THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.
Dr Conroy, City, spent Sunday in Georgetown.
J. J. and Mrs Petrie, St John, are spending their honeymoon in this City.
Mrs (Dr) McLeod, City, arrived in Summerside from Fredericton, N. B., Saturday night.
Mrs Kilpatrick and four children arrived Saturday night from Revelstoke to visit Mrs McKinnon, McGill Avenue, City.
W. A. O. Morson, City, Prothonotary of the Supreme Court, leaves for Summerside this afternoon where Supreme Court opens tomorrow morning.
Dr. H. D. Johnson, City, has returned from Toronto and Montreal where he attended the recent Convention of the Canadian Medical Association and a Tuberculosis Convention.
Thomas Gillian, of the P. E. I. R., City, left Saturday morning for Boston. Mr. Gillian will visit his son Vernon in that city and on his return will be accompanied by his daughter Miss Susie Gillian, who will spend a vacation with her parents in this city.
The game of baseball to have been played at the Abegweit Grounds in this city on Saturday afternoon did not materialize, one of the teams failing to appear owing to a misunderstanding. It is understood that the game has been claimed by default.
The Guardian has been shown some ripe wild strawberries which were picked in a field in Charlottetown. It is unusually early for the appearance of this fruit and it is evident, in spite of the cold weather lately experienced, that it is indeed "growing time."
Mark Wright has decided to locate in Western Canada. During his past visit all arrangements were made and a factory leased to manufacture furniture. He is advertising his whole stock of high class furniture at big discounts in order to make a speedy clearance. Special attention is directed to his ad in this issue.
The churches in this city yesterday were largely attended by sailors, cadets and officers from the H. M. S. Cornwall. A number of the men belong to the Salvation Army and took a prominent part in the outdoor meetings of the regular services of that denomination yesterday.
The team from the Phoenix Cricket Club to play a return match with the team from H. M. S. Cornwall today is as follows: H. E. Longworth, Prof. Wright, Prof. Warkis, J. O. Davies, W. A. Scott, M. McInnis, G. Tomlin, G. McEachern, T. Fullerton, H. McLeod, J. McQuillan, G. Fitzgerald, J. Edin, H. Miller. Stumps pitched at 1:30 sharp Monday.
The H. M. S. Cornwall will not leave this port this morning at eight thirty as originally intended but will remain over for another day, leaving about twenty-four hours later. This afternoon two teams from the ship are expected to play a match game of football at Victoria Park and after a return match with this city will play a return match with a team from the ship. Tennis games have been arranged for and also golf matches at the tennis courts and golf links, while at Kensington Range a picked team of eight men from this city will compete against a team from the Cornwall. A revolver contest will probably be included in the program at the range. At Victoria Park the city cricketers will play another match with the Cornwall men. The boys from the visiting ship are making many friends in this city and their call at Charlottetown has resulted in the springing up of many ward friendships which will prove lasting.

There were no Chicago Market Quotations in The Guardian despatches this morning.
Mrs Joseph Doucette, Shediac, N. B., is visiting her old home on Prince Edward Island.
John J. Louison, Montreal, brother of Will S. Louison, City, is registered at the Queen Hotel.
Mrs James Stewart, City, returned home Saturday night from New York. She was met in Moncton by Mr Stewart.
James Brady, son of Sergeant Major Brady, City, who is seriously ill, was reported "about the same" last night.
S. M. and Mrs Hicks, of Summerside, P. E. I., are visiting in Moncton, the guests of W. C. and Mrs. Barnes.—Moncton Transcript.
Austin Ford, employe of the Massey Harris Co. Ltd, Moncton, arrived home Saturday evening to spend a couple of weeks at his home at Winsloe Road.
Mrs B. H. Champion, Alberton, and G. S. Carruthers, Bedeque, recent graduates from McGill were passengers by the Empress to Summerside Saturday evening.
Contributors to The Guardian who send letters, poetry or other matter for publication and desire the same to be returned to them if not published, should enclose stamps sufficient to pay return postage. This also applies to news items.
Prof. Robert Laird, of Queen's University, Kingston, arrived in the city on Saturday night. Professor Laird, who is a native of this Province, is the guest of John M. Campbell, Prince Street, and will remain in this city for a few days.
Large numbers of citizens visited and were courteously shown through the H. M. S. Cornwall yesterday. Although this ship has been here before there was no lessened interest among the citizens in the naval representatives of the defenders of Great Britain.
Rev D. McKenzie who has been supplying the pulpit of Knox church, Shediac, for the past two weeks leaves town on Monday on his return to his home at Murray River, P. E. I. Rev Jas. McKenzie will return from the Island to resume his charge here by the end of the week.
Frank Draper, V. D. M. conducted two religious meetings in the Market Hall yesterday, both of which were fairly well attended. There were two discourses, one at two thirty and the other at eight pm. The lecturer dealt with the topic "Why When and How Jesus Comes." His reasonings and biblical quotations supporting his arguments were presented in a clear and concise manner and he held the attention of his audience throughout both lectures.
At the session of the St John district of the Methodist Ministers' Association last week a resolution was passed asking the annual conference of N. B. and P. E. I., in session of the 25th inst, to memorialize the general conference of Canada to order that the minimum salaries for ministers be $900 for an ordained married man, $700 in the case of an ordained single man and $500 for a probationer, in all cases the salary to be in addition to a free home.

The funeral of the late Annie McCoubrey, daughter of I. McCoubrey, City, of the P. E. I. R., took place yesterday afternoon at two thirty. The funeral procession was a large one and this, with the many floral tributes offered, gave evidence of the esteem in which the deceased was held. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. J. E. Floyd, of the Central Christian Church. The pall-bearers were: Charles Crosswell, William Worthy, Charles Boreham, George Pancher, Edward McQuaid and Frank Large.

Sir:

If the "nappy-go-lucky-slap-it-on-a press-and-let'er-go" kind of advertising you are using is doing you some good doesn't it seem reasonable to suppose that "something different"—bright, convincing, thought-out and mailed regularly "direct" to your list will prove of much greater value (This is intended only for the man who feels the bullet strike him).
