This feature itself will be a rare treat as it is the first of its kind in this community. The "All-ies" are putting in some very effective practices under the instructions of Mr. Abeigee Currie.—K.

—ANNUAL S.S. MEETING.—The Pleasant Valley S. S. Annual Meeting was held on Tuesday evening, Rev. L. L. Leard occupying the chair. The usual routine of business gone through the subject of how to get the young men to attend Sunday School, was discussed. As that is all that seems to be amiss in this school, the absence of the young men, it was decided to appoint a committee of young men. Messrs Stanley Sharpe, D. S. Bertram, Harry Weeks, to see if they could organize a club in the afternoon as soon as possible and to interest them in this good work.

—ABRAM'S VILLAGE—Empire Day was kept in a patriotic manner on Friday, the 21st inst., at Abram's Village High School. Persons owing us in physical drill and marching. Most of the pupils carried a small school flag and at intervals during the march, at the command, halt, they would in military fashion come to a sudden stand to join in singing the National Anthem or other patriotic songs under the direction of the Vice-principal, Miss Marguerite LeClaire. The procession was continued to the store of S. E. Gallant & Son, where arrayed in two rows and in the position of attention they were given the following appropriate words on the occasion by Mr. S. E. Gallant, merchant, who made some very flattering remarks on the good discipline of the pupils. The parade, which was headed by a drum, then returned to the school grounds. In the principal's department the day was observed in a manner worthy of mention as each pupil had been asked to prepare a short lecture for the occasion. All of them responded well and the following is the substance of their speech, Master Walter Darby in speaking on the day, the war and the peaceful attitude of Woodrow Wilson in these trying times. Master Belonie Cormier reviewed the preparation of nations at war, the ground covered by the firing line, etc. Miss Alma LeClaire said that while we joy in celebrating Empire Day, many others of our people are celebrating it in a very different way. She also explained at some length the causes of the war, and touched on the great destruction of Belgium.—M.

—FIREMEN OUT.—The firemen of Summerside were called out about 10 o'clock Thursday night to extinguish a fire in the jail. The fire was in the lower part of the building and was rather difficult to locate, being between the floors, but it did not have time to gain much headway before being discovered, and was soon put out.—X.

—FOR THE FRONT.—"Jack" McLeod, son of Mr and Mrs Neil McLeod, Summerside, enlisted for overseas service last March among the McGill students, where he had just completed his second year. He is now in training at Niagara-on-the-Lake and expects to go to the front at any moment amongst the draft now called upon to reinforce the Patriotics, who have been so badly cut up in Flanders.—X.

SAYVILLE LIARS OUT OF BUSINESS.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Wireless communication between the United States and Germany has been severely handicapped and will probably be in this condition until about July 1, owing to the static conditions prevailing in the North Atlantic at this time of the year.

The wireless station at Sayville, Long Island, the receiving station of the Atlantic Communication Company, the German wireless concern, has within the past week or two frequently been isolated from the sending plant at Nauen, Germany, it was learned today, and the same situation exists at Tuckerton, N. J., the sending station in this country for messages to Germany. Such messages as are received at Sayville are for the most part fragmentary or often impossible to decipher.

Electrical activities of the Aurora Borealis, accompanied by electrical storms over the wireless routes, are the cause of the difficulty, it is explained, and these may be expected to continue for several weeks. This means that under normal conditions again prevail, uncensored communication between Germany and the outside world will be limited.

With the cutting of the German-owned Atlantic cable at the beginning of the war, Germany had to fall back upon her wireless plants in order to transmit news and official or diplomatic messages through a channel not controlled by her enemies. For this the Sayville station became the distributing centre, the wireless messages being there transmitted by neutral cable or telegraph to all parts of the world. It is in this way that Germany has kept in touch with her diplomatic representatives in neutral countries, and the German War Office statements have been distributed uncensored.

The intensity of the static disturbances now occurring frequently increases the wireless distance between Sayville and Nauen by the equivalent of 2,000 miles, it is said, a handicap which the Nauen station, powerful as it is, cannot overcome. Such messages as are intelligible are the joint work of four receiving operators, listening simultaneously, every one getting what he can and placing the fragments together.

The news agencies meantime have been obliged to depend upon London for regular transmission of the daily German War Office statement.

DEUTSCHES UEBER ALLIES (For the Transcript.)

Out from hell's depths with eyes aflame,
Waking the world with his armor's clang,
Breathing slaughter, a monster came
And brandished his sword as thus he sang:—

"All the brute that's in man is mine,
All of the craft of the beast of prey,
And demon's ire I count divine,
And do God's will when I read and slay!"

"My altar stands a gate of hell,
My priests are creatures of blood
Their hymn the shriek of the deadly shell,
Their sacrifice the funeral pyre!"

My glory lives in the lurid light
Of the hell I leave where my legions sweep!
"I'll maim and kill and sink and burn,
With carnage all pleas for mercy meet,
And even the Prince of Peace I'll spurn
Till a conquered world lies at my feet!"

FRED W. WEBBER.
