Almost every day The Guardian receives orders by mail to insert news matter of an advertising nature. In most of these cases the senders, who are frequently not known to any member of the staff and who have no account in the advertising department, write "Please insert the following and oblige," thus apparently implying that they think the items will be inserted free. Only a few weeks since the firm for sale be cancelled free from day to day until he cancelled it, as he is a subscriber to The Guardian. In this connection it may be said that the subscription price is not sufficient to even pay the actual cost of paper, ink, presswork, mailing, bookkeeping and other expenses of the Circulation department proper, and thus subscribers have no privileges of free advertising and are on the same footing as non-subscribers. Seldom ever does the sender state whether the item is to appear in the Morning Daily or the Rural Daily, whether for one or more times in either Daily, or in both, whether as a display advertisement, announcement, business local, classified ad or otherwise. When for church or charitable purposes they seldom ever say so, or do not enclose sufficient money to pay for same all of which will be returned by first mail in the event of the item not being chargeable; or if more money is sent than necessary to pay for the item the surplus will be returned at once, there being a greater discount for cash with order for advertising of churches & than for regular business. In all such cases the Advertising department communicates with the sender as quickly as possible by mail or phone, often paying the messenger service to get them to the telephone if not too far distant, thus saving all possible time. People write this office to know if News, Letters to Editor, etc., are charged for, and to all such there is but one reply—all items etc. of a money making nature, even though they be somewhat of a news nature, are chargeable. For instance, the advance notice or notices of a concert, lecture, pie social, picnic, etc., are chargeable if an admission fee, silver collection, sale of pies or sale of food or refreshments, etc. Advance notices of purely religious services, even tho a silver collection is to be taken up, are not chargeable. The particulars of any of the above, after they have been held, are, however, news and thus not chargeable. The news of any past, present or future business, which is still being conducted, is chargeable, if it is apparent that the object is to make the business more widely known and thus increase it. Veres accompanying death notices are also chargeable. Even items which are actual news are not chargeable for but once in either Morning Daily or Rural Daily or both are chargeable for more than one insertion, as they are thus not news.

The above facts are given for the purpose of assisting persons who have items, etc., to mail to this office, so that delay and disappointment will be avoided. 3-6dtr.

The wedding of Miss Jennie May McCannell, eldest daughter of Archibald McCannell of Pisiquid Basin, and Elisha Alfred Douglas, Head of Hillsboro, took place at the home of the bride Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. P. Murray of Mount Stewart, in the presence of the immediate relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties. The bride, who was very prettily attired in embroidered net was attended by her sister Annie, who was also tastily dressed in pink with white trimmings. The groom was supported by his brother-in-law Douglas. After the ceremony the guests partook of a sumptuous repast and the evening was then enjoyably spent in music and social recreation. During the evening Rev. Murray addressed the young couple in a very pleasing manner. The numerous wedding presents and gifts from Lawrence, Mass. where the bride and groom are both favorably known and also cheques from the groom's brothers. The groom's present to the bride was a gold watch and chain and to the bridesmaid a crescent brooch. The Guardian heartily joins with many friends in extending its best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas for a long and happy wedded life.

Word reached this City yesterday of the accidental death in Saskatoon of George McLeod, son of Captain McLeod of the S. S. Northumberland. Mr. McLeod had charge of the water system of the C. P. R. from Saskatoon east to Elkhoron with headquarters at Saskatoon where they had their home. Factors to hand are only meagre but it seems that in looking after the water system McLeod and his assistant had occasion to go down into one of the wells. They were overcome by gas and an explosion apparently took place. The first to be killed was R. E. Mutch, brother of the deceased's wife, sent by Jack McDougall, an Island boy, read as follows: "George McLeod was overcome by gas in well at Plunkett last night. His assistant was taken out, but he has not yet been taken out because an explosion of gas has made it impossible. Everything possible is being done." A later telegram stated that the body had been recovered and that Mrs. McLeod and Harrie and Annie Mutch, cousins of the latter, accompanying the body would leave for the Island about twenty-eight years of age. Besides his stricken widow and parents, Captain and Mrs. McLeod, Mr. McLeod leaves to mourn one brother on the homestead at Owell and two sisters, Mrs. Geo. Mutch, of Calgary, now visiting friends in his Island home and Mrs. Crossberry of Calgary. The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

The Methodist Sunday Schools at Tryon, Crapaud, Victoria, and Hampton, will hold their annual picnic on the farm of Richard Lee Esq. at Crapaud in the same field as last year on Friday July 7th and should the day prove stormy on Saturday. 6-3dtrf.

At one of our city hotels two gentlemen met and after the usual greeting one said to the other: "By the way, where did you get that overcoat?" "Why?" inquired his friend. "Because it is the most stylish coat I ever saw. It fits you perfectly and the coat is so different from the ordinary, and the pattern and shade of the goods becomes you so well. Did you import it from abroad?" "No," said his friend, "I got this coat made at James Callaghan's, Upper Queen Street, and if you call on him he will make you as up-to-date a garment as you can get on the Continent." "I shall call tomorrow," said his friend. And he did. 4-5dwrstf.

FINED FOR USING LAWN SPRINKLERS

GLoucester, June 28—The water commissioners are determined that the city's water sprinklers be guarded, and the citizens protected in case of an emergency, and to that end are strictly enforcing its recent order forbidding the use of sprinklers and garden hose unattended. At this week's meeting of the board three well known citizens were fined $20 each for using lawn sprinklers in defiance of the board's order, after ample warning by letter and in person had been given. The board earnestly asked the cooperation of all takers in preventing waste. The use of the garden hose is limited to one hour each week, and in no case are users allowed to leave hose supported on a garden fork, or otherwise unattended.

THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

MADRID, June 28—The second General Assembly of the Eucharistic Congress was held yesterday at the Church of San Francisco. The Bishop of Beja caused a sensation in a speech attacking "the Masonic Government of Portugal." He expressed the hope that the monarchy would be restored. A telegram was read from Cardinal Merry del Val, the Papal Secretary, expressing the satisfaction of the Pope at the splendid inauguration of the Congress. A French delegate, M. Toussaint, spoke on social question, demonstrating the efficacious role religion could play in solving the problem of capital and labor.

NEW STAMPS UNPOPULAR

LONDON, June 28—The new postage stamps which have been in circulation since Coronation Day are not meeting with popular favor. The poverty of the design and the mediocrity of the engraving are criticized and the Postmaster General will be asked in Parliament if he will continue to issue them.
