Has sad recollections of "what might have been" in the past had he only been able to rely on a really reliable remedy to check the fatal bowel disorders so prevalent among the most promising youngsters in the pens.

DR. FRENCH'S ENTERIC GLOBULES

Now afford a positive means of preventing unnecessary losses. They are a combination of active intestinal antiseptics and astringents which effectually disinfect the entire intestinal canal so that microbes can no longer exist, and at the same time they allay the inflammatory processes that have been started.

EXPERT EYE SERVICE

We have recently had the privilege of visiting the offices of some of the most expert Opticians in Canada. We have studied their methods and seen them practically demonstrated, and it is a matter of gratification to be able to say that the service we are giving our patrons, we believe is quite equal to that obtainable in the larger centres.

We solicit your patronage.

ENJOYABLE TIME.—A very happy time was spent by a number of the young people of Earncliffe who were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McPhee of that place, a few evenings ago. The evening was pleasantly spent, with music, games and dancing; the violin music being furnished by Mr. Fred Irving, while Mrs. McPhee presided at the organ. The vocal music, which included some grand old Scotch songs, was rendered by Mrs. Harold McPhee, and Mrs. A. D. McPhee and Messrs. Andrew McInnes and Clarence McPhee.—Q.

ACTING POSTMASTER.—Mr. J. F. Whear Post Office Inspector, has been appointed acting Post Master of Charlottetown until a regular appointment is made.

TRUMPETER RETURNS.—Trumpeter Perley Williams No. 5 Siege Battery Draft returned on Saturday from Halifax where he had been taking a course in bugling.

ASSISTANT AT ST. PETER'S.—Rev. Dr. T. H. Hunt, of King's College, Windsor, has been released from duty at that institution until the end of the Academic year, in order to assist Rev. Canon Simpson at St. Peter's, Charlottetown. Dr. Hunt was formerly assistant at St. Peter's and has many friends who will be pleased to meet him again.

FOR THE PATRIOTIC FUND.—Notwithstanding the very severe weather of Saturday morning the ladies appointed to deliver the Patriotic Fund envelopes bravely faced the elements and made a call from house to house delivering the envelopes at every citizen's home. These envelopes will be called for today and it is confidently hoped a splendid sum will be realized.

IMAGES IN CHURCHES.—In St. Peter's Cathedral last evening Rev. Canon Simpson took as his subject "Is it not a transgression of the Second Commandment to have images in Churches?" This was one of the questions asked during the recent mission. Canon Simpson dealt with the Old Testament teaching on the subject and next Sunday evening will continue the subject by the use of figures in the Christian dispensation.

BUILDING REMODELLED.—The building on Sydney Street formerly used by Goff & Co. as a shoe factory is being completely remodelled on the interior. All the machinery has been taken out, shelves have been installed and the ceiling beaver boarded. The Elevator has been shifted to the rear and a portion of the upstairs department fitted as an office. The contractors for the work are Messrs P. McWilliam and James Lawlar, while Mr. MacLeod is doing the plumbing. The remodelled building will be occupied by the Farmers Co-operative Co., Ltd.

Guardian Heart Songs have arrived and are now on sale at the Guardian Office. 4001-1-22ME21

CAPT. MAY IN CHARGE.—Capt. F. F. May of Charlottetown general recruiting officer for New Brunswick is now in Fredericton to complete the arrangements for a big recruiting campaign and he will have charge of the organization. The 115th Battalion Band, which returned to Canada to assist in recruiting work and is now attached to the 236th Battalion, will take part in this campaign and will make a tour of the populated centres. It has been suggested that recruiting sergeants be allotted to the various motion picture theatres and entertainments throughout the province and the call for men be kept continuous. Personal canvasses will also be made and recruiting work in general carried out with more energy.

He went over with the first contingent—Sackville Tribune.

BAPTIST SERVICES.—Rev. C. R. Freeman, pastor of the Charlottetown Baptist Church, has returned from the mainland and resumed the duties of his pastorate yesterday. He preached an excellent sermon last evening, his subject being "The Value of a Man." His text was from Hebrews 2:6—"What is Man that Thou art Mindful of Him?" Three persons received the rite of Baptism before the close of the service. On the Sunday previous Rev. Mr. Freeman preached in North Baptist Church in Halifax in the morning and in First Baptist at the evening service. While in that city he attended the Home Missions Board and was later in Moncton where he attended the Five Year Programme Committee of the American Baptist Conference. Both meetings were very successful.
