WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage took place last Tuesday of Mr. Felix Arsenault of St. Christy's to Miss Eulalie Arsenault of Abrams Village.—M.

AN OLD TIMER.—The old fashioned winter was in evidence at Egmont Bay last week; storm nearly every day, roads practically impassable, and the thermometer hovering at zero.—Mr. Edilbert Poirier, Abrams Village, who had gone to Summerside Friday before the storm, with a grist taking two horses with him, could only return on the following Thursday.—Messrs. John F. Arsenault and Calixte Arsenault, have purchased a farm containing about 35 acres, from Mr. Joseph McNally, who is in Sydney. This farm situated on Lot 15, is partly covered with hard wood and was bought for a reasonable sum.—An amusing incident took place when two men got in a dispute regarding the quality of foxes in the Trout River branch. The dispute though friendly, came to a climax, when each agreed to bet $10 that his opponent was in the wrong. The money was given to a third party to hold until satisfactory information could be obtained to decide the matter. The two men then got in a friendly conversation regarding other ordinary matters and finally came to the fox discussion again, and found out that there had been a misunderstanding when they made their bet. They then concluded that they had better take back their money, and on looking for the third party found he had disappeared. He had evidently anticipated such a friendly termination, and had made haste to retire before it should come. The two men then had a good laugh, and knowing the third party to be an honest man, were in no manner uneasy.—The teachers Miss Rosalie Arsenault and Miss Emilie Arsenault were unable to attend to their school duties last week, being sick with sore throat.—M.

MEETING.—The Masonic Lodge of Alberton called a special meeting last Friday night, of its members. A Lodge of instruction was to have been held, but owing to the storm and state of the roads the members appointed for this purpose were not able to attend. Notice of a similar meeting will be issued shortly and the Master and officers would be pleased to have the attendance of the entire Lodge.—A.

FOX EXCHANGE.—Are you interested in the fox business? The Equitable Maritime Black Fox Company Limited is admitted to be the best proposition on the market. The ranch at O'Leary is one of the best equipped on the Island. Their silver black foxes are the best procurable. The capitalization is only fourteen thousand per pair. For further particulars apply to G. M. Matthews, President, O'Leary, P. E. I. 3754-S-Mt.

FOX OPTIONS ON 1914 PUPS.—The Directors of the Alberton Dark Silver Fox Company, Ltd., have decided to sell a limited number of options on the season's pups. Interested purchasers are reminded that this Company owns 8 pairs of highest grade animals, being the early selections from the old established ranches in the vicinity of Alberton, the home of the industry. Write, or better if possible visit Alberton and obtain full particulars from E. J. Keir, M. D., President or M. M. Foley, Secretary. 4077-1-22mt.

CHARGE OF OYSTER STEALING.—The case of the McNutt Oyster Company against two men from Malpeque, named Arthur Champion and George Thompson, charged with stealing oysters from the beds of that concern, which was commenced some weeks ago, occupied the attention of Stipendiary Wright's Court all day yesterday, the evidence of the two watchmen being taken. The case is adjourned until this morning. Mr. W. Bentley, K. C., appeared for the prosecution; Mr. Saunders for the defendant.—J.

DEBATING CLUB.—At the last meeting of the Urbanville Debating Club a lively discussion took place. The subject "Should we abolish the Credit System?" proved to be an interesting one. Some of the arguments brought forth in the affirmative side was that the credit involved a lot of additional work in the matter of running a business, which would mean more expenses and consequently the merchant had to sell his goods high enough to cover those expenses. And again a great number of the bad debts might result under Credit System and as a consequence the merchant had to mark his goods high enough to meet such emergencies. Those on the negative maintained that the credit gave the young beginner a start in life. With out it many good speculations would be lost. The poor man unable to pay the cash for an article, would be deprived of the means to do his work. Many things though bought on credit, pay for themselves in a short time.—M.

PROHIBITION CASES.—On Tuesday the hearing of the prohibition cases instituted by the Temperance Alliance was again taken up. Decision was given in the case against John McFadden, of Kensington. The case was dismissed. That against F. Perry also heard previously, resulted in the defendant being convicted and he was fined $100 upon a second charge he was also convicted and fined $100. Before judgment was given in each of these cases, Mr. McCallum for the defendant, took objection to the Magistrate trying the case on the ground of having no jurisdiction, and asked that the objection be noted. The case against Edwin Smith was before the Court when it adjourned; the evidence of the two detectives having been taken.—J.

FARMERS and stock raisers from all over the Island patronize Mac's Free Veterinary Bureau. At this bureau you get free the services of men who know the cause, cure and preventative of every disease known that afflicts horses and live stock, and in some cases individual prescriptions are put up to suit special cases. DEBATING CLUB.—At the last meeting of the Urbanville Debating Club a lively discussion took place. The subject "Should we abolish the Credit System?" proved to be an interesting one. Some of the arguments brought forth in the affirmative side was that the credit involved a lot of additional work in the matter of running a business, which would mean more expenses and consequently the merchant had to sell his goods high enough to cover those expenses. And again a great number of the bad debts might result under Credit System and as a consequence the merchant had to mark his goods high enough to meet such emergencies. Those on the negative maintained that the credit gave the young beginner a start in life. With out it many good speculations would be lost. The poor man unable to pay the cash for an article, would be deprived of the means to do his work. Many things though bought on credit, pay for themselves in a short time.—M.

PROHIBITION CASES.—On Tuesday the hearing of the prohibition cases instituted by the Temperance Alliance was again taken up. Decision was given in the case against John McFadden, of Kensington. The case was dismissed. That against F. Perry also heard previously, resulted in the defendant being convicted and he was fined $100 upon a second charge he was also convicted and fined $100. Before judgment was given in each of these cases, Mr. McCallum for the defendant, took objection to the Magistrate trying the case on the ground of having no jurisdiction, and asked that the objection be noted. The case against Edwin Smith was before the Court when it adjourned; the evidence of the two detectives having been taken.—J.
