GinPills FOR THE KIDNEYS

Why Recommended

"My case was very serious and I was so sick that everybody expected my death any day. No suffering could ever be worse than what I had to endure. I could feel at first the gravel passing through my bladder but now I am as strong as ever. I weigh about 20 lbs. more than when I started to take Gin Pills. I beg you to publish my letter so that people may know what Gin Pills had done for me. The first box relieved me a good deal, eight boxes were sufficient to cure me entirely, and bring me back to perfect health."

DISLOYAL SIKHS BALKED

Native Loyalty Too Much For Returned Revolutionaries

Returning from the Viceroyship, Lord Hardinge had something to say of the aftermath of Canada's troubles with certain Hindoos. He narrated that in the winter of 1914-15 about 7,000 Sikhs returned to India from the western part of the United States and Canada. They were imbued with revolutionary ideas and were doubtless under the impression that the whole country was ready to rise. They made their way up country and arrived in the Punjab. They committed all sorts of excesses, not stopping at murder. This was in February, 1915.

Not only did they fail to subvert the population, but when the Government took in hand the task of suppressing disorders and hunting down the perpetrators, it was invariably assisted by Sikh peasants, who, in numberless cases, themselves seized and handed over the guilty parties to the authorities in the Punjab. These returned Sikhs were undoubtedly parties to a conspiracy which had for its object to cause a general rising and seize in the first instance, Ferozepore Arsenal. It was through the unflinching loyalty of the native population to the British Rajah that the conspiracy came to nought.
