On Wednesday evening the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Masonic Lodge, Prince Edward Island, Reginald E. Kemp, made his official visit to his Mother Lodge, Saint John's No. 1, in the Masonic Temple, Charlottetown.

Grand Master Kemp was accompanied by a number of the Grand Lodge officers and several Past Grand Masters.

The Grand Lodge officers were introduced by Past Master Lauchlin MacDonnell and were welcomed by the Worshipful Master, J. A. Rodd.

Most Worshipful Brother Kemp spoke feelingly of his association with Saint John's Lodge and expressed his pleasure in visiting his Mother Lodge in the role of Grand Master. Grand Master Kemp comes from a family of illustrious Masons his late father Capt. Ernest Kemp being at one time Grand Secretary and Grand Master of the Island jurisdiction after serving Saint John's Lodge as Master and Secretary. His son the present Grand Master has followed the same Masonic path and therefore last evening's visitation was of unusual significance. It was the first time in eleven years that a member of the Lodge had visited as Grand Master and of a coincidence, at that time it was Mr. Kemp's father the late Capt. R. E. Kemp Deputy Grand Master (Rev.) W. A. MacQuarrie presided over the session and introduced the main speakers who were Most Worshipful Grand Master R. E. Kemp, Senior Grand Warden George G. Wood, and Brother John Kelso of Kilwinning Lodge No. 6 Scotland. Brothers Kemp and Wood gave their impressions of "the recent Masonic Conference held at Moncton, N.B. while Brother Kelso gave an interesting account of the history of the Kilwinning Lodge of which he is a member.

Most Worshipful Brothers, T. G. Ives, R. N. Rogers, W. J. Drake, W. R. Carson and Rev. E. O. Evans, spoke briefly.

At the close of the Lodge sessions an hour of fellowship was enjoyed, a delicious supper being served under the direction of Junior Warden George F. Roper, assisted by the following ladies: Mrs. R. E. Kemp, Mrs. J. A. Rodd, Mrs. G. F. Roper and Mrs. R. J. Ruppert.

A hearty sing-song also was enjoyed by Brother John Kelso, who presided with Past Master R. J. Ruppert at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacey, whose home is at 5470 Olive Avenue, Long Beach, in which city they have lived for the past 33 years, are natives of Prince Edward Island. For the past 30 years Mr. Lacey has been in the trucking business in southern California.

Y. P. S. ENTERTAIN. — The Cornwall Young Peoples Society entertained the Long Creek and North River Young Peoples at a Halloween Social in Cornwall Hall on Friday evening. Almost a hundred happy folk enjoyed the Halloween games and stunts. They were greeted by ghosts and a witch crew fortunes out of an old black iron pot. An operation and post mortem was a gruesome beginning to the evening. Fun Surrogate Boyle was assisted by nurses King and Lowther with Parker Jewell and Stewart Miller as orderlies. The patient never had a chance. The Relay Race between the three societies was won by Long Creek. Suitable prizes were given to all the winners and in the apple contest Harold Godfrey won with Jack MacEachern, North River as runner-up Norma Jewell, North River won in the doughnut contest and Dolphie MacEachern and Parker Jewell in the relay race. Much credit is due the committee of Betty King, Margaret Lowther and Gordon Boyle for the decorating of the hall and arranging the programme. Rev. Mr. Todd thanked the Cornwall group for the evening's entertainment and with refreshments and a sing song, music by Roland Hyde and Billy MacEachern, the pleasant evening was brought to a close with The King.
