Elmsdale and Vicinity

The first snow storm of the season last Sunday night, was not very welcome and was the cause of many belated home comings. Old man Winter gave his first appearance in a vicious form, and received no applause whatever.

The farmers are slowly moving their potatoes to market and are pleased that the prices, at least this season are more satisfactory than last year.

The sincere sympathy of a host of friends is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Burke and family, of Tighish in their bereavement caused by the death of their son Sgt. Pilo Leonard Burke in England.

Messrs Everett Shea, Claude MacNeill, Ralph and Leigh O'Brien were recent visitors to Charlottetown last week.

Corporal Stirling Matthews, of the R. C. A. F., at Summerside spent a few days with his wife and family in Elmsdale.

Raymond Brennan of the R. C. A. F., Summerside, spent a leave with his parents Mr. and Mrs. William Brennan, Dock Road, last week.

Mr. Edward O'Halloran of the R. C. A. F., at Halifax spent a furlough recently the guest of his sister Mrs. Austin O'Brien.

Mr. Harry O'Halloran of St. John, spent a few days with friends in Campbellton and Elmsdale. While in Elmsdale he was the guest of his sister Mrs. Austin O'Brien.

Friends in this community regret to learn of the death two weeks ago, of Mr. Frank Boyle of Lowell, Mass. Mr. Boyle was a frequent visitor to P. E. I., during his summer vacation and will be missed by many friends. His wife was the former Miss Elizabeth Ellisworth of Elmsdale.

Mr. Charles G. Dunn is on an extended visit to Lowell and other cities having been called there by the death of Mr. Frank Boyle.

Mrs. Leonard Williams was a recent visitor to Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Murray, Mrs. Thomas Murray and Mrs. Hazel Cameron motored to Sea View on Sunday last.

Mr. Edgar Williams of Alberton left last week for Ontario.

Mr. Joseph McKenna of the Dock Road returned home after spending some time in New Brunswick.

Mrs. Ronald McKenna spent a few days last week in Tighish the guest of her brother Mr. John Cameron and Mrs. Cameron.

Mrs. Henry Williams returned to her home on Sunday after a pleasant visit with friends and relatives in Tyne Valley and Northam.

Many citizens of this community attended the Minstrel Show in Alberton Hall on Wednesday of last week, and enjoyed it immensely. It was a decided success financially and otherwise. Proceeds were in aid of the Sacred Heart Church, Alberton.

The ladies of the Elmsdale United Church are to be commended on the splendid chicken supper served in the Hall on Wednesday to a large number. Total amount of money was realized.

Sea View and Vicinity

The closing days of November brought severe winter weather many cars were stuck in the snow-banks for a few days but suddenly the temperature became milder and again the wheels and cars are running everywhere. The local stores are taking on quite a Christmas appearance. Mr. Roy Adams has moved into his nice large new store and will be a great improvement to the needs of his numerous customers for their Christmas supplies.

The Sea View W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Leigh Sutherland on Wednesday evening for their December meeting. As this is always the Christmas meeting in the drawing room was gaily decorated to look like Christmas. The president Mrs. Fred Donald presided and the meeting opened by singing Ode and repeating Creed in unison. Secretary Mrs. Robert Sutherland then read the minutes and called the roll which was answered with a Christmas thought. There was a good attendance of members besides several visitors and they were pleased to have three new members added to the roll. Several letters of correspondence were read and commended. Several pieces of quilting were handed in to the Red Cross Convener besides more quilts were reported finished. The program committee then entertained with a chorus, O Canada. An interesting reading by Mrs. Leigh Sutherland, Share The Wealth was then carried out and prizes awarded to those who gave correct answers. Mrs. Amos Adams winning the Oscar prize. This created much amusement. An exchange of Christmas gifts then took place among the members. The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close after with a delicious luncheon served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Edwin Donald.
