GLADYS KLARK CO. PRESENTS 'THE BAT'

Before a Capacity Audience at the Prince Edward — Production Added Another Success to the Company's Laurels.

"The Bat" one of the most famous of modern mystery plays, was presented before a full house at the Prince Edward Theatre last night by the Gladys Klark Company, and still further enhanced the reputation this troupe is making among local theatre-goers as a capable and successful group of actors. Last night's vehicle demonstrated the versatility of the company, and more especially of Miss Gladys Klark hergelf, who proved herself a comedian of great worth. She was supported by a clever cast which enacted the complex story that makes up the play with an ease and cleverness that avoided any tediousness on the part of the large audience.

"The Bat" abounds in thrills, and these lost none of their quality at the hands of the artists who presented the play last night.

The title role, by Mr. J. E. Balfour, was in capable hands, while Miss Sarah Kyles, as a staid but exceedingly astute spinster, Mr. Louis Everstine, as the mysterious Japanese butler, Miss Dot Jewell as the heroine, Mr. Valmore Balfour as the hero, Mr. Edmond Van Riper as the suspiciously acting doctor, Mr. Fred Sharkey, as Richard Fleming, and Mr. Henry Carleton as the unknown man, all filled their parts with a naturalness which added greatly to the interest of the play.

While the story of "The Bat" is well-known this in no way detracted from last night's performance. The production is such a good one that it can bear seeing, not only once, but many times.

The bill for tonight is "The Hoodlum," a comedy drama.

I thought he turned around and walked back. I saw him struck, heard no crash. He was walking back towards me, turned around and looked at car, didn't notice car swerve. I was sitting in front seat. Sides on car all but right hand front side, he was in my sight. It looked as if car was going to hit him. Car could have stopped before it hit him, I think. Mr. McDonald was trying to get out of the road of the car, think car could have turned around station. Mr. McDonald was far enough to the right that he could have passed without hitting Mr. McDonald. Mr. McDonald turned around when the car was about 2 or 3 yards away, thought Mr. McDonald thought he was far enough over to be safe. Thought he had just stopped, the car hit him as he stopped, saw him running.

Vernon Muttart (sworn) Live at Carleton was in Borden the night of accident, was in front seat of McCarville car, saw the accident, didn't know who he was. Car was just turning the turn above the station, couldn't say that McDonald and Davey separated. Could see him by light of oncoming car, saw Mr. McDonald attempt to cross the street. He was past the centre of the street and came back He came back 3 or 4 feet before he was struck. He was facing the station when he was struck. He was walking backwards. He turned twice, went across and came back and then went over again. Saw him raise his hands as he was struck. The car was running towards the station, don't think car swerved. Car wasn't going as fast as Mr. Dawson tonight. Car was at east end of station when Mr. McDonald attempted to cross. He went over street. I guess he would have been clear of car there. He came back 2 or 3 steps and then stood there facing north east. Car was then on top of him. He moved over and back to or 3 steps while car was going from east end of station, was swinging his arms up and down, heard no noise of brakes, couldn't tell whether car had slowed down or not. Thought that Mr. McDonald thought that he had to step back in order to save being struck. He was over to right pretty well.

Willard Leard (sworn) I was in office at station at time of accident, didn't see it at all, helped remove the car. Campbell came in and said something, he said some darn fool with a big car had run right over Charlie McDonald." I went out then.

Dr. Morley Bell (sworn): I was called about 8 p.m. The body was in the store on a stretcher. Life was extinct. He had a fractured skull. There was much blood. There were cuts on head and face —the clothes were torn. Hemorrhage caused death, probably the meningeal artery was ruptured. The distance is twenty-one paces from point where the conductor stood to where the point where the car stopped.

Frank McKee (sworn.) I was in hotel at time of accident. I helped remove the car off McDonald. Allen Campbell brought stretcher. I helped carry McDonald into the store. I spoke to Wm. Brown concerning accident. He said he was going to take left turn to garage. Conductor walked across the street in an easterly direction and deceased went to north.

Mrs. James Campbell (sworn). I heard the car striking McDonald. I heard a lady moan. I called my husband. I saw the car pass. I cannot say how fast the car was running. I did not hear the horn. He was not coming slowly (Brown.) I heard conductor and McDonald talking about a game of cards when they left the hotel. McDonald said "look out for mud." I think the car was at the southeast of my lawn when I heard the conversation, so far as I can remember. I heard the car before I saw it.

Willard McNeill (sworn.) Some one came and told me of the accident. I helped remove the car from McDonald. I found no marks where McDonald was struck. I saw blood where the car stopped. Deceased said, "I guess I'm all in, boys." It was Vernon Campbell who told me of the accident. He gave me to understand the car was going at a high or excessive rate of speed.

Mr. Stewart, Attorney General, here asked for an adjournment to submit further evidence.

Inquest adjourned to meet at 6 p.m., Sept. 6th, 1926.

Inquest re-opened at 6 p.m., September 6th.

Wm. O. Davey (sworn): I am a conductor on the C. N. R. I was with Chas. McDonald in the hotel on the evening of the accident. About 8 o'clock we left the hotel together. As we went down the grade from the hotel, when on the street, I saw a car coming and cautioned McDonald. Car may have been 200 feet away or more. I went to the right, to the fence corner. McDonald made no remark when I cautioned him. When I moved to the right, McDonald said, "Do not go there, it's wet." I had ample time to get out of the way. I did not have to hurry. I heard the car strike McDonald. I went back to the car after the accident.

Inquest resumed on Sept, 6th, 1926. at 6.30 p.m.

Mary Dawson, (sworn.) Remember Thursday evening, Sept. 2nd. Wm. Brown and Mrs Crosby called on me on last Thursday evening about 7.00 p.m. or 7.30 p.m. Don't remember how long they stayed. They were on a drive. Mr. Brown was perfectly sober. Not dark when they left. My home not far. If they came directly to Borden they would reach here before dark.

Gordon Dawson (sworn): I was busy and hardly saw them. Brown was sober. Didn't see a drop of liquor. Saw him driving out carefully. Just about dusk. About twilight. He would put the lights on before he reached Borden. About four and a half miles to Borden from my place. Hardly be pitch dark when he would arrive at Borden. Nothing else that I know about this. Mr. Brown got out of car at my house.

Ephraim Bell (sworn.) Wasn't in Borden at time of accident. Saw Mr. Brown that evening at my home. Four miles from here. I didn't notice the time. My wife told me at 8.30 p.m. about accident and would judge accident happened at 8 or 8.15. Mrs. Crosby was with him. They were on a friendly call. Brown stayed in car and I talked to him. I would say he was perfectly sober to the best of my knowledge. Saw no evidence whatever of liquor.

Vernon Campbell (sworn): Live Graham's Road. Was in Borden the night of the accident. Was railroad operator here. Know Brown and deceased. Was coming from station to hotel when accident happened. Saw accident. Wasn't paying much attention to car coming in. I would be fifty yards away. Didn't notice the car. Don't know about speed of car. I noticed Conductor Davey and McDonald. First thing I heard was a crash. I saw it also. Didn't see car up to that time. Have told nobody that car was coming at high rate of speed I went to Souris from here. I remember going into station telling that a car had come in and had killed a man. When I saw accident I went into office. I saw car strike Mr. McDonald. He was coming across the street from hotel to station. I saw him by light of car Saw Mr. Davey. Couldn't say how far they were apart. The lights o. the car were shining on Mr McDonald. Couldn't say how fast car was coming. Didn't hear the horn. Mr Campbell and William McNeil were in office. Might have saw car was going fast in my excitement. Couldn't say whether Mr McDonald was running or not. He was moving—stepping back toward the fence. Don't remember having seen them separate. Don't know where Mr. Davey was when Mr McDonald was struck. Couldn't see Mr. Davey on account of the car Couldn't say whether brakes were applied or not. Heard noise of moving car before it struck. Could not say whether Mr. McDonald made an attempt to avoid car Looked as though he turned and went back. Can't say whether walking or running. Can't say whether I heard brakes or not Didn't see car coming to a stop. He had a uniform. Saw his brass buttons. Couldn't say that he was more than 3 feet from car. Didn't see him throw up his hands or hear him shout. Didn't hear any noise on gravel. He didn't turn around, but stepped back. The car would be between me and Mr Davey. I would be a little to the rear of the car from the platform. They were on corner when I saw them first, handy corner of fence. Heard no words pass between Davey and McDonald. Was paying particular attention.

James O'Connell (sworn): Live in Carleton, 3 miles from here. Was in Borden the night of accident. Was standing on this corner near barber shop. Am 14 years old. About 20 yards from fence corner and barber shop. Was sitting in Mark McCarvell's car. We were facing north, on right hand side of street. Open car. Sides were on. Was looking through the windshield. Vernon and Morley Muttart were with me. Saw car coming up. Saw Mr. McDonald running as fast as he could to get clear of car. Didn't see the conductor. First saw car at the west corner of station. Saw the lights. Couldn't say how fast it was going. Wasn't going as fast as the car I saw on the street tonight. Mr. McDonald was running towards the track when I saw him. Saw car hit him. Heard no horn or sound of brakes. Car didn't stop when it struck him. Heard no noise of brakes after car struck him. Couldn't say if car was running straight or not. By glare of lights he was running. Mr. McDonald was running a fair clip. He hadn't stopped or turned before he was struck. Didn't see him put up his hands or hear him shout. He was down further on station side of the street. When car stopped it was in front of this step. Saw car come to a stop. Didn't see car bounce. Thought car was going straight. When car struck him he fell straight out. Car kept on going. Kept on. Didn't seem to jar the car any. He was running faster than I could run. Didn't see car slowing down any. Heard crash. Jumped out of car and went down to where he was struck. Didn't see brass buttons. I was in the rear seat of car. Didn't hear noise of motor. Saw lights when car was at station. Didn't hear him talk before car struck him. Didn't see anyone on corner. Think a person could cross street.

Victor McLaren (sworn.) Over 11 years old. I was coming from station and met Mr. Davey. I saw the car on the curve down past the station. I thought I had time to go across the street, but then I thought I didn't, and ran back. I came out the west end of station. I was walking half way down hill when I saw car coming and went back about ten yards. I went back because I thought car might come up around the station. Car was running pretty fast. Think it was going more than 15 miles per hour. Saw car strike Mr. McDonald. Mr. McDonald was going to slip. Put up his hands. He was stepping back toward south side of street. Car would be fifty yards away when I first saw him. Don't know for sure if he had time to get away. He was walking with Mr. Davey. Mr. Davey moved to right to fence. Mr. McDonald was going towards station. I didn't see Mr. McDonald running. Stopped and went to turn back. Heard no brakes. Heard him dragging after he was struck. The car went from there up to front of store before it stopped. Didn't hear Mr. McDonald shout. Thought I heard him and Mr. McDonald talking. Car slowed down some after I saw it first. When it was up pretty well on him. Heard no brakes or horn. Car was going straight. Lights were on bright. I saw Mr. McDonald when I turned back. I went back and soon I saw car strike Mr. McDonald. I ran over and met Mr. Davey.

When the jury arrived at the conclusion that it could agree on no verdict, it was discharged by the Coroner, Dr. Boyver. It is said that Dr. Boyver has asked to be relieved of his connection with the case, as he had previously planned a trip to the mainland.
