S'ide Church Group Activities

The regular meeting of the Y. P.S. of the Summerside Church of Christ was held on Tuesday evening in the church hall with Marjorie Huella in charge of the devotions. The hymns sung were "More About Jesus" and "Since Jesus came into my heart" and the Scripture read- ing was the 5th chapter of Mat- thew. The business period was conducted by Garth Linklater. The minister conducted the Bible Study from the 7th chapter of Matthew, wherein seven things were found, namely, gates, ways, trees, fruit, men, foundations and houses. Each was portrayed on the blackboard and the group through the eye more readily understood, as it is what we see we remember. The Prayer Circle and Missah benediction brought the meeting to a close.

The Baptist Y.P.U., Sum- merside, met in the church hall on Tuesday evening. The worship with the Juniors was conducted by the minister and the subject of study was "What I think about Jesus". The first in a series of four weeks. The Juniors gained two points. The same study theme was conducted with the Seniors. Mrs. Roland Gay was in charge of the committee in charge with Mrs. Gay and Mrs. Bruce Johnston as- sisting. The Wreckers gained three points. Games were enjoyed by both groups at the close of their meet- ings.

At the regular meeting of the Summerside A.Y.P.A. in St. Mary's hall on Tuesday evening, Arch- bishop Harrison led in the opening prayers and conducted the Study Period. The president, Mrs. Gail Woolley, was in the chair during the meeting. The report on the letter of appreciation be forwarded to Mrs. P.D. Crosby, St. Eleanor's, for her generous hospi- tality for the previous meeting. The remainder of the evening was spent in decorating the hall for the dance on February 10.

The February meeting of the Summerside Presbyterian W. M. S. was held on Tuesday afternoon at the Manse with a splendid attend- ance. Mrs. J. Lloyd Gorrell, in charge of the worship service, opened with a poem "Be With Me Lord" after which all joined in singing "My Faith Looks Up To Thee" with Mrs. Cleverly in the lead. The piano. The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. J.S. Perry and prayer was offered by Mrs. J. W. MacKenzie, after which a medita- tion "Shifting the Blame" was read. Roll call was responded to by a Bible verse containing a Testimony of Faith. The offertory prayer was given by Mrs. Maurice McNeil. The closing prayer was by Rev. A. Murray. During the business period when the president, Mrs. Chas. D. MacEachern, occupied the chair, routine business was con- ducted. Mrs. Donald Baker, con- vener of the Sick Committee, re- porter ten called on the members of the W.M.S. of the Baptist Church to be guests at the Easter meeting. Mrs. G. A. Boeh- mer, who had been a medical missionary in Formosa for five years, gave a most interesting and instructive address, wherein she portrayed vividly the scenery, cli- mate and customs of the people. The singing of "We Have Heard a Joyful Sound" and the repeating of a Dismissal Hymn in unison brought the meeting to a close at which the hostess, Mrs. Carney served delicious refreshments.—S.
