Greatest Array Of Speed In The Island's History

Guardian Representative Confabs With Owners And Drivers At Exhibition Track Yesterday.

"That track is like lightning to-day," said a bystander at the Exhibition grounds yesterday, as these after horse turned in stirring work.

Clockers compared watches unbelievably when Heather Belle, here from Lynn, Mass., and owned by former resident—Mr. Brent McManis—trotted in 2:09 1-4. They marvelled more as Galey McGregg paced rhythmically and without being called upon, in 2:09 1-2. Nor was this the end of the array of speed for Elo Abbe circled around in 2:11 guided by Billy Hood of Sydney.

It was not altogether the fast stepping which had hardened track followers in a furor of excitement, but the ease with which the horses travelled the distance.

No sport in the world is so rich in playing as that of horse racing, and your average horseman can put a power of meaning into one pithy sentence. There is wit, too, in the patter and repartee that goes on without pause between caretakers and hangers-on of all the stables. Gentlemen of colored extraction have ever been part and parcel of racing. The Charlottetown track has its dusky stablemen too who have come here with this or that stable, and these play-boys from the sunny South are natural humorists.

"Stout old mare," remarked someone as a veteran pacer whizzed through the back stretch. His dark skinned listener disagreed. Said he, "You gotta gad that baby all the way. She has a tough hide and a short memory. Look at her now," he continued, "she quits at the three-quarter pole, puts dem both front feet deep in the track and only works her hind legs." This sort of exchange generally starts an argument which takes the contestants all over the American continent and back into the mists of antiquity for the quotations of records and ancestors.

Stables from the mainland continue to arrive by every trip of the ferry and today the track is populated with the brainiest and most experienced drivers in Eastern Canada.

There is no question of the unprecedented class of the meet which starts on Tuesday afternoon next. The Guardian representative spoke with many owners and trainers, and though they expressed themselves in different words, all of them phrased their opinions in the same key.

"How does the meet shape up?" inquired the reporter to Johnny Conroy, "Great bunch of horses," said Johnny, "It's going to be tough, to win anything in this company, I know that."

"Red" Hanifan, whose travels have taken him over a big portion of the United States and Canada, was just as emphatic in his answer. "On this track right now," stated "Red," "you have as sweet a lot of horses as you will see in the Grand Circuit, the Bay State Circuit or on the North American Continent. They'll fly here next week."

"Marvelous lot of horses and more speed than I ever saw on a race track before," was the way Wellington McNeill of Charlottetown put it.

Jim Sanderson of Truro was loath to say anything. Jim's reply was "Horses are evenly matched, I know I am in deep water with the stable."

The owner of Marjorie M.—Mr. E. Jablon—responded in this wise, "Never saw so many fast ones together before. The workouts today have all the boys talking."

The Guardian envoy spent a little more time with George Smith who has just come in from the western part of the Island with Al B. Jr., than he did with some of the rest. "Been long in the racing game?" asked the scribe. "Been racing since 1912," said Smith, "In New England?" suggested the reporter. "No" was the answer "but I have trained horses in every Province in Canada, in Wisconsin, the state of Michigan, Iowa, Michigan, the two Dakotas and Oregon. Mr. Cecil Maye

COVEHEAD RIFLE CLUB

The Covehead Rifle Club held a shoot on Thursday afternoon and were pleased to have Mr. J. H. Judson and Mr. W. E. McCallum with them. As all the members were not present, they did not shoot on the Salver.

They will hold a shoot on Saturday, 20th, and hope all members will find it convenient to be there.

Following are the scores:

W. E. McCallum	94

ANCHORS VS. HAWKS

In answer to Fair-minded Fan's letter in Tuesday morning's Guardian I would like to ask him if he saw the game last-Sunday or if he is writing some of the things people tell him or perhaps he has only one eye and only saw half of the game. "Pepper" Martin's put-out by Terry Prowse in the fourth was close I'll admit. I saw the play from back of first base and I believe Terry nulled him before he hit the sack, but if he didn't then the play was that clear that anyone could have called it wrong. But if "Mr. Fair Minded Fan" had stood back of the Hawks hand picked umpire-in-chief he would have seen something that would have made him sit up and take notice. Three different City League players told me that Archie McFarlane threw over twenty strikes that were called balls. I know that the Hawks are not making this protest for they are a fine bunch of real sports, but if their captain will protest to Mr. Neil McKenzie, Secretary Industrial League, I am willing to play the Hawks on any diamond with any umpire in the city or any place with anybody on the Island. As far as City League players go, we have one "Wee" Evers. They have one, Doyle, their second baseman. As for Tucker and Bill Ryan, Charlottetown was only a flag station when they were in the City League.

I am, S.P., etc.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

BY "TEC"
THE COMING RACE MEET

Judging by the tone of an interview appearing elsewhere in these columns, it looks as if P. E. Island will see the greatest racing in its history next week when a large number of the speediest trotters and pacers ever to be seen here will perform.

Never before in the annals of Exhibition racing has there been such a galaxy of stars of the turf quartered at the track. The entries have been published, plenty has been said about them, but to appreciate these "bearcats" to the fullest, one must see 'em perform—and it won't be long now.

SYSTEM, BOY, SYSTEM!

The writer in conversation with a horse-lover from Boston was asked: "How in the name of jumping hyenas do they manage to keep the track in such perfect condition? I've been over a few ovals in my life-time, but your track here is certainly a beauty—how, I ask you, do they manage to do it?"

The writer, more or less ignorant on the art of track construction, just replied, system, boy, system!

BOXING NEXT WEEK

Claude MacKinnon, aspirant to the middleweight championship of Eastern Canada, and Johnny Nemis, present title holder, are due to clash in a ten round decision championship bout at the Forum next Thursday night.

BASEBALL

HI-Y, 10-S, SIDE 1

Yesterday afternoon at the C. A. A. grounds the Hi-Y. Club ball team decisively trounced the S-Side Cubs by the score of 10-1. In the first inning the Hi-Y pushed two runs across the plate, Rattenbury led off with a hit, stole second, and crossed the plate on Goss's home run into deep right field. In the "Cubs" half of the first "Squeek" Carver walked, stole second, R. Clow hit one through short, and Carver scored the Cubs only run of the game.

In the remaining eight innings the Cubs never got a man past second, due to the snappy fielding of Stewart, Currie, Morris and Partridge, and the pegging of "Sugs" McLean the Hi-Y back-stop. The Cubs infield played loose ball, no less than six errors were chalked up against them.

Some Highlights of the Game.

The four base clout of "Shag" Stewart in the sixth-inning, to deep right field. The nice catch of "Squeek" Carver's in deep centre. Clough the "Cubs" short stop made a spectacular catch of Rattenbury's liner in the seventh inning. The "Cubs" used three pitchers namely "Skinny" Clow, Johnny Hayes and Gleaney DesRoches in a futile attempt to stop the heavy guns of the Hi-Y. By their win over the Cubs the Hi-Y stretched their string of consecutive victories to eight with only two defeats. Tom MacInnes the Cubs manager handled the game to the satisfaction of all with "Dunny" Doyle on the bases.

MAMMOTH DANCE at FORUM

WEDNESDAY NIGHT AUG. 24th.
Dancing 9:30 to 2 a. m.

Everyone from Souris to Tignish is coming

SYD. ELLIOT'S ORCHESTRA
Admission 50c.

The bout should be a good one. MacKinnon is a clever boxer and is reputed to pack the hardest punch of any man his weight in Eastern Canada.

Nemis, by the way is no stranger here. He gave Joe Irvine of St. John an artistic lacing in the Strand about two years ago over the ten round route, and has since met some of the best middle-weights in Canada. Johnny is cool and calculating. His business is fighting and he is crammed full of business. There are two other bouts on the program.

Tommy Claybourn, city, and Fighter Jang of Moncton will work in the semi-final, while Gus Longaphie and Pat Hughes have been matched for the opening bout.

"BILLY THE BOSS"

Dr. J. S. Jenkins and Mr. Ivan Reddin while in Sydney for the ar parent had the pleasure of meeting Mr. W. "Boss" Wilson. "Boss" is well known to the Island sporting fraternity, and was one time the owner of Major Aubrey, which was later sold to Mr. Geo. Hamlin, Charlottetown, the present owner. Mr. Wilson as well as being an enthusiastic horseman is the best known boxing announcer in the east and he officiated in this capacity at a boxing tournament held at the Arena Rink, Charlottetown, two years ago. The boxing fans are looking forward to seeing "Boss" in the same capacity in Charlottetown next week. "Boss" always executes his duties in a fair way, pleasing to the fighters and highly amusing to the fans.

Rennie Forced To The Limit To Defeat Dickson

Finals Of N. B. Tennis Championships Will Be Staged Today. Alan Stewart In Finals In Mens Doubles

(Canadian Press)
NEWCASTLE, N. B., Aug. 19.—The Province of New Brunswick will be represented in only one event in the finals of the provincial tennis championships, which weather permitting, will be run off on the courts of the Newcastle Tennis Club, tomorrow. Miss Louise Mann and Jean Jardine, of Newcastle, present title holders in women's doubles, endeavor to retain their crown.

The matches in semi-finals of all classes, which were played today, provided a large gallery with the choicest brand of tennis seen in the tournament to date.

LeRoy Rennie, of Toronto, 1931 singles champion, entered final round in this event when he out-generaled A. S. Dickson, number one Prince Edward Island player, to win a thrilling match in four sets, 7-5, 6-8, 6-3, 6-4. Rennie, erstwhile Canadian Davis Cup star, was hitting on all fours this afternoon and needed all the cunning possible to wrest victory from Dickson.

George LeClerc, of Ottawa, runner-up in the 1931 New England championships, was just a little steeper than Eric Woodworth, of Halifax, in the other semi-final singles, and came through in straight sets, 6-1, 6-3, 6-2. LeClerc's base line game was almost perfect and he hit the ball with tremendous pace and uncanny accuracy, playing Woodworth's backhand with telling effects.

Rennie and LeClerc will now renew the rivalry which commenced at the Arctostook Valley Country Club in 1931, when they fought five sets for the title, and their match promises an abundance of thrills. Mrs. H. L. Bear, of Ottawa, entered the finals of the women's singles by virtue of a two-set win over Miss Stohart, of Newcastle 1931 champion, 6-2, 8-6. Mrs. Bear will meet her club mate, Miss Phyllis Payne, in the finals, the latter having triumphed over Miss Jardine yesterday. Miss Louise Mann, Newcastle, and Miss Jean Jardine will meet Mrs. Bear and Miss Hylkurt, in the women's doubles. The Newcastle pair gained a straight win this afternoon over Gertrude Keating, of Moncton, and Miss K. Houston in a splendid exhibition of tennis.

E. C. Condon and George LeClerc, the Ottawa pair who won the men's doubles title in this Province last year, will try to retain their crown, having gone through the semi-finals today by defeating Ray Carver, of Fort Fairfield, and Frank Black, of Moncton, 6-4, 6-4, 6-3.

In the other men's bracket, LeRoy Rennie and Alan Stewart, the latter of Charlottetown, eliminated R. Rockwell and C. R. Merriam, of Padenaw, also in straight sets, 7-5, 6-3, 6-1.

Down The Back Stretch

Johnny Miles has claim to being the "most" rigged horse at the Charlottetown Driving Park track. Here is a list of his racing equipment. Cotton and bandages on each leg, quarter boots, scalpers, knee boots, hoppers, crab check, tongue tie, lip strap, harness, shagrow roll and last but not least a gaiting strap on the right side and a gaiting strap on the left side. He is now being tried with three and one-half inch toes all around, three and three-quarter ounce shoes in front, three and one-half ounce special cross firing of special design behind. The shoes that he wears behind have to be the best of our knowledge and belief, never been used on any pacer until they became part of the equipment of Colonel Aubrey, trial 2:10 1/4. Johnny will be a starter in the 2:25 Pace at Charlottetown with fourteen others on Wednesday the 24th of August, at his new gallop—the pace. He won the second heat at Northam as a trotter on July 18th and ten days later was turned over to the pace.

Referring to Colonel Aubrey, the writer well remembers when Jim O'Brien sent him down to Charlottetown to be got ready for the Exhibition races. It was just after
