O'Leary and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. William Pound of Fredericton have returned to their homes after visiting their daughter, Mrs. Carlyle Ramsay at Rosebank.

A very successful and enjoyable picnic was held by St. Luke's Anglican congregation of O'Leary Corner on Tuesday evening, July 5th. The ladies served delicious lunches and appetizing hot dogs were also served. Music was provided by Howie Getson and his Old Timers and by some of the other young men of the church. There were swings and amusements for young and old and all had a jolly time.

—A well known resident of Bloomfield passed away on Sunday, July 3rd. at the Western Hospital in Alberton in the person fo Mrs. Elmer Knollin. The funeral service was held on Monday afternoon July 4th. at Bloomfield United Church and was conducted by her Minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson who paid a sincere tribute to her as a loving mother, a devoted wife and a kind friend and also a fine Christian lady. She was a member of the Bloomfield Choir and took an active interest in the work of the Church. To her husband and family we extend our heartfelt sympathy. The remains were taken on Tuesday morning July 5th. by Mr. Claude Jelly, undertaker, to Moncton, N. B., from whence they will be sent to the family resting place at Bellisle Creek, N. B.

Rev. J. A. and Mrs. Vincent of Wellington United Church and daughter, Shirley, were given a presentation by the Ladies' Aid of the Church on Friday evening, June 24th. A pleasant evening of music was enjoyed, and delicious refreshments were served. A very appropriate address was read by Mrs. McCarvill and the presentation made by Mrs. Barlow. The guests of honor thanked their friends in a few well chosen words. Rev. Mr. Vincent has been the Minister at Wellington for the past three years and has done splendid work. He will be retiring from the Ministry for one year due to ill health and will be making his home at West Devon, 7 miles from O'Leary, where he is building a home. They are receiving a welcome from the residents of West Devon and vicinity.

SENTENCED TO LIFE TERM

LANSING, Mich., July 12—(AP)—Dudley Beatty who brutally murdered four-year-old Walter (Pee Wee) Eaton last month, was sentenced today to life imprisonment. Beatty pleaded guilty.

A cordial welcome is being extended Mrs. Mary Barbour since her arrival home from Worcester, Mass., on Saturday after an extended stay of six months. She was met at Cape Tormentine by motor party comprised of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Barbour, Miss Mary Barbour, Frances, Tom and Hilton, Jr., Barbour.

Friends will be pleased to hear that the condition of Mr. William Irving who is a patient in the Western Hospital, is much improved. Mr. Irving met with a most unfortunate accident last week, when a ladder which had been propped against the barn, was blown down, while he was standing near. Warned of the fast approaching danger by one of the carpenters, Mr. Irving moved quickly enough to avoid a much more serious injury, but sustained a fractured shoulder.

An unusually large number of young people enjoyed the informal dance held in the Institute Hall on Thursday evening, June 30th. Excellent music was furnished by the Western Five Orchestra under the capable direction of Mr. J. F. White. The auditorium was decorated with native ferns and cut flowers. The proceeds of nearly one hundred dollars was realized in aid of the Western Hospital. Much credit is due Mr. White and son for the many successful entertainments sponsored by them in aid of this institution since its opening a few years ago.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Herbert Clark were held from her home Tuesday afternoon at half-past two when a large number of friends assembled to pay their last tribute to one who was held in high esteem. The service was conducted by Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick of the United Church, assisted by Rev. J. R. MacMahon of St. Peter's Anglican Church. Hymns sung were: "Safe In the Arms of Jesus," "Forever With the Lord", and "Rock of Ages". Pallbearers were Messrs. William Leavitt, J.W. Waugh, Jesse Matthews, Arthur Bernard, W. C. Lawson, and John H. Wells. Flower bearers were Messrs. H. D. Corbett, Herbert Matthews, Russell Bowman and Hilton Barbour. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to her husband and to her only surviving sister, Mrs. John Wilson of Charlottetown.

On Tuesday, June 28th, 1949, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilkie celebrated their golden wedding. The only wedding guest of fifty years ago to be present at the reception was Mrs. Wilkie's sister, Mrs. Daniel Getson of Kildare Capes. Also present at their home Tueday evening were nine of their children, fourteen grandchildren, and their one great-grandchild. It was a happy family gathering. During the evening an address was read to Mr. and Mrs. Wilkie by their oldest daughter, Mrs. Stanton Clark, and the presentation of a radio and a purse was made by the youngest son, Mr. Alvin Wilkie. At the close of the evening refreshments, including a wedding cake, were served. The Wilkie family is comprised of Arthur, of Alberton; Perez, of Quincy, Mass.; Mrs. Stanton Clark (Thelma) of Elmsdale; Lloyd, of Alberton; Mrs. Arthur Metherall (Lulu) who died some years ago; Mrs. George Mason (Pearl) of Pittsfield, N.H.; Elbert, of Lethbridge, Alta.; Sterling, at home; Mrs. Hartley Mollins (Bertha) of Saint John, N.B.; Mrs. Fred Ashley (Laura) of Fortune Cove; Mrs. Charles Gordon (Marcia) of Cascumpec; and Alvin of Alberton.
