THE GUARDIAN COVERS THE FIELD

The Guardian covers the City and Province within which it is published more fully and completely than any other newspaper printed in Canada.

With a daily circulation of its morning and rural edition now about 8,000 and growing from day to day, it has broken all records for a daily publication in a small community.

Charlottetown has a population of 12,000 and Prince Edward Island has 103,000. The Guardian's daily circulation is therefore 1 to 15 of population in the city and 1 to 19 of the population of the Province.

The paper is published, or 1 to 19 of the population of the Province. This is, the management believe, unequalled by any daily newspaper published in Canada.

Take one or two comparisons with other existing newspapers in other cities and Provinces.

St. John has a population of 40,000 and the Province of New Brunswick 300,000. St. John has five newspapers and among these The Telegraph and The Sun are perhaps the foremost.

Each claims a circulation of about 8,000 or say 1 to 5 of the population of that city and 1 to 40 of the population of the Province.

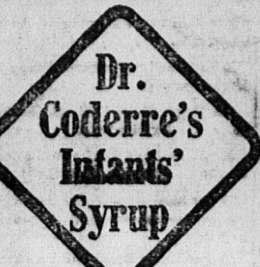

Or again: Toronto has a population of some 250,000 and the Province of Ontario about 2,235,000. The Toronto Globe is a great Canadian newspaper, known all over the world as one of the foremost journals.

The Globe's circulation is slightly under 70,000. That is 1 to 35 of the population of Toronto and 1 to 40 of the population of Ontario.

The point is this: that The Guardian covers the field of its circulation three and a half times as well, if compared with population of the city, and over three times as well, taking the population of its Province, as the best New Brunswick and Antigonish newspapers, and these are admittedly among the best in Canada.

These facts are printed in no spirit of boasting, but for the satisfaction of Guardian readers and advertising patrons alike. They have a right to know how completely their favorite Journal's endorsement by the reading public among whom it circulates and how completely it covers the field as an advertising medium in this City and Province.

Celery—Celery, Pumpkins and Squash. This is an age of improvement and advancement. Twenty five years ago celery was only used by the rich and a few knowing ones who were in the secret of its wonderful medicinal properties. Now with the modern facilities for growing it and comparative cheapness there is no excuse for not having it on the table every day. We offer choice winter keeping Celery at $2.00 per barrel. At the price our wholesale stock should be soon exhausted as we must have large quantities for our retail trade. We all can remember the delicious pumpkin and squash pies our mother's used to make, (those good old times.) Ask your wife if she can make some pies like your mother, and it would do no harm to intimate that you believe she can. Pumpkins and squash will only keep a few weeks more, the season has not been congenial for the keeping qualities. You remember we advised that the tomatoes were a short crop and they are now "a thing of the past" this is equally true of the pumpkins and squash J. J. Gay & Son every day market. 10-24df

From it here, blankets in mind. Don't wait to shiver—have the blankets ready to draw up when the weather turns cold over night. We know of no better blankets at the prices than these two fine blankets made to our order from carefully selected wools. We think they cannot be matched outside of Paton's service at anything like the little cost. The "Paton special" blanket—A winter blanket made of fine wool on spool cotton wrap. Full double bed size, at $3.50. The "Paton Leader" blanket. A very heavy soft blanket made of best Canadian wool, Full double bed size, bound with wool yarn at $5. Bear them in mind if you have a blanket need. Jas Paton & Co. 10-30df

Women's fur-lined coats. A few interesting priced items. The long garment is held in high favor this season, and justly so, for it has no equal for every occasion, wear and comfort. Our display is most complete, all very handsome garments from which we quote but a few items $34.50 $38.00 $40.00 $45.00 $50.00 $64.00 $70.00 $80.00 $85.00 $95.00 $110.00 $120.00 $125.00.
