THERE was a large gathering in the Presbyterian Church at Dundas on Wednesday evening the 18th, to listen to Miss Blackadder, on Missionary Work in Trinidad, but as the day was so raw and cold she was not able to be present and though the audience was somewhat dissappointed they felt well repaid for coming by the intelligent and comprehensive address delivered by Mrs. B Rogers of Alberton on missionary work both home and foreign.

THE LORD'S DAY Alliance branch at Dundas held their first meeting at Presbyterian Church Monday 16th inst, which was very well attended. Appreciative addresses were delivered by the Rev. Mr. Corey and M. McLeod. On Tuesday the 17th at 7.30 the Rev. Mr. Corey delivered an address in the Baptist Church on Missionary Work in the North West which was much appreciated.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years, was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

OVERFLOW QUEEN'S COUNTY

Miss Mamie Hughes arrived home last night after visiting Torcnto.

F. P. Carvell arrived on real last night. His friends will be glad to know that he has largely recovered from his recent illness.

A young lad while playing in Queen Square about one o'clock yesterday fell and badly injured his leg. Dr. Kelly, who was nearby examined the injured limb and found that there were no bones broken, but the lad was considerably shaken up.

Business men should remember that they can reach the country every day in the week except Sundays and stationary holidays by advertising in the Guardian' Rural Daily with a guaranteed average circulation for 1907 of at least four thousand per issue.

Persons sending advertising matte to The Guardian are requested to state whether same is to appear among Classified ads, Business locals, Announcements or among regular display advertisements. When no such information is furnished the management will not be held responsible if ad does not appear here desired.

Last evening at "Restview" a score of young people met together and enjoyed a lawn party, the hours of which vanished on the wings of pleasure. Some there were who devoted themselves to games; some who enjoyed themselves in the light of the harvest moon which was enticing enough to tempt anyone to go out and spoon—well, never mind what. At any rate it is doubtful if there was ever an evening more delightful. All voted it one long to be remembered.

The Sydney Post says:—Thursday P J McIntyre, of the office of H P Duchemin barrister, was admitted to the bar of the Province. Mr McIntyre is well known in Sydney, where he has been articled for the past four years as one of the cleverest and most promising of our law students, and there is without doubt a most successful future before him as a member of the Nova Scotia bar. Mr McIntyre will continue to associate with Mr Duchemin in the practice of his profession. and the Post extends to his best wishes for a most professional career [Mr McIntyre is a native of Souris.]

Charlottetown Lodge I. O. G. T., had a very interesting social time last evening the occasion being a fraternal visit paid by the members of Excelsior Lodge at Pownal. The large Castle hall in which the event was celebrated was well filled with members of the order. The Chief Templar of Excelsior Lodge was invited to take the chair and perform the initiation ceremonies which had just commenced when he and his fellow members arrived upon the scene. He consented, and did the work well. The program rendered by the visiting brethren and sisters was an exceedingly interesting one, after which an adjournment was made to the adjoining hall where a dainty supper was spread. Needless to say the members thoroughly enjoyed this part of the proceedings. Rev. Mr. Marshall representing Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T. of New Brunswick was present and gave an address; as did also Bro. Grant, of Maplewood Lodge, Bangor. A very enjoyable and profitable evening was spent.

At Sydney Mines last Thursday night a young man about twenty-five years of age, giving as his birthplace, Rustico, P. E. I., but refusing to give his name, was found sitting on the road near Sutherland's Corner, his face bleeding and wearing clothes that presented the appearance as if their owner had been used as a street sweeper. The stranger said he arrived from Newfoundland the day before, on the steamer Bruce, met some friends later on at North Sydney, spent the major portion of $110, the result of the past several months hard work, and then because he refused to give the rest away, so he said, his newly formed Bar town acquaintances started in to rob him. During the process of "going through" him the man was badly handled and would have fared worse had he not sought refuge by running away. People living nearby took the man in and gave him shelter for the night, and next morning he took the train for home.

From an account of "A Trip to The Northland", written by a traveller, and published in an exchange the following is clipped. "For though I had gone to the north and west, I found the enterprising P. E. Islanders ahead of me. Though, as one man told me, "the woods are full of them," I met but one, but he could stand sponsor for many. This man is Roderick C. McDonald, a native of East Point. Mr. McDonald is Indian agent for the Indians of a large section of British Columbia. He has 3,000 of the copper colored sons of the forest under his jurisdiction, and the tribesmen look upon him as a sort of father to them. He settles the quarrels of the braves and straightens out the tangles in the tresses of the Chinook damsels whenever they happen to have any troubles that will cause the fingers of the one to get entangled in the hair of the other. The prudent agent does all this with such impartiality and justice that his decisions are always considered final and as a general thing satisfactory to all parties concerned. When Mr. McDonald makes his regular rounds among the reservations of his district he is accompanied by quite a respectable retinue. An appearance at each reservation is the signal for the firing of guns and setting off of fireworks, and shouting of the men and the hand-clapping of the women; in short, anything and everything that can be done by them to show their pleasure and satisfaction at the desired visit, is done by these simple and honest abrigines.

TIME was when you could buy a really good pair of SLATER SHOES for $3.50—all leather through and through. That was when beef was selling for 5 cents a pound, hides were as cheap, and labor was plentiful at $1.00 a day.

¶ Now——

¶ Beef costs 12 cents a pound, and hides are worth 60 per cent more. The farmer reaps the increase.

¶ Slater Shoes at $4.00, $4.50 and $5.00 are better made than they ever were, but their great attraction is their comparative economy. No man or woman can afford to waste money on cheap shoes.

THE BOHEMIAN

FOR OCTOBER

The American readers of current literature are quick to discover a "good thing." Every month the demand for THE BOHEMIAN at the news stands in this city has been growing. Why?

It radiates entertainment. A look into it will rout a smile from the ambuscade of the gloomiest countenance and will brighten a mind weary with following the beaten paths of magazine literature.

For THE BOHEMIAN is "different." It is so compounded of snappy, unusual short stories, enjoyable humor, attractive portraits, anecdotes of persons of note, with clever drawings, and sparkling, illustrated special articles of the out-of-the-way kind, that the result is a delightful and peerless entertainer.

In the October Issue

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF CUPID
wherein the little god makes a clean breast of his busy life;

HOW A JOKE IS MADE
wherein the master humorists of America tell the secrets of their craft; and which gives a glimpse into the methods of the New York studios.
