The first carried mail and one passenger, Emmanuel LeBlanc, returning to his home in Grandisane after being a patient in the Charlottetown hospital since last February 26. The second plane carried mail only. No more flights to the Islands would be made this season unless the conditions make it necessary. It was learned last night. AT ROTARY—The Rotarians held a business meeting yesterday under the joint chairmanship of R. L. Cotton and Roy Cudmore. The meeting was taken up with a discussion of a resolution endorsing the recommendation of the directors that $100 be granted from the proceeds of the Rotary Auction sale to assist in providing occupation for patients at the Sanatorium. This resolution, moved by Arthur Belcher and seconded by R. H. Rogers, was passed, the consensus of opinion being that whilst the major portion of the proceeds of such auction be paid to the Red Cross for crippled children's work, that other charities should not be overlooked. The discussion was taken part in by R. H. Rogers, Roy MacLure, C. N. Bisset, Walter S. Grant, Walter R. Shaw, E. E. Mitch, Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, G. F. Hutchison, Dr. Heath MacIntyre and others. J. H. Monaghan, of Halifax, was a guest at yesterday's meeting.

LILLE, France, March 15—(CP) —Four small boys playing near a fortshell found a 12-pound British gas shell. Nine-year-old Victor Vertu picked it up and four minutes threw it against a rock.

Rumanian Queen Said Seriously Ill
BUCHAREST, March 15—(AP) —Queen Mother Marie of Rumania was officially reported tonight suffering from complications following an attack of grippe.
An announcement by physicians to "the Queen" of slight intestinal and stomachic bleeding developed after the grippe attack.
The statement said the Queen Mother was being kept on a strict diet and obliged to "remain perfectly quiet." It made no mention of foreign reports she had been poisoned, which evoked prompt and emphatic official denials from official sources.
The three doctors signing the bulletin reported her temperature was about normal and her heart action satisfactory.
A reliable report prior to the official bulletin said the patient was "seriously but not dangerously ill."
The Queen Dowager, aged 61, became ill Thursday night while attending the opera at Bucharest.

Unofficial advices said nine Government planes were brought down in addition to 10 others reported captured.
Southeast of Madrid, where the insurgents were trying to close Madrid's corridor to the sea, war hostages were said to have told officials the capital was so short of food many men had ventured to front line villages in search of supplies for their families.

Wedding Celebration Turns To Mourning
KINGSTON, Jamaica, March 15—(CP Cable)—A pretty young Chinese girl named Wong marched today in the cortege of her fiancé instead of taking part in the marriage she had travelled 9,000 miles to complete.
She arrived here from China Friday to marry 22-year-old Chuck Lue, who was born in Jamaica. Elaborate celebrations had been made for their wedding in Kingston parish church today and a great reception was held Saturday night.
Suddenly, in the midst of the reception, Lue left his shop in which it was being held. From an outbuilding outside, the gay wedding guests heard two quick revolver shots.
His funeral was held the same hour the wedding was to have taken place and the wedding guests who had attended the party were his chief mourners.

B.I.S. READY FOR 112TH CELEBRATION
Initial Performance Of Fine Play, "Bridget O'Rourke" Tonight—Annual Church Parade Tomorrow.

Everything was ready yesterday for the opening of the 112th celebration of the Benevolent Irish Society tonight, when the initial performance of "Bridget O'Rourke," sparkling three act mystery comedy will be presented in the Prince Edward Theatre. It's worth seeing, this magnificent production under the direction of Dr. T. E. E. Robins. It has taken time and energy to prepare to stage this play but the amateur performers have been coached until they are letter perfect and an evening's entertainment without a dull moment is assured.
And the specialties are not the least of the fine program. Amateur talent at its best will be seen and heard. The orchestra, under the capable direction of Miss Thelma Burns, needs no introduction. Among the fine selections which will be heard in the overture which was heard in the Capitol Theatre, Dublin, on St. Patrick's Day in 1926.
Tomorrow morning the annual parade of the Benevolent Irish Society will be held. The parade will move off from the Society Hall, Bank of Commerce Building, at 9.45. Chief Marshal A. J. Dowling will be in charge. League of the Cross and Canadian Legion Bands will take part.
The route of march will be Queen, Water and Great George Streets to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Society members will attend church services and where an appropriate sermon will be preached by Rev. Basil Doyle, Paulist Father.
At approximately 11 o'clock the parade will reform and the return route of march will be via Great George, Water, Weymouth and Grafton Streets to the Hall. At the Cenotaph the salute will be given by the Chief Marshal in memory of the fallen heroes.
After the parade reaches the Hall a short meeting and entertainment will take place in honor of the Patron Saint of the Society. Prominent citizens have been invited to take part.

STEADY MEAT EXPORT PLAN SAID NEED
Urge Scheme To Guarantee Canadian Shipments To United Kingdom Market.

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
OTTAWA, March 15—Means of providing a steady movement of Canadian cattle, hams and bacon to the British market were discussed in the House of Commons today but nothing very concrete was suggested.
The discussion arose as the new Canada-United Kingdom trade agreement was reviewed clause by clause in committee of ways and means. Article five requires Canada to co-operate in the British Government's effort to stabilize the marketing of meats.
Conservative Leader Bennett said Canada could not go on using the British market as a convenience and the United States market as a regular outlet and hope to retain the British market. The result of such a policy was that when prices were favorable in the United States no meat was shipped to Great Britain and the British trade was left in a difficult position. It then had to turn to Denmark, Poland or Russia for increased quantities and it was not always easy to obtain them on short notice.
"Let's our difficulty," said Finance Minister Dunning.
Canada should guarantee to ship 10,000 cattle to the United Kingdom each month, said Harry Leader (Lib. Portage La Prairie). The government should set out to secure these cattle by a subsidy to the farmers or some other method to overcome the natural tendency to ship to the United States when prices were higher there.
John Blackmore, Social Credit Leader, thought the subsidy suggestion a good one and wondered what other proposal Mr. Bennett might have in mind.
The habit of using the British cattle market as a convenience could be overcome without a subsidy. Hon. H. H. Stevens (Recon. Kootenay East) believed. There were only a few shippers and by co-operation between the shippers, the shipping companies and the Government the movement could be stabilized.
An oligarchy in the Department of Agriculture had kept Canada back in hog production, charged Dr. J. K. Blair (Lib. Wellington North). He declared officials in that department were "dead as Caesar's ghost" and about one third of them could be dismissed.
But for these officials he said the former minister of agriculture, Hon. W. R. Motherwell and Hon. Robert Weir, would have imported Danish pigs which were superior to the Yorkshire pigs raised chiefly in Canada.
Dr. Blair said he had told an official the members of the agriculture committee should get reports from the department's livestock market service. He had been told the reports were sent and on looking to the list he had found the names of members of Parliament either dead or defeated. The list had not been revised for six years.
When the committee took up article six and schedule four fixing a maximum duty on a long list of United Kingdom products, John R. MacNicol (Cons. Toronto-Davenport) declared Canadian industry was hampered by "incessant tariff tinkering." He was speaking on behalf of the industrial worker, who was the one most affected. Ontario was proposing minimum wages but he questioned how this could be done when there was no permanency in tariff schedules.
With the Prime Minister representing a Saskatchewan seat and the Finance Minister and Minister of Agriculture both former premiers of Saskatchewan, the government was spending considerable time looking after the interests of that province, Mr. MacNicol said. He suggested the government occupy itself in the interests of the industrial workers of Ontario, "or they can't continue putting up the money for Saskatchewan."

Manufacturers of farm implements and machinery were "not the robbers or bandits we so often hear them described as," Mr. MacNicol said. Their work was the best in the world and their interests should not be prejudiced by tariff action.

Report Tabled On Saskatchewan Relief Problem

OTTAWA, March 15—It is an open question whether the present Saskatchewan relief system is in the best interests of the country, said a report on the province's finances made public here today by Finance Minister Dunning.
The report was prepared by the Bank of Canada at the request of the Dominion and Saskatchewan Governments. The bank completed a report on Manitoba a month ago and is to prepare one on Alberta. After observing that a Royal Commission was to be appointed by the Dominion Government to review Canadian finances, the report added: "Pending the report of this commission, it would appear to us that in the case of the Province of Saskatchewan the Dominion Government would be justified in extending temporary financial aid."

By raising the taxes to the same level as Manitoba, the report said, the present deficit on ordinary account could be met and certain essential services could be provided for.
"For reasons largely beyond its control," the authors of the report declared, "Saskatchewan finds itself in a particularly unfortunate position. Other sections of the country too are facing problems which may differ in degree from those of Saskatchewan, but are none the less of a difficult character."

"As in the case of Manitoba, we do not see any solution other than that which might be provided by a complete inquiry into the financial powers and responsibilities of all our governing bodies."
The report stated that there was no other Province of Canada where relief problem was so acute.
