A HORSE owned by Robert Mutlow, Millview ran away yesterday morning, from Steam Navigation Wharf and narrowly avoided causing fatal results. At the Victoria corner the wagon collided with an express filled with dishes driven by Charles Perkins and pulled off a wheel but did no further damage. Proceeding up Great George to Richmond the horse ran into a carriage owned by Charles Chandler in which were two ladies and three children. A lady was thrown out and the wheel and axle broken but no greater damage.

WHEN at peace be prepared for war, Sons of Mars were in evidence yesterday. On enquiry it was learned the Government Local Transport Service was being inspected. Under a yearly retainer the Militia Department hold a score of transport teams in readiness to proceed where directed at a day's notice. We learn the teams inspected yesterday were as fine a showing as is probably made anywhere. Each team with its two horses and Bain Wagon can transport from 3,000 to 3,500 lbs. The aggregation on view could have transported the recent camps, equipment and ammunition. The inspecting officer was Colonel F S Moore, District Officer Cmdg, accompanied by Major Weeks (whose observation of imperial transport in Africa made him a valuable critic) and Captain Watts.

Mrs Mary McClellan, wife of Daniel McClellan, died this morning at the home of her sister, 66 Summer street, after an illness of about five months. The deceased formerly resided in this city, but up to the time of her illness had lived in Bangor, Me. She came to this city on a visit, and her condition was such that she was unable to return to her home. She was quite well known here, and besides a circle of friends she leaves a husband and one daughter, a father and mother in Prince Edward Island, one brother in Bangor, Me., and a sister, Mrs. Patrick J Kelley, with whom she had been staying; and also a brother and sister in Prince Edward Island. The remains will be shipped to Kinkora, P E I tomorrow morning, where the interment will take place—Haverhill Gazette, July 13 The above remains arrived by the Northumberland last night and were accompanied by the deceased sisters, Mrs Patrick J Kelley, and P J Kelley and Miss Maggie A Kelly. The funeral notice will appear later.

IN Prince of Wales College Hall last night Dr. Bailly of the University of New Brunswick lectured to a fair audience on "The Human Telephone," or "Our heads and what they Contain." Dr. Taylor presided. The lecturer first dwelt on the structure and function of the brain. He discussed Dreams, Somnambulism and other phenomena, and spoke at some length on Speech and its dependure on the Brain. A number of interesting experiments were quoted and the lecture was illustrated by diagrams. Dr. Bailey was listened to with close attention and and his highly instructive and entertaining lecture was much appreciated.
