LETTER FROM HOME . . .

"We've got the seed catalogues. We're planning a bigger vegetable garden this year."
 (Tomorrow we go into the line . . . Now we'll get a chance at Jerry).
 "Dad's putting in overtime at the plant. Sally and I are working hard for the Red Cross".
 (I can see the little room now . . . Books, pipes, fishing tackle, those snaps of Mary at the lake).
 "Mary's looking sweeter than ever. She carries your picture in her purse."
 (I'd like to be holding Mary in my arms right now. We'd talk about what we're going to do after the war).
 "There was a special service on Easter Sunday. We prayed for victory and your safe return."
 (Easter's over now . . . It won't be any picnic tomorrow. We'll need all the shells and bombs we can pour on Jerry).
 "We're all getting ready to buy more Victory Bonds."
 (Wonder how much dough it takes to run this war . . . Plenty, I guess . . . That's what the Victory Bonds are for).
 "We'll see you get what you need, son. It's little enough when we think of what you're doing for us."
 (Good old mother and dad! They know how we depend on this stuff we're taking up the line . . . Well, we got a job to do tomorrow . . . Good night, mother! Good night, dad!)

PARATROOPERS CHECKING OUT—These gentlemen in fancy dress are Iraq Levies who don native garb when leaving RAF paratroop training station on pass. Known for fighting skill, scores have made more than 3000 jumps.

Approximately 45 feet underground Sapper W. Brander from Kennington, P. E. I., watches the dials on the switchboard of the power plant for a heavy coast gun battery somewhere on the Atlantic seaboard. These subterranean plotting rooms, power plants and ammunition dumps are well protected and well guarded.
