CHARLOTTETOWN and QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province.

Mrs. Neil Stewart, city, is visiting in Sackville.

The members of the Big Broadway Show Company are registered at the Revere Hotel.

Miss Florence Newman, entertained last week in honor of her guest, Miss Weeks, Charlottetown.

Miss Delle Poole, of Montague, arrived in the city yesterday returning from Ladies' College, Sackville.

Lyle Robertson, assistant cook on the S. S. Northumberland, is ill in the Charlottetown Hospital with blood poisoning.

Any person knowing the whereabouts of Angus A. McLeod, who was in New York in February last, will confer a favor by writing to this office at once.

Mrs. Sharp and her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Stockton, of Sussex, N. B., mother and sister of Supt. Sharp, city, have returned from a visit to Dr. Warren Sharp in Binghampton, N. Y.

The Amateur Skating Association of Canada at a meeting in Montreal allotted the Maritime Province Amateur Skating championships to St. John, N. B. At the meeting information was received of the defeat of a proposal by the president of the International Skating Union of America that that organization should seek to control amateur hockey. These championships were held in Charlottetown last year under the auspices of the Abegweit A.A.A.

The Cherry Valley Debating Society was re-organized a short time ago, with the following officers: President, John McIsaac; Vice-President, Daniel McIsaac; Secretary-Treasurer, Wm. W. Mutch; Committee, J. McIsaac, Wm. Irving, D. Praught. The meetings are held every Wednesday evening. The subject for last Wednesday was Woman Suffrage, which, after a lengthy and able discussion by a large number of the members, was given in favor of Woman Suffrage. The subject for next Wednesday is, Resolved, that Reciprocity would be a benefit to P. E. Island.

At the Police Court in this city yesterday John McCormack was fined $100 and costs or three months in jail for a breech of the prohibition act. The case against Peter Gillis was further adjourned for one week. David Malone, of unsound mind, was arrested yesterday morning and on his appearance at the court was remanded to jail for a week. The case of disorderly conduct against Alex. McDonald, a "tinker," resulted in a sentence of a fine which was suspended. The others mixed up in this case were Thomas Coyle, Stephen McKinnon and Harold Donovan. The latter was dismissed while the other two received fines of $5 or fifteen days.

The Christmas season is here again—the joyous Christmas time with its bestowal of gifts and its happy reunions. The throng is everywhere. Shoulder jostles shoulder in the press. The crowds swarm the streets and stores, and the happiness of the Christmas tide is depicted in the faces of the busy shoppers hearkening back to that Christmastide so long ago when the angels sang the first Christmas carol to the shepherds who tended their flocks by night. It is good to see it all, the holly, the evergreen, the stores aglow with light and color and the hurrying crowds bearing Christmas gifts, those mute messages of love and friendship—those quickeners of kindly feeling. How good it is to hear once more the joyous peal of the Christmas bells, making one feel in the very atmosphere the gladsome spirit of the Christmastide. The chiming sleigh-bells, and the hum of humanity—how wondrously does the human mind, wrought upon by the spirit of the Christ-child who was born in a manger, turn them all into a thing of beauty and melody—how it attunes itself to the heavenly music from the unseen choir, to the glorious, inspiring song that the angels sang on hill sides of Judea, "Peace on earth, good will to men."

::Are we right? You are thinking about your Xmas shopping—wondering what gifts to select, and perhaps wishing for a little assistance. We want to help you, and cordially invite you to our store, where we are certain we can be of real service to you. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.

Rev. R. P. Murray, Mt. Stewart, was in the city yesterday.

The change of the timetable of the P. E. I. R. goes into effect on Dec. 27th and will appear in tomorrow's Guardian.

J. J. McLeod has removed from Riverdale to Bonshaw, where he purposes residing and where he will receive his mail matter.

Any person who is open for a position as adv. writer with a large retail establishment in this Province should apply at The Guardian Office at once.

Yesterday the city market was a fairly heavy one. Geese were plentiful at fourteen and a haif cents a lb. Turkeys went at twenty-two cents a lb. Eggs advanced to thirty to forty cents a dozen and beef by small sold at eight to fifteen cents a lb.

It is hoped that climatic conditions may be favorable enough to ensure a full attendance at the services on Sunday, Christmas Day, at Vernon River Methodist Church. The music by the choir will be of the usual high order of excellence, seasonable and appropriate. The evening service especially will be largely sustained by them.

Every office and home needs a phone—it is almost as necessary as the furniture. The cost is comparatively insignificant when compared to the great benefits the phone brings. It will pay for itself in errand boy charges alone and is a continual source of protection at all times. With a phone in the home you need no watch-dog. The ad. of The Telephone Co. in this issue will prove interesting reading to almost everyone.

An Arichat, C. B. dispatch of the 17th states that the steamer John Irwin, Capt. Swanson, from Port Hood, for Halifax with a load of coal is here in a damaged condition. Yesterday morning during a severe snow storm about five o'clock, she struck near Queensport and after backing off, the captain decided to make for Arichat. The steamer is leaking badly and is ashore at C. D. Terrio's wharf. A survey has been held, and the cargo ordered discharged. The John Irwin is well known here as this is one of her regular ports of call.
