A CORRESPONDENT writes with reference to a letter appearing in The Guardian on the 8th re the entrance examination and says:—In giving the list of pupils passing from the different schools, and the percentage made at Montague School is given as having an average of 38%, while I make it out as having an average of 60%; then it would rank fourth with Summerside School in place of seventh.

A TELEGRAM received by Robert Boyer, Bunbury, announcing the death of his sister, Miss Keziah at New Glasgow, N. S., on Tuesday 8th inst, came as a severe shock to him and her many relatives and friends. Miss Boyer left for New Glasgow a few weeks ago on a visit to her brother-in-law, James Match, whose wife had just recently died. She apparently had been in her usual good health and her sudden death, of which no particulars were received, is generally regretted. Deceased was a daughter of the late John Boyer, Bunbury, and was 60 years of age. Three brothers, Robert Boyer, Bunbury; Henry, Ledville, Colo.; and John, Zion City, Chic., besides a large circle of relatives and acquaintances are left to mourn. Her remains arrived here last night and were forwarded to Bunbury.

THE fruit report from Ottawa for the month of July is as follows:—The apple crop and small fruits will be the only crop for export. The apple is lighter than for many years, and it is doubtful whether there will be a very large surplus for export. Only a very few correspondents report the crop better than last year. Plums promise a half crop.

THE funeral took place yesterday of the late Margaret Muriel Taylor, daughter of Police Officer Taylor and was attended by a large number of people from the city and suburban districts Rev. T. F. Fullerton officiated very impressively at the house and grave and paid a high tribute to the deceased's glowing talents and the promise of such a bright future, cut off at the beginning of her usefulness. The many floral tributes and large number of people in attendance were clear evidence of respect and high esteem in which the deceased was held by her many friends and acquaintances. The remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of people. The following were the pallbearers: Frederick Waller, Edward Saunders, Benj. Stimpson, Duncan Cameron, D. J. Bonnell, Walter Walker.

THE rededication of the Geddie Memorial Church, at French River, took place on Sunday last. The object was to rededicate the church as a monument to Rev. Dr. Geddie, the first missionary to the New Hebrides from the Presbyterian church in Canada. This is the church where he first preached after his ordination. The services consisted of discourses by Rev. Mr. Nichols, of the Episcopal church, French River, Rev. John Murray of Clifton, Rev. John W. Melvor of Allegany, Pa. and Rev. Mr. Stirling of Kensington, who presided. A solo by Miss Murray was one of the features of the program. The speakers dealt with the historical phases of the occasion, the missionary spirit, Dr. Geddie's life and character, the significance of such dedication ceremonies which called for renewed vigour and induced fresh inspiration in the good work. The attendance was very large, the church being crowded while many were unable to secure admittance.

COMMODORE M. F. Plant's yacht Ventila arrived at Halifax on Tuesday night from Newport. Much fog was encountered on the trip. Mr. Plant expects to sail Thursday night for Charlottetown, P. E. I., proceeding thence up the St. Lawrence. With him on board are two guests, Messrs. Waller and Dilkes of New York.

E. R. PERRY and Jas. McKenna of the C. P. R. St. John, came to the city last night and will remain till Saturday. They report that a very large number will leave on the Harvest Excursion next week. The great advantage this year is that the Island harvesters will be on the ground first instead of last as on previous years.

Two sad cases of youthful depravity were seen in Police Court yesterday morning when two young girls, one about seventeen and the other fifteen, named May, or as she is sometimes called Lucy Murphy and May Weatherie were arraigned on a charge of vagrancy and each sentenced to two months imprisonment. The Murphy girl was also charged later before Stipendiary Brehaut with burglary of the house of Wm. Francis Sanderson, North River, on Tuesday and stealing therefrom a gold watch and chain, six silver teaspoons, a skirt, a shirt waist, and an umbrella. On this she was sent up to stand trial in the Supreme Court next January. A watch, purse and clothing were also mislaid from the home of William Gillespie, Loyalist Road, where she had stayed the previous night and part were later found in her possession. On this charge however she was not arraigned. The unfortunate girl has already served some time in Summerside jail and appears to be almost altogether destitute of a knowledge of right and wrong.
