NERVOUSNESS THE CAUSE OF MANY DIGESTIVE SYMPTOMS

It is only natural that a patient who is consulting his physician for all manner of small ailments causes the physician to feel that the patient is just nervous and imagines many of the symptoms of which he complains. And even when there is some slight organic condition present, such as a slight heart murmur, the physician knows from exercise or other tests that this condition is really causing no symptoms. The symptoms are entirely due to nervousness.

Similarly with symptoms occurring in the stomach and intestines, when there is some slight organic condition present, such as a slight heart murmur, the physician knows from exercise or other tests that this condition is really causing no symptoms. The symptoms are entirely due to nervousness.

...STOP TRAFFIC—During the recent soft weather the street committee of the Georgetown Council found it necessary to stop all traffic over the new work on Kent Street. G.

...LOADING POTATOES—The S.S. Venus first potato boat to arrive in Georgetown this Fall, docked early Wednesday morning completed loading the few thousand bags necessary to complete her cargo and sailed late the same evening. G.

...ELECT OFFICERS—At the recent meeting of the Georgetown Longshoremen, held in the Council Chamber, Mr. Joseph Johnson was elected president and Mr. Walden Lavers, secretary, while after a keenly contested ballot Messrs. William Hobbs and Patrick Murphy were re-elected as committee in charge of placing the... G.

...MET WITH PAINFUL ACCIDENT—Mrs. R. C. Parent of Fredericton, N. B., formerly of Charlottetown, met with a painful accident while playing backgammon on Tuesday. In some way she slipped and badly strained a ligament in her ankle. She is confined to her home in Queen street.

...TO BUILD RINK—Tenders are now being called for the Georgetown Skating Rink. It is understood the Council plan on building two new rinks in the building. This would be a move in the right direction and would warrant the offering of much higher tenders. Rumour has it that many of the boys are placing tenders, having an eye to the proposed County League. If this materializes the rink should prove worthwhile to the rink parties. G.

...CHURCH BAZAAR—The St. James Roman Catholic Church, Georgetown, held their annual bazaar on Wednesday afternoon and evening, and as in other years proved a big success. Drawings in the lottery gave major prizes to Mr. Benjamin Perry, Miss Phyllis Heslian and Mrs. Annie Robertson. Throughout the evenings hundreds of excellent suppers were served and a high dance was enjoyed by the large crowd until midnight. Music was furnished by Miss Mary Boudreault and Messrs. George Boudreault and Fred McCullough. G.

...DEMOLISHING BUILDING—Work of tearing down the Gordon brick building on Kent Street, Georgetown, is scheduled to get underway this week. Messrs. Ernest Roach and Henry Martell are undertaking the task. The removing of this old landmark will recall happier days of another and more prosperous era enjoyed by Georgetown. Days of square-rigged ships, when this beautiful eastern harbor gave shelter to the sails of many countries. Days when the names of Gordon and McDonald were well-known in many of the world's greatest markets. But alas, this era has gone and one by one the trade monuments have been wiped out, one of the greatest of which is the building shortly to be demolished. Georgetown, basking peacefully in the rare beauty with which nature has endowed her perhaps sorrowfully recalls the life of yesteryear. G.
