A LIGHTNING storm of unusual severity passed over the western end of the Island Sunday evening, doing a great deal of damage. At Summerside a barn belonging to Mrs. P. A. Conners was struck and demolished. At North Bedeque the storm was accompanied by hail and a furious gale of wind. A large barn owned by Mrs. Murdoch Ross was struck by lightning and completely wrecked, the building falling in a heap a few minutes afterwards. Mr. Theodore Ross and a hired man were milking cows in the barn at the time and managed to escape unhurt and drive the cows out. Three horses and a colt were killed in the barn either by the lightning or by the falling building. There were besides a large quantity of hay, farming implements, carriages, sleigh, &c. These were being dug out of the debris yesterday. The machine and farm implements are all more or less damaged. The loss is a heavy one. About a hundred yards off, a barn belonging to

Mr. L. U. Fowler was struck and blown down. Mr. L. U. Fowler's barn on his farm about half a mile distant was also struck and demolished, 4 or 5 stacks of hay owned by Mr. Willard Green, North Bedeque were blown down by the gale, and a mill shed struck by lightning and considerably damaged. There was $200.00 insurance but the loss will exceed this by at least $600.00.

Tommy's New Khaki Cap

The 4th Royal Irish Regiment now at Aldershot have had served out to them a new pattern field service cap, which they are using experimentally. It is a little larger than the ordinary field service cap. The flap at the back falls to the nape of the neck, and the peak comes well down to shield the eyes. A leather chin strap keeps it in position. The head gear is made of flight khaki canvas, and is well ventilated.

CAN'T BAG THEIR SKIRTS

This is Another Masculine Habit Which the Up-to Date Girl Has Adopted Recently.

Here is the latest masculine habit acquired by the girl of to-day. She wears a golf skirt, one of the woolly kind without any lining. For those who don't wear them, it may be said that this kind of a skirt gives its owner a great deal of trouble. It's the cambric lining and buckram in a skirt that make it set nicely—hence the liningless skirt is apt to get out of shape. The girl knew that men have similar trouble with their trousers. She wondered what they did—and then she watched. Now she has the trick to a finish. Whenever she sits down in a chair or in a street car she pulls her skirt up quietly until it shows about two inches of petticoat. "Excuse me," she said to a friend whom she caught looking at her feet, "but I'm afraid my skirt will get to bagging at the knees."

Old King's College Site.

The Canadian Club has obtained permission from the Ontario Government to erect a granite slab to the southeast of the Parliament Buildings, to mark the site of the old King's College, the corner stone of which was laid in 1842 by Sir Charles Bagot. The building had a checkered career. Beginning as a high-class denominational college under Bishop Strachan, it next became a secular institution, the nucleus of Toronto University, and finally an asylum. Its original purpose was first diverted by reason of the clamor raised when a Government grant was given to it, and the erection of the present college buildings completed its downfall, and it became an asylum. It was razed about 15 years ago

He Recommends Hutch.

George Marshall, Esq., Toronto, has an ideal dispensary at the corner of Queen and Berkeley Streets. Mr. Marshall is one of the foremost druggists in Canada and has the reputation of being a very skilful and careful drug preparer. Mr. Marshall stated that Hutch was being used most extensively in his locality and he had heard it endorsed on all sides. He recommended Hutch for dyspepsia and all stomach ailments and was satisfied that it was efficacious.

Never before has any dyspepsia treatment received the class of testimonials accorded Hutch. When business men—those noted for their keen progressiveness—are compelled to write its praises, it will be seen how marvelous must needs be Hutch's potency.

..BIGYCLE RHYME..

Wouldn't This "Explode" Jenny.

You?

Maud Muller, on a summer's day,
Scorched along on the broad highway;
Her wheel a worthy Welland Vale
Or else she'd never tell this tale.
The Judge steamed by, and said: "My dear,
There's room for you; come, jump in here!
My automobile's built for two—
For me, and for a peach like you."
But, as he spoke, his auto reared
Blew up, and lo! it disappeared.
And Maud said, as she watched his plight,
"Thanks, Judge. You're really out of sight."

Jenny pedals neatly,
Gliding down the street,
Jenny smiles so sweetly,
Jenny is discreet.

Lithesome as a fairy,
Pink as the wild rose,
Golden hair so airy,
Screaming as she goes

On her Cleveland flying,
Drives dull care away,
Were I with her cycling,
What a joyful day!

July, August, September, October, are the Four best wheeling months—We have 50 Bicycles yet to sell—will make the price satisfactory
