Miss Beryl DeBlois Retains Singles Title

Miss Beryl DeBlois yesterday retained her ladies singles title of the Charlottetown Tennis Club when she defeated Miss Helen Larter in a hard-fought final by scores of 6-2, 2-6 and 6-3. The champion looked to be on her way to a straight set victory as she ran out the first set 6-2, but her challenger evened matters by an identical score in the second, setting the stage for Miss DeBlois' title clinching 6-3 victory in the third and final set of the match.

In the men's doubles, Gordon Foster and Yvon Boudrais defeated V. Sobey and F. Coyle in straight sets by 6-1, 6-1 scores.

Semi-finals in the men's singles is scheduled for this afternoon with Earl Smith and Jim Palmer scheduled to oppose each other at 2:30 p.m. A mixed doubles encounter between B. Whitlock and H. Power versus Mr. and Mrs. Willett is slated to get underway at 6 p.m.

With The Kids On The Playground

One more week has been written off in the annals of time, and so with the passing of that week, all that remains in a storehouse of memories. Grown-ups will have many things to look back on during that time, some sad, some gay, but with the kiddies, almost everything spells happiness, and that is as it should be. They will have time enough in later years to be burdened with the trials and worries encountered in the working world.

The addition of sand piles to all squares has created a novel attraction, and if the present supply of castle building material stays fresh, it will not be necessary to place any add for apprentices in that line for some days to come.

Olympic Briefs

DOVER, England, July 28 (AP) —The Olympic flame reached Dover from Calais, France, tonight in the British destroyer Bicester.

The torch bearing the flame was carried off the pier by a naval petty officer.

After he had taken a few steps the flame went out but was relighted from a second torch carried from Mount Olympus in case of just such an emergency.

LONDON, July 28 (Reuters) — Britain's austerity will not place its chilly hand on medals awarded to Olympics prize-winners.

The awards will be the same as those given at previous games — silver gilt for premier awards, silver for second place and bronze for third. About 1,900 prize and commemorative medals have been struck. All are hand-finished.

THE HAGUE, July 28 (Reuters) — The London sports correspondent of the Dutch daily newspaper Algemeen Dagblad, criticizing London arrangements for the Olympic Games, wrote today that Britain seems to think of nothing else but the test cricket matches with Australia.

LONDON, July 28 (AP) — Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary-general, arrived by plane from Geneva today for the Olympic Games opening tomorrow.

He had gone to Paris and Geneva from New York to arrange for the assembly session to start in Paris in September.

LONDON, July 28 (Reuters) — British post-offices will place on sale tomorrow a special issue of postage stamps and a special letter form to commemorate the 14th Olympiad.

That about winds up playground doings for this week folks, so cheerio until next Thursday.

NORWICH, England — (CP) — A woman went into a shop here to buy a hat during a sales rush. After an unsuccessful hunt she looked round for her own. It was in the window — priced 35s ($7).

Ken Black of Vancouver, wielder of a magic putter, realized a life-long ambition at Mount Bruno, Que., nine years ago today when he defeated Henry Martell of Edmonton to win the Canadian Amateur Golf championship.

Bombers Blank Tigers 36-0

Yesterday morning on the Knights of Columbus diamond the Bombers blanked the Tigers 36-0. It was the first time in the history of the diamond that a shutout was accomplished. The Bombers promised their opponents such a fate at the outset of the contest and fulfilled it in every department. The losers played good ball afield but were weak with the stick.

They lined up as follows:

Bombers: Wright, Monaghan, Ready, J. Hughes, Martin, Hynes, Hughes, Rossiter, Gallant.

Tigers: P. Brown, Shephard E. Brown, H. Shephard, Earl Brown, Erwin Brown, Dolron, Richard.

Next game will be this morning at 10:30 when the All Stars and Tigers clash.
