaction of the audience at its opening at the Capitol Theatre yesterday, this Fox Film production will take its place among the really outstanding pictures of the season. Both Farrell and Miss Bennett give portrayals of a brand new type. He portrays the character of a grim-faced sergeant, late from the Civil War, seeking the betrayer of his sister. Miss Bennett, abandons the society roles with which she has been identified to burst forth as a hoydenish madcap mountain girl. And both achieve new dramatic heights with their brilliant performances.

Bellamy as a big-hearted gambler, Pallette as a swaggering stagecoach driver and Pichel as a disappointed rival, all provide grand support in bringing the original Bret Harte characters to life. Under Raoul Walsh's deft direction, Harte's "Salome Jane's Kiss" is re-created magnificently. The scenes, most of them filmed high in the California Sierras among the stately big trees of Sequoia National Park, are superbly staged and photographed.

A NEAT MEND

Mending a ladder in a stocking need not be the difficult job most women make it. Just run a seam on the wrong side of the stocking after putting the two edges of the ladder together, taking care to run the seam off gradually to a point at either end. This mend will hardly be noticeable on the right side.

Government estimates indicate that the area to be sown to spring wheat in Canada this year will be 1,475,000 acres smaller than last year.

"Cavalcade" Ranks Highest in Film Achievements

Play, Cast and Direction Receives Well-Merited Ovation

Noel Coward's "Cavalcade," marvelously transferred to the screen by Fox Films, had its premiere at the Prince Edward Theatre yesterday and received a genuine ovation from a capacity audience. "Cavalcade" is absolutely unique as screen entertainment, so much so that it almost defies description by this commentator. There is no "plot" in the constrained meaning of the word; it is instead a vast sequence of plots which Director Frank Lloyd has contrived to make always absorbingly interesting and with which he has achieved effects which fairly lifted the audience out of its seats. Coward has woven the story of the Marryot family, father, mother and two sons, their servants, a butler and maid and their daughter, with a masterful hand against a background which encompasses historical events between 1800 and the present time.

He presents a terrific indictment against those responsible for the present muddled state of world affairs, but ends on a high note of gallant optimism that all will go well if we carry on with courage and faith.

Diana Wynyard magnificent. Most of the principals will be new to American audiences, although the all-star cast contains such familiar names as Clive Brook, Herbert Mundin, Beryl Mercer, Tempe Pigott, John Warburton, Margaret Lindsay, Lionel Belmore and Billy Bevan.

Diana Wynyard in the role of Jane Marryot, gives a magnificent performance which marks her as Hollywood's greatest "discovery" in several years. Brook far exceeds the best work he has ever done before in a picture, while the performances of Mundin and Una O'Connor in character roles, are notable contributions in screen acting.

Ursula Jeans and Frank Lawton, who carry the young love interest, are very capable performers. Miss Jeans being especially effective in her singing of the "Twentieth Century Blues." Irene Browne, Merle Tottenham and others of the large cast add greatly to the enjoyment of the picture.

"Cavalcade" is a beautiful adventure that everyone should experience.

HOPPERS VS. GULLS

GRAND PRE, N. S., June 26.—Forty years ago a grasshopper plague visited the fertile meadows of Grand Pre, N. S., where the early Acadian settlers tilled the soil and Evangeline walked the leafy lanes with her lover, Gabriel. Last year the grasshoppers re-visited the area and did much damage to the hay and started in on the grain when Nature stepped in in the shape of Bay of Fundy gulls, which descended in hundreds and gobbled up the grasshoppers, thus saving half the grain crop, states the Agricultural Department of the Canadian National Railways. This year the grasshoppers are back but so also are the gulls, so that the farmers are hoping the appetites of the gulls hold out long enough to finish off the grasshoppers.
