A WIFE'S MESSAGE

Cured Her Husband of Drinking.

Write Her Today and She Will Gladly Tell You How She Did It.

For over 20 years her husband was a hard drinker. He had tried in every way to stop but could not do so. At last she cured him by a simple home remedy which anyone can give even secretly. She wants everyone who has a Drunkenness in their home to know of this, and if they are sincere in their desire to cure this disease and will write to her she will tell them just what the remedy is. She is sincere in this offer. She has sent this valuable information to thousands and will gladly send it to you if you will but write her today. As she has nothing to sell, do not send her any money. Simply write your name and full address plainly in the coupon below and send it to her.

MRS. MARGARET ANDERSON,
115 Home Avenue, Hillburn, N. Y.

Please tell me about the remedy you used to cure your husband, as I am personally interested in one who drinks.

The millinery season opens for Charlottetown with our great millinery showing. Always the largest and most comprehensive in indications in a broad way just what the style tendencies of the season are likely to be. You are invited to see present Monday evening at 7.30, Moore & McLeod 9-2ud11

"A man's early fall overcoat wants 'I want style.' And you're right. It is style in clothes that shows the difference between the prince and the peasant. A smart, spic-and-pan, stylish fall overcoat is a business asset. All the striking new features are here, as well as the more conservative cuts—every one in exactly the right fashionable lines. But best of all, this style and shapeliness is tailored into each garment—it will have that stylish appearance until it is worn out. The man who buys his overcoat here will get both style and service at such modest overcoat prices as eight, ten, fifteen, eighteen and twenty dollars. James Paton & Co. 9-11dt.
