THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Office in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all. Miss Minnie Seaman, City, is visiting in Moncton. Miss Wynne Davies, Moncton, is visiting in this City. The tide will be high this afternoon at twelve one and tomorrow afternoon at twelve forty four. In response to an inquiry it is understood that there is not a permanent fruit inspector for this Province. Mrs. A. Churchill Gillmore and daughter, St. Georges, N. B., are the guests of Rev John and Mrs Hawley, Marshfield. Mrs John Campbell and child, Summerside, have returned home after visiting her parents Wm and Mrs Lowther, Cornwall.

John Harrington and bride, Morrell, are guests at the Cantwell House, City. Miss Flora Campbell, city was a passenger to Summerside yesterday afternoon. The schooner Polar Star is discharging Acadia Round Coal for C. Lyons & Co. Mrs George Offer and Mrs. M. W. Nelson, city, are visiting friends in Wood Islands. Miss Laura Young, Librarian in McGill University, is spending her vacation in this City. A. R. B. Duck, Pleasant Grove, was a passenger to the city yesterday. He returned home in the afternoon. Misses Charlotte Lowther and Hattie Drake of Cornwall are visiting their cousin Miss Minnie Weeks, Fredericton. Lewis Bagball, Ottawa, and two sisters left yesterday afternoon by the eastern train for the Cliff Hotel where they will spend some time. Miss L. McMahon, matron of Dorchester Penitentiary, left yesterday morning to resume her position, after spending her holidays at her home in the city. The Guardian has received from the Board of Trade, Edmonton, Alta., a booklet of views of that up-to-date western city, besides much valuable information as to the wealth of the western country. W. N. Flynn, Station Agent, Cardigan, Mrs Flynn and their little daughter, who have been visiting in the city some days, the guests of Mr Flynn's father, T. E. Flynn, of the Customs, returned to Cardigan by the eastern train Monday afternoon. Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I., and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscription," "Editorial," or "News" according to the contents. The daily average circulation of The Guardian for week ending August 14th, was 7413 copies a day. The circulation of The Guardian is greater than that of all the other Daily newspapers on Prince Edward Island combined. Attention is called to the statement in another column. John N. and Mrs Wheeler, Belmont, Mass., left on return yesterday morning to their home after spending a pleasant vacation with Mrs Wheeler's parents D. J. R. and Mrs MacMillan, Wood Islands. They were accompanied to the city by their sister Miss Louise MacMillan. The Sacrament of the Lords Supper will be dispensed at Brooklyn on Sabbath 22nd. Preparatory services on Thursday at eleven a.m. and Saturday at one p.m. Rev James McDougall will assist the pastor and preach on Saturday, and on Sabbath evening, Rev E. McDougall will preach at Peters Road on Friday at seven thirty p.m. Quite a session of the Police Court was held yesterday morning. The first case called was that of Bennett Mahar who had engaged G. W. McPhee to act for him. He was fined the customary five or thirty and took the thirty. William J. Donovan was next called and S. F. Doyle appeared on his behalf but the rude hand of the law dealt out another fine—a degree smaller than the first—four dollars or fifteen days. Cyrus Smith received a like sentence and both paid over to the Court the price of liberty. James Donovan was fined ten dollars or thirty days and will spend a short holiday the guest of the Civic Government. All the forementioned were in arrears and belligerent on the thirteenth and fourteenth instant. Ernest Davy under charge of obtaining money under false pretences from Henry Weeks, was remanded until this morning at ten. He was admitted to bail but got no securities. The annual picnic of the Church of England at Crapaud will be held at that place on Saturday, August 21st. A large attendance is requested. 8-1821.

Mrs. Wm. Craswell, St. Eleanor's, and daughter Miss Dixie, left yesterday for Regina. Prof. Vinnicombe left yesterday for the western part of the province on a business trip. F. J. Bute, Tignish, came to the city yesterday and returned home in the afternoon. F. D. Marks, Kensington, was a visitor to the city yesterday returning home in the afternoon. Any smart boy who wants to land office work and run errands should read the classified column. H. H. Cox, Morell, was among the visitors to the city yesterday. He returned home in the afternoon. Ernest McInnis, city, left yesterday afternoon for Morell where he will enjoy a couple of weeks vacation. Frank Andrew, New Glasgow, P. E. I., and Adam Andrew, San Francisco, came in from New Glasgow yesterday. Miss Eva McLeod and Miss Belle McMillan, City, returned yesterday morning after having spent a pleasant vacation in Orwell. Mrs Drake and niece Miss Burke of Quincy, Mass., are spending a few days at New Perth the guests of Daniel and Mrs Gordon. J. H. McQuaid, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Antigonish leaves this morning after a vacation at his old home in Souris. The special train in connection with the Scottish Gathering tomorrow—leaves Charlottetown at nine thirty a. m. Return fare forty five cents. Misses Stasia Power and Marion Norton, of Moore & McLeod's, city, left yesterday afternoon for Vernon River where they will spend a vacation with friends. It is with feelings of sorrow that the death is recorded in another column the death of an old and respected citizen of Winsloe Road in the person of James Nunn. Mr Nunn was one of the oldest residents in that locality and his demise removes from his acquaintances an almost entirely source of reminiscences of the early days. Friends extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family. Among the outward passengers from this City yesterday were Mrs Jas Murphy to Summerside; Miss Helen Rowe and Miss Matheson to Pictou; Mrs D. Bethune, Miss Ada Wadman, City and Mrs R. Bishop, Dundas to Moncton. Miss Sybil Storey, Moncton and Miss Hughes, City, to Stanley Bridge, Wendall Tidmarsh to Halifax, A. Lawson, Montreal, to Pictou, Miss Creamer, Souris, Miss Bolger, Charlottetown, and Miss McNeil, Summerside to join the sisterhood of the congregation de Notre Dame, Montreal. Got the Habit—Patronize New Wonderland.
