THE TOWN CLOCK.

It's a modest clock and slow in its pace. Though it keeps the time for the town; It holds up its hands in front of its face. And it always runs itself down.—Orig.

The weather moderated somewhat yesterday. At nine in the morning the thermometer was two below, all day it hovered around zero and this morning at one o'clock the mercury was three above with prospects of a further raise.

CAPTAIN A. H. Anderson and family left on Tuesday morning for Charlottetown, where they will in future reside, Captain Anderson having received an important appointment in the ordnance department of the militia service. His father and mother who accompanied them, will also live at Charlottetown. We join with Captain and Mrs. Anderson's many friends in wishing them bon voyage, and every success in their new home. Captain Anderson is one of our most respected Lunenburg boys, and we are pleased that his ability has been recognized. During the many years he resided here he took an active part in everything which was for the advancement of the town, and in social circles he will be greatly missed.—Lunenburg Progress.—Captain Anderson has rented the house owned by Mrs. Nelson D. Armour on Upper Hillsboro street where he will reside with his family.

LIGHTNING REMEDY FOR CRAMPS

Some people have cramps pretty often, others only now and again. But when you do have them it's a mighty quick relief you want. Poison's Nerviline is as sure as death to relieve cramps in five seconds—it's instantaneous, just a few drops in sweetened water and the pain is gone. Buy a bottle of Nerviline to-day, and keep it handy. Nerviline is a common household necessity and only costs 25 cents.
