Preston Negro Killed By Son

HALIFAX, Feb. 14.—John Crawley, 57 year old Preston negro, was killed this afternoon, felled by an axe-blow attributed by the coroner's jury to his son. The son, classed as harmless insane, was captured by neighbors after a chase through the woods and tonight lay in the county jail at Halifax.

Sam was busy chopping wood in the yard of their home when the father came out of the house, according to evidence, and remonstrated with him about the manner in which he was doing the work. In a matter of seconds the elderly man was stumbling about the yard with blood pouring from a severed jugular. He dropped dead in his own doorway.

Sam took to the woods at once and after a two mile run came out in the open near George Turner's shop. He entered Stephen Kaddy's house there and was captured by Peter Clayton and Joe Eugene. The jury, empanelled at once, decided the fatal blow as intentional.

LANSING, Mich., Feb. 14.—(A.P.)—Governor William A. Cockerill issued a statement tonight saying he had "misunderstood the facts" relative to the connection of Henry Ford or the Ford Motor Company with Detroit financial institutions.

Open Warfare In South America

BOGOTA, Colombia, Feb. 14.—(A.P.)—The aerial bombardment of a Colombian gunboat in the Putumayo River and the recapture by Colombians of the town of Harapaca today fanned into open warfare hostilities that had smouldered for months between Peru and Colombia over the border city of Leticia.

Alfredo Vasquez Cobo, commander of the Colombian forces in the field, reported to his superiors in the capital here that Peruvian aeroplanes bombed the warship Cordoba and were driven off by a Colombian air squadron.

It was also learned authoritatively that after the engagement at Tarapaca, a village on the Putumayo just over the Brazilian boundary and about 80 miles north of Leticia, Colombian troops had landed in territory Colombia claims under treaty rights near the town. No further clashes occurred at other garrisons in the vicinity it was learned.

Manchurian programme today when the Assembly's Executive body approved unanimously and without reservation a draft report which declared against recognition of the State of Manchukuo.

The committee of 19 set next Tuesday for formal presentation of the report to the Assembly. At the same time the failure of attempts at conciliation between Japan and China will be announced. Discussion of the report, which authorities generally believe will be adopted without opposition except Japan's, will begin the following Friday.

Japanese spokesman are asserting that Japan will withdraw from the League when the report is adopted. Japanese official quarters revealed that Yosuke Matsuoka, head of the Tokyo delegation had telegraphed his Government for final instructions regarding withdrawal from the League. and it was believed the reply would be to withdraw.

In reply to a communication from M. Matsuoka, the committee of 19 said they regretted taking the position that Japan's latest proposals were unacceptable as a basis for conciliation.
