Cardigan

The weather for the past month has been everything but satisfactory for the farmers to prepare for the winter months, although the majority are pleased to see the snow come to cover the disagreeable roads, as it appears road repairing is only a thing of the past, at least in this vicinity. The Hernada, Lunenburg which has been in port at Cardigan for the past two weeks called Saturday under command of Captain John E. White of Newfoundland, containing a mixed cargo of potatoes, vegetables, hay, turkeys' geese and hens. Mr. and Mrs. James Shaw, Cardigan, motored to Kensington on Sunday, Nov. 22. Misses Linda Minchin, R. N., and Ann Shaw, R. N., who have spent the past two months visiting in Mantague, Cardigan and New Perth, left recently for Brooklyn, New York where they resume their duties. A meeting held in Lorne Valley Hall on Saturday night, Nov. 21, for the purpose of arranging some entertainment for the young people, was largely attended, several suggestions were made and finally decided to hold a house to house weekly social evening for the winter months which will include all sorts of games and plenty of entertainment for the young people of that vicinity. The first social is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacLeod on Thursday night. All arrangements are being made by Messrs. Walter MacLeod and Neil McCannell, Lorne Valley. Mrs. Percy James, Church Road, is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. John Mustard, M. L. A. Cardigan Head. Mrs. Hannah Shaw, Lorne Valley, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John MacQueen, Uigg. Card plays are again on the go and several have been held recently in this vicinity. Miss Rose Sullivan, Cardigan Head has been employed for the past weeks at Morell. Norway's income from tourist traffic in 1936 will be about $12,000,000.
