GRAND JURY FIND BILLS IN TWO CASES

True bills were returned by the Grand Jury at the Summerside Supreme Court yesterday in the cases of the King vs. George Champion, charged with retaining stolen goods and in the case of the King vs. Harry Wm. Dickie charged with manslaughter, in connection with the death of Arthur MacQuarrie on the highway early in July.

When the Court opened at 10.30 Chief Justice Mathieson addressed the Grand Jury separately on each charge.

The charge against George Champion for unlawfully retaining in his possession four fox pups the property of Leslie MacNutt, knowing them to have been stolen, was first taken up by His Lordship, who pointed out to the Jury that they must bear in mind that they did not have to find a verdict, but to determine whether there was sufficient evidence to put the man upon his trial.

The Grand Jury found a true bill in this case.

His Lordship then reviewed the case of the King vs. Harry Wm. Dickie, charged with manslaughter. His Lordship in this case dealt very clearly with what constitutes manslaughter. He laid particular emphasis on the fact that the law required that every one who operates such a dangerous machine as a motor car should do so with care and skill so as not to endanger the life of any persons who are entitled to use the highway.

The prisoner, George Champion, was arraigned after the Grand Jury had been discharged at the conclusion of their duties yesterday afternoon. The petty jury for the trial of George Champion of Darnley, was then empanelled.

Carl Weeks, Foreman; Wm. Johnson, Howard Schurman, Birchfield Yeo, John T. Gallant, Leonard F. Murphy, Ira Hardy, Percy Adams, Bert Dickie, W. Gregg, Howard Huestis, and Harris Boulter. This case was in connection with the stealing of four fox pups from the ranch of Leslie D. MacNutt of Malpeque, on or about May 2nd.

Leslie MacNutt was the first witness, and gave evidence of missing the foxes from his ranch and later visiting the ranch of the prisoner where he found pups resembling those missing from his own ranch. Five other witnesses were examined. Geo. Crozier, Russel Craig, Arthur Wall, James Harding and Wallace Champion.

Thane A. Campbell, Attorney-General and L. G. Lewis for the Crown, C. D. MacCallum for the defence. The case will be resumed when the court opens this morning.

In yesterday's report of the address of the Chief Justice to the Grand Jury, His Lordship was misquoted as saying that men imprisoned for debt were to be seen chained to a wheelbarrow breaking stones on the streets of Charlottetown. What he did say was that men were imprisoned for debt and that men convicted of offenses against the criminal law were within the memory of some now living to be seen chained to a wheelbarrow breaking stones on the streets of Charlottetown.—S.

Record Number Of Entries In Borden Show

The entries at the Borden Fox Show which opened yesterday almost doubled that of last year. This year the entries almost reached the 400 mark. Pales, light medium and extra pales were very strong in numbers. The darker classes were weak.

There were a greater number of exhibitors and a large attendance of visitors. Judging will commence this morning at eight o'clock, with Mr. C. B. Rogers as judge and Mr. Brenton Clark assisting.

Last evening a very enjoyable banquet was held at the Abegweit Hotel in honour of visiting fox men and others. Captain John L. Read was toastmaster. The speakers were, A. E. MacLean; C. B. Rogers Mr. MacKenzie, M. P.; George Callbeck; Frank Arnett; Lowell Hancock; E. P. Foley; C. C. Baker; George Warren.

The trend of the speeches were of general interest to fox breeders and much valuable information with regard to the industry was discussed by leading foxmen.

Residence Of Mr. H. G. Muttart Gutted By Fire

The beautiful residence of Mr. H. G. Muttart, President of Sinclair & Stewart Ltd., was considerably damaged yesterday by fire which was well underway when discovered.

The fire alarm was rung in at ten minutes past seven by the maid, who upon rising had discovered the cellar full of smoke and flames.

When the firemen arrived the whole house was filled with smoke and they had difficulty in getting at the seat of the fire.

A pile of wood was burning in the basement, the ceiling was burned and the flames had spread the fire up between the walls of the ground floor. The wall in the dining room had to be torn down and the oak panels in the hall were damaged.

It was nine o'clock before the firemen had the fire under control. The rooms on the ground floor were considerably damaged by smoke and water.

Mr. Crabbe, Fire Marshal, happened to be in Summerside and was at the fire with Mr. MacNeill, chief of the fire department. Mr. Beer came up later. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Mr. Muttart's residence is situated on Central street, Summerside, and is one of the finest in the town. The extent of the damage has not yet been estimated.—S
