HAPPY FIFTH IN SCOTLAND

Your Nose Knows

ATTENTION Mr Stockman

We are at the close of Winter—you animals have been closely housed and on dry feed. They may eat well—but do not seem to turn their food to good account.

It is up to you to supply the tonics and blood purifiers, which your stock would receive if they were on pasture.

Dr. Croken's Condition Powder is just the article. This Powder has been used and endorsed by all the leading horsemen and stockraisers in the province.

For sale by Colin A McDonald Prescription Druggist Phone 616, Revere Hotel Block, Kent Street Telephone or mail orders receive prompt attention.

Are Your Horses In Good Condition? If not.

Hughes' Condition Powder will give them a keen appetite. Regulate disorders Purify the blood. Keep them healthy and in good condition. Prevent colic caused by indigestion and acids in thoroughly assimilating the regular feed.

Over 40 years, experience treatment of horses and cattle is your guarantee that Hughes' Condition Powder is the best.

CHARMING NEW STYLES for misses in Sport Hats today at Patons. 7010-4-4M21.

PRACTICE TONIGHT.—St. James' Choir will rehearse the Easter Music at 7.30 yesterday morning and docked in Georgetown at 12.30. The train from Georgetown with passengers from the steamer arrived in the city at 3.20.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.—Miss Bessie Currie, daughter of Mr. Jas. Currie, of Currie & Murnaghan, was operated on for appendicitis in the hospital on Sunday evening and is progressing favourably.

CAPES SERVICE.—The mail boats left Cape Traverse yesterday at 6.25, with forty-five bags of mail, and Cape Tormentine at 6.45, with fifty-four bags. They landed on this side about ten o'clock. The mail arrived in the city at 12.45.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.—The regular meeting of the Brookfield Farmers' Institute was held in the hall at Brookfield on Saturday, March 31st. President F. C. Dollar occupied the chair. After the general business had been transacted a vote was taken for or against the auto running out of the Malpeque Road every member present voted against the auto running. A. E. Dollar, Sec'y.

QUEEN'S COUNTY AERIAL LEAGUE.—The Queen's County Branch of the Aerial League of the British Empire will hold a meeting under the auspices of their Promotion Committee, in the Board of Trade Rooms, (Charlottetown), at 4 p. m. (today) Wednesday, 4th April. All persons interested in aviation are invited to attend. 7007.

LARGE WHARF PURCHASE.—The Connolly's West Wharf Property situated at the west end of Queen Street, comprising the Large Wharf Street, with yard and breastwork adjoining, together with very extensive water privileges, has been purchased by Mr. Simon Pacl, Proprietor of the Lumber Firm of L. M. Poole & Co. 6094.

KEEP OF GRASS.—Charlottetown is about the only city in Canada, whose public squares, boulevards, and private lawns are badly treated at this time of year. The poor grass that struggles through the winter for existence is driven over by all kinds of waggons, and cut to pieces. Boys and others walk over cultivated grass and lawns, and just do as they like, while in other cities this is not tolerated. Please give the grass a chance to revive. The Floral Society is trying through its members to beautify the City in lots of ways, so kindly take the hint and keep off the grass for at least three weeks.

AUTOS POPULAR.—On Saturday, R. T. Holman, Limited, Summerside, received a shipment of three cars of Ford Automobiles. It is understood that the majority of these cars are sold already, and strange to relate every sale made is with farmers located at different points in the country. Holmans predict that if the present law is repealed there will be great difficulty in supplying the demand for cars on account of the disorganization of transportation. This firm states they are in receipt of an almost incredible number of enquiries from farmers throughout the country who claim to be interested in motor tractors and automobiles.

GEORGETOWN-PICTOU SERVICE.—The car-ferry steamer left Pictou at 7.30 yesterday morning and docked in Georgetown at 12.30. The train from Georgetown with passengers from the steamer arrived in the city at 3.20.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. William McKay of Springfield, Lot 67, died suddenly on Sunday morning last. He was about 80 years of age, and had been feeling unwell for some time past. He was widely known as a leading farmer and leaves many relatives and friends to mourn the loss of a good citizen.

WOUNDED IN SHOULDER.—Mrs. Eleanor McLeod, 14 Upper Hillsborough St., Charlottetown, has received word from the Records Office to the effect that her husband, Pte. John Archie McLeod, was admitted to the Mile End Military Hospital, Bancraft Road, London, Eng., on Feb. 25th, ill, suffering from a gunshot wound in the right shoulder, and that any further information received would be communicated without delay.

STANDARD TIME WATCHES.—For the information of the employees of the P. E. I. Ry., who will come under the Standard Time Service Rules, W. W. Wellner, Official Watch Inspector, would like to advise that by authority of Article No. 29 of the Canadian Government Railway Watch Inspection Rules, they are permitted to sell any employee a Standard Watch on the instalment plan making deductions from consecutive pay rolls. Proper forms have been provided by the Government and the firm will be pleased to have any employee call and have them explain the different rules. 6060.

"He Profits Most Who Serves the Best"

We do a great deal of advertising in various ways, but we believe that our most favourable publicity which we receive is through the medium of a satisfied customer. A feeling of security is always shown by our customers, because they have learned to rely on the quality of our goods, the superiority of our service and the fairness of our prices.

The extent and quality of our trade, and the obvious confidence reposed in us by the public is pretty convincing evidence that— We have always given superior service. MAY WE ADD YOU TO OUR LIST OF SATISFIED CUSTOMERS?

The Sterling Palace was situated where the Edinburgh University now stands, and which we also visited on the following day, together with the Parliament Buildings and were just in time to attend a session of the High Supreme Court. We were then taken through the High Criminal Court, after which we proceeded to the Abbey Church, Palace and environs of Holyrood House.

Here we visited the Throne room State rooms, the Royal Apartments, The Dining room, Grand Staircase, Historical Apartments, Lord Darnley's Bedroom, Queen Mary's Private Stair and Audience Chambers and Bedroom. This room is 22 feet by 8 1/2 feet with two windows looking south and west. A work-book, by tradition the work of Queen Mary, with a representation of the dream of Jacob in stamp work is on exhibition. Inside are some curious relics—a black felt cap, said to have belonged to Queen Mary's father, James V., a gaudy, said to have been Darnley's, a lachrymatory, etc. Queen Mary's Supper-room, came next. It is no more than a closet, yet it does possess a tragic interest out of proportion to its dimensions for it was here that Queen Mary sat at supper, with the Countess of Argyll, Lord Robert, Stuart, and David Rizzio, on the night of the 13th February 1566, when Darnley burst in upon the little party followed by Ruthven, and dragged the hated Italian out through to the further end of the Audience Chamber and murdered him.

The Queen made as though she would cry for help from the window, whereupon a Scottish gentleman declared he would "cut her into collops" if she stirred. Next we visited the Chapel Royal. Passing along the north side of the quadrangle you enter the Abbey Church, now designated the Chapel Royal. This roofless ruin is all that remains of the Abbey Church, built by David I. between 1128 and 1141 and reconstructed by Abbot Crawford in the latter part of the fifteenth century. It formed the nave of the original structure and was the scene of many imposing ceremonies and memorable events.

Next we visited Calton Memorial which was erected as a memorial to the men who fell at Waterloo. It was intended to be a facsimile of the Pantheon at Athens, but unfortunately, the financial support accorded did not suffice to complete the erection. As it stands however, its prominence, from many view points, enhances the city's outward claims to the title, "The Athens of the North." At the base of the Nelson Tower, humbler, if more speaking war memorial presents itself, in the shape of a gate taken from Sebastopol at the close of the Crimean War. From the top of the Nelson Monument, on a clear day the magnificent prospect afforded amply repays the trifling outlay and exertion of climbing to the top.

We next drove to Queensferry and the famous Forth Bridge. This Bridge is undoubtedly the finest in the world. On our way out we passed the Dean Bridge a place of sinister reputation in its roll of suicides. On Friday we had an invitation to Mr. J. A. M. Welwood's residence about eight miles from Edinburgh. There we were given a hearty welcome, and certainly we had a most enjoyable day with this old gentleman who, as it seemed could not do enough for us. On Sunday night at 7.10 we left Edinburgh for our camp which we reached at 8.30 on Monday after spending the best furlough we have had yet.

For a few days our camp was at Charlton Park, Woolwich, where we were visited by Charles Hine of the 98th Siege Battery. On Thursday, March 1st our Battery played a game of baseball with our rivals, No. 7 Battery, McGill boys. Although they defeated our boys, by a score of 18-8, I cannot say that it was anything to their credit at that particular time, as our boys were pretty sore after hauling their guns around and lifting heavy stores, the pitcher, Corporal Steeves, having hurt his arm; in fact our boys all around were in poor baseball condition. The line-up of the players on our team was as follows: Catcher, Garret; pitcher, Steeves; 1st base, Lieke; 2nd base, Mcintosh; 3rd base, J. Keoughan; centre field, H. S. Lea; right field, F. McDonald; left field, A. McKinnon; short stop, H. L. Bearisto. The game was at times most exciting and the best hand that we have ever heard of was in attendance, and it was some lively day.

On the following day we received orders to get ready to move to another camp, a little further up the road, and right in the centre of the town of Woolwich. So the boys are much more at home, as they can go down the street and arrive back in time for roll call.

The sad news of Harold McLeod's death reached us the other day. The boys were very sorry to hear that their friend and comrade had been dead so long, without having heard of him. As he was known among the boys, was a general favourite with officers, N. C. O.'s and Gunners alike, I must now close with best wishes. I am, sir, etc. RAY MACDONALD, 8th Siege Battery, C. G. A.

JUST FOR TO-DAY.

"Oh, give me not to know the hidden future! I would not look beyond at weal or woe— But grant, instead, a heart that for the present Is well content; I shall be happy so, Not living in the past where shadows deepen, But looking ever upward, while I say, 'Thank God for this.' My only need of caution Is how I meet the duties of today."

whether the cigar you smoke has been thoroughly cured and matured.

Let the smoke come through your nostrils: does it irritate, is it raw, harsh, peppery or scratchy?

If it is, the tobacco is not properly cured.

Take any Davis cigar and test it in this way: you will find it mild, mellow, smooth, free from any of the faults mentioned—in fact, an ideal smoke.

Why not try a Davis "Perfection"?
