

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SUNDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY
ACCEPTS POSITION - Miss Kathleen Cameron, Summerside, has accepted a position in the C. N. R. Freight Office, Summerside.

ST. JOHN'S HERE - Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Buckle of St. John, N. B. returned to their home on Saturday after spending a week's vacation in Charlottetown.

HERE ON FURLOUGH - Mr. Charles G. Riley of the R. C. F. on furlough, spent the weekend in Charlottetown visiting friends and on return will spend the next few days in St. John with his brother, Mr. D. A. Riley.

WIRELESS OPERATOR HOME - Cpl. John Higson arrived on the weekend to spend a furlough at his home in Charlottetown. He is a wireless operator and is stationed at an R. C. A. F. station in Quebec. Cpl. Higson was formerly a member of the Guardian staff.

FROM Nfld. - Mr. W. E. Agnew has returned from Newfoundland where he investigated trade conditions for the P. E. I. Government. He will report to the government before he leaves and he believes that trade with Newfoundland can be increased.

ATTENDED FUNERAL - Captain George C. MacBeth, of the R. C. A. F., attended the funeral of the late Captain Alfred MacLeod on Tuesday, July 11th.

CHIEF ENGINEER - Mr. D. N. Howarth has been appointed Chief Engineer for the Northumberland Ferries for about two years as second engineer has passed successfully his examinations as chief engineer before the board of examiners at Halifax. He has been appointed chief engineer of the Prince of Wales, taking over from Mr. J. H. Howarth on Friday. He has been succeeded as second engineer by Mr. L. M. Moyne of St. John's, N. S.

FUNERAL FRIDAY - The funeral of the late William W. Brown was held from his residence at Wood Islands, Friday afternoon. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. T. A. Duke. During the service Mrs. L. MacLean sang the solo "No Night There" and "The Old Rugged Cross." Full benediction was given by F. G. MacDougall, Roderick McKay, Hector MacDonald, Alec Young, James E. Emery, and Roderick MacMillan.

K. OF C. SING SONG - Another enjoyable sing song was held at the Knights of Columbus Hut last evening, attended by large numbers of the members. Mr. D. E. Noonan was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Joseph Dougan and Miss Marion Dougan furnished piano music. Specialties included solo by Miss Helen Roach, a duet by Miss Norma Myer and Mr. Connie LeClair, and a solo by Miss Bernice Murray and Lac. Fernet. A lunch was served by the ladies.

FUNERAL FRIDAY - The funeral of the late Mrs. Clarence County Hospital on Wednesday. She was held from her late residence on Friday at 2:30 to the United Church, Central Street, by Rev. Murray officiating. The interment was at St. John's. Burial was in the St. John's cemetery. The Rev. Harold Baglioli, Leonard D. Willard, MacAuland, Interment was at Central Lot 16-S.

OIL SEARCH GOING WELL - With the exploratory oil well in Hillsboro Bay deeper than 7,000 feet the rock is becoming "expected" it was learned over the weekend. There is still no oil but officials connected with the project appear to be well satisfied with developments. Equipment at the site is capable of going two miles but it is hoped oil will be reached before that depth is reached.

PASSES EXAMS - The many friends of Robert E. Giggay, manager of Jenkins Pharmacy, are glad to learn that he has passed his examinations of the Prince Edward Island Pharmaceutical Society successfully a short time ago. Mr. Giggay served his apprenticeship in the drug business in St. John, N. B., and was very popular with the customers of the store he was employed in. Some four years ago he came to Charlottetown as first assistant to Mr. Jenkins when Mr. Jenkins joined the RCAF. Mr. Giggay took over and has made a great success in his handling of the business.

The death occurred about ten o'clock Saturday evening at St. Eleanors of Mr. Archibald Joseph McAdam of Selkirk, P.E.I. Death came suddenly from a heart attack although Mr. McAdam had been ill all winter.

Prior to that he had a secretarial position at the RCAF station at St. Eleanors. He was unmarried and is survived by a brother, Allan, of Charlottetown and a sister, Mrs. Agnes McDonald of Ottawa. He was about 65 years old.

The remains have been resting at the Kempton Funeral Home, Summerside and are being forwarded to his home in Selkirk.

Mrs. William Hayes of Summerside on Saturday received a telegram from her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Stephen Hayes, informing her that Stephen had been severely wounded in action in France. The telegram also informed her that her other son, John, was also in France and was with Stephen just before he was wounded.

Pte. Stephen Hayes was one of the Summerside boys who enlisted for service the day that war was declared and had been overseas for the past two years.

During the fighting in Italy he was wounded in the head and spent considerable time in the hospital as a result. He was later transferred to the western front and has taken part in most of the heavy fighting since D-Day. His brother John has been overseas less than three months.

A large number of friends in Summerside extended their sympathy to Mrs. Hayes sincere sympathy and the hope that their son will have a speedy and complete recovery.

WEDNESDAY
SERVING IN FRANCE - Lieut. C. M. O. daughter of Mr. J. C. Dalton, Summerside, who is now overseas for over two years is now serving with her hospital unit in France according to word received by her family.

UNDERGOES OPERATION - Mr. A. S. McKay underwent an operation at the Prince County Hospital yesterday. Last night his condition was reported satisfactory. Mr. McKay is a member of the firm of Bruce McKay and Company, Ltd., Summerside.

SLIGHTLY INJURED - Mrs. Cyril Kenny of Summerside was slightly injured yesterday when her car was driving on the Water Street. She was taken to the hospital but was released soon after.

SUPREME COURT - The Supreme Court held a session in Charlottetown on Monday morning with Chief Justice G. J. G. G. presiding. The case of Norman MacQuaid vs. W. J. Christie, an appeal from the County Court, was the only case heard.

JOINS ARMY - Miss Mary Blaney, R.N. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Blaney, Summerside, has joined the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps. She is serving in England.

CRYSTAL ANNIVERSARY - The Crystal Anniversary of the RCAF was celebrated in Charlottetown on Wednesday evening. The celebration was held at the Crystal Ballroom and was attended by a large number of guests.

RECEIVES SAG NEWS - Mrs. A. L. Adams, 220 Queen Street, City, has returned from visiting relatives in O'Leary. While there she received the sad news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Wilfrid Dugay (nee Josie Macdonald) of Norway. Mrs. Adams and her four children are left to mourn the loss of their sister.

WOUNDED IN ACTION - Word has been received by Mrs. Tressa MacBeth, Malpasque, that her son, Cpl. Earle Matthews, has been wounded in action in France on July 29th.

MENTIONED IN KING'S HONOR LIST - Radio Officer James Fraser, R. C. A. F., of Summerside, has been mentioned in the King's Birthday Honors List for valuable services in the air.

REPORTED MISSING - Official notice has been received by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Howarth of Young Street, City, that their son, Cpl. Ferdinand Joseph Rogers, has been reported missing in action since July 25, 1944.

RETURN FROM HOLIDAY - Mr. and Mrs. Victor Linday, of Summerside, returned from their holiday in the West Indies. Mr. Linday was accompanied by his son, Lowell Elmer, who was also on holiday.

MISSING IN FRANCE - Mr. and Mrs. R. C. MacLeod, of Lynnhaven, are informed by the Minister of National Defence that their son, Pte. Ewen Angus MacLeod, was officially reported missing in action in France on July 25th, 1944.

A telegram received yesterday by Mrs. Harry Dickie, Summerside, informed her that her husband, Harry Dickie, was officially reported missing in action on July 28th and that any further particulars would be forwarded as soon as available.

Pte. Dickie, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dickie of Summerside, was a valued employee of the Prince of Wales for some time of his enlistment about two years ago. He had arrived overseas about a month ago with the unit to which he was attached.

Trials of Clifford Ross MacLean, 18, of West Devon and Sylvia E. Leary, 17, of Mt. Pleasant have been adjourned till Monday, Aug. 21. They are charged with three counts of breaking, entering and stealing from the home of Mrs. T. A. Duke, Summerside, on July 10th. The charges are breaking and entering and stealing from the home of Mrs. T. A. Duke, Summerside, on July 10th. The charges are breaking and entering and stealing from the home of Mrs. T. A. Duke, Summerside, on July 10th.

Four Prince Edward Island soldiers have been decorated for long service and good conduct with the Canadian Army. It has been announced by the Hon. C. D. No. 6 Headquarters, Halifax.

They include two Charlottetown men, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad M. M. serving overseas in the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Howarth, who is serving in the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps. The other two are Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Howarth, who is serving in the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5.

Pte. Matthews, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brehaut, Charlottetown, have been advised that their son, Pte. Earl Matthews, was killed on active service overseas on Aug. 5. He was serving with the 1st Battalion, The Grenadier Guards, in France.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

HOME AFTER 32 YEARS - Mrs. R. E. Smith of Michigan, North Dakota is visiting her brother, Mr. W. Delaney of Malpasque after an absence from her native province of thirty-two years. She was the former Mae Delaney of Summerside.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a floor length dress of rose tulle with a matching bolero and a long veil. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

WOUNDED IN HEAD AND ARM - Mrs. William Hayes, Summerside, received further news yesterday from her daughter-in-law concerning the nature of the wounds suffered by her son Stephen in the fighting in France. The first place he received several days ago made no mention at all of his injuries. Word which came yesterday stated that "Steve" was wounded in the forehead and right hand. Will still again on the second line of fighting. Mr. Hayes has been wounded in the head. The first being received during the fighting in Italy and from which he had just recovered after being transferred to the French zone.

STAFIRA - CORCORAN WEDDING - A pretty wedding took place in the Sacred Heart Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, July 11th. The bride was Miss Marie Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. I., who was united in marriage to Petty Officer Charles Stafira, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stafira of Chicago. Father Downey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a