Miss Georgie Webster, who has been in Boston during the past two years, has arrived home to spend a few weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Webster, Cardigan. Miss Webster attended Grade XI at the Monasteg High School, graduating in 1948, after which she taught school for two years. Miss Webster was first employed as a telephone operator in Boston, after which she was promoted to Telephone Clerk, supervising a staff of five girls. Her many friends are happy to see her at home, and wish her every future success.

—WEDDING ANNIVERSARY - Family, friends and neighbors "invaded" the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Brown, New London, on Monday last, to celebrate with them, the anniversary of their marriage, which took place on April 29th, 1898. Mr. George Ferguson occupied the chair and in his introductory remarks, called upon Mrs. Ralph Heaney, who read an address on behalf of the family. A beautiful mantel clock was presented by Mr. Allan Brown to his father and mother, from children grandchildren and great grandchildren. Friends and neighbors were represented by Mr. Ernest Dunning, who read the well known and highly esteemed couple, an address expressing high regard for their value to the community. Congratulations on the Golden Wedding and best wishes for many more years of happiness together.

Prince Edward Island's grand old physician, 90-year-old Dr. R. J. MacDonald, was a busy but happy man Sunday as he observed his 90th birthday at his home at St. Peter's Bay.

All day long friends of the general doctor visited his residence to wish him many happy returns of the day. He had a chat with all, but, numbering over 100. Birthdays or not, he still had calls to make. Early Sunday morning the Doctor was off on a sick call. His son Colin and daughters Jean and Alycia (Mrs. P. J. Rossiter) were with him for the celebration. Also present were his grandchildren, members of the Rossiter family and his great-granddaughter, Mrs. J. W. Corbett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Corbett.

In the evening a large number of friends assembled. A presentation of a purse was made and a very fitting address read. The Doctor made an excellent reply. Among the many congratulatory messages were some 60 cards from the St. Peter's Club of Boston. Also received were two spiritual bouquets from the same group.

Mr. Fred McWade, 60, retired Navy man, of 74 Bayfield Street, City, was found dead about 9 o'clock last night in a hallway at 178 Kent Street by City Police who were summoned to the premises by telephone.

The Police's opinion last night it was their opinion the late Mr. McWade had fallen down a stairway from the second floor. There were some blood spots on the wall near the bottom of the stairs though the Police said when they saw the body it was propped up at the bottom of the stairs in a corner about nine feet from where the blood spots were on the wall. Police said there was a small cut on the top of the man's head. Upon the arrival of Coroner Dr. I. J. Yeo, an inquest was held and the following jurymen were named: Thomas White, foreman; William Hughes, Merritt Forsythe, George W. McLeod, Byron Brown and Hawley Crockett. After the body was viewed at the Frank Hennessy Funeral Home, Dr. Yeo announced the inquest would be held on May 25, at 7:30. An autopsy will be performed on the body today.

Besides his wife, the late Mr. McWade is survived by nine children, five boys and four girls. One of the sons is in Ottawa and another is with the C. M. F. on the west coast. The remainder of the family are at home.

—DE ROCHE-BERING - Snapdragons and gold candelabra, on the altar of St. Catherine of Alexandria Church, St. Catharines, Ont., formed the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, May 15, when Mary Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Bering, St. Catharines, became the bride of Gerard Alfred DeRoche, son of Mrs. Octave Gaudet, Tignish, P. E. I., and the late Edward J. DeRoche. Rev. Paul Attallah officiated at the marriage. Mr. Clarence Colton was at the organ and sang during the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white point d'esprit over taffeta, with sweet-heart neckline and boffant skirt. Her finger-tip veil was caught in a circle of Calla lilies and orange blossoms and she carried a prayer book, ornamented with pearls, from which fell a shower of foxtail-nuts and sweet-peas. Mrs. Thomas Smith was matron of honor in a gown of white sheer. Her headpiece was of white mohair and she carried a cascade bouquet of carnations and "sweet-peas". Mr. Thomas Smith was groomsmen. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride's parents. In the afternoon and evening over a hundred guests gathered and enjoyed the evening with dancing to the orchestras of Mrs. Essie Roland, Mr. and Mrs. DeRoche left on a motor trip through New York State, the bride wearing a suit of powder blue wool, with brown accessories and corsage of pink roses. They will reside at 2 Elm Street.

WEDDING BELLS - Amid a setting of snow-white plum blossoms, King St., United Church, Trenton, Ontario, was the scene of a double ring ceremony on Friday, May 7, when Rev. J. D. Martin, United in marriage Dorothy Isobel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Harry Crews and Robert Harrison Cairns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Cairns, Summerside, P. E. I. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white corded taffeta made with fitted bodice, long sleeves pointed over the hand, and full skirt forming a small train. Her finger-tip veil was gathered to a taffeta petal address and she carried an all white cascade bouquet of carnations, gardenias and sweet peas. She wore a strand of pearls, the gift of the groom. The matron of honor, Mrs. R. H. Browne, cousin of the bride, was attired in yellow nylon marquisette over gold taffeta. The two bridesmaids, Miss Norma Crockett and Miss Gratia Foster, were gowned alike in aquamarine falls. The head dresses were of pink carnations and tiny pink and yellow rose-buds. They carried matching bouquets. The groom was attended by George Binnington, and the ushers were Ronald Crews, brother of the bride and George Miluck. Before the service Mrs. Kenneth Crews sang "The Lord's Prayer" and during the singing of the register "O Promise Me" accompanied by Mr. George Downs at the organ. Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, the bride's mother receiving in a gown of powder blue with black accessories and a corsage of deep red roses. The bride's kinsmates, graduate nurses of Kingston General Hospital, assisted in the serving of the guests. The couple left for a short honeymoon in Toronto, the bride travelling in a light grey wool suit with pink sheer blouse and black accessories. Upon their return they will reside in Kingston.

WEDNESDAY

—PRETTY SPRING WEDDING - The account of a wedding which appeared in a recent issue of the Vancouver Daily Province will be of interest to many Prince Edward Islanders: "Spring Mood Reflected At an Impressive Evening Ceremony in Ryerson United Church, Thursday at 8:30, Charlotte Ann (Shirley) Ferguson exchanged marriage vows with Jack William Merryfield. Rev. E. D. Braden read the marriage service for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Duncan Ferguson and the son of Mr. J. E. Merryfield. Imported Swiss white eyelid organza fashioned the lovely gown worn by the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. A deep frill outlined the yoke on the fitted bodice and the long fitting sleeves tapered to a point over the wrist. The full Victorian skirt was padded at the hips and draped to a bow in bustle effect. Clusters of gardenias held her finger tip veil and were repeated in her bouquet combined with orchids and pink roses. Her duo of attendants, gowned in primrose faille, were her sister, Miss Claire Ferguson and Miss Mary Asselstine. The full skirts were draped to back bustles which ended in slight trains and a coronet of French blue iris matched her slippers and lace mitts. They carried bouquets of daffodils with pink carnations. Receiving with the bridal party at the reception in the Social Suite Hotel Vancouver was the bride's mother wearing a gown of mist grey crepe, her matching straw hat trimmed with flowers and veiling. Mr. W. Carter proposed the bridal toast. For the honeymoon trip to Vancouver Island the bride wore a tailored powder blue suit with matching Robin Hood felt hat, gien checked topcoat in beige and maroon with an orchid corsage. The couple will reside at 6289 Angus Drive. The older citizens of Summerside will remember Mr. Ferguson as "Hal", son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Ferguson, proprietors of the Ferguson House. He is a brother of Mrs. Edwin Taylor, North Bedouque.—S.
