CAPT. BERNIER'S RETURN.

QUEBEC, Sept. 27.—Spick and span, with the British ensign flying from her mainmast, as if returning from a pleasant cruise instead of a fifteen months' voyage in the ice floes, the schooner Minnie Maude, commanded by Captain Bernier, of Arctic fame, arrived here this afternoon from the Hudson Bay and other icy localities. The Minnie Maude left here some fifteen months ago, and although she has encountered great quantities of ice since, she does not appear to have suffered much, if any, damage from it.

The crew of the vessel, some of whom were completely garbed in furs, were in good health and spirits, and enjoyed the trip. Captain Bernier, who was also reported in good health, left his vessel a short time after she arrived here and went to his home near Indian Cove, informing his mate that he would not return until to-morrow morning. He thereby escaped an interview. The schooner is said to have a good cargo of furs, which will probably be disposed of here. All the officers and crew of the vessel appeared to be well satisfied with the trip.

TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 30, 1913

MR. CARVELL OF CARLETON.

Mr. F. B. Carvell of Carleton, who recently addressed meetings in Georgetown and Summerside denouncing the Government for introducing the closure, stands convicted of being a Mr. Face-both-ways. At a meeting in St. John the other day the Hon. J. D. Hazen quoted from Hansard of June 1908 the following statement made by Mr. Carleton on the question of closure:

"The action of these hon. gentlemen (the Opposition of that day) raises the question fair and square: Can the Government of this country, whether Liberal or Conservative, afford to be placed in such a position as that? Can any Government afford to place itself at the mercy of an opposition, and virtually declare that, if the opposition do not like anything contained in the legislation that is introduced, all it has to do is to withhold supply and the Government will back down? Carried out in practice and you have a country ruled not by the majority but by the minority."

And again:—"I ask again: Can any self-respecting Government afford to be placed in this position? I say there is only one solution to the question: If this opposition, or any other opposition, choose to pursue such a course, the inevitable consequence will be closure. I am not the first one to advocate closure."

He stated further:—"Therefore, I say that this is a matter which ought to be discussed thoroughly; and I believe that if the Opposition determine to persist in this unpatriotic, unworthy course, the next move the Government will have to take is to adopt the closure. And I say to the Government that in my opinion, while I think it is the only course they can pursue, it is one that will be sanctioned and approved by the people of this country. Let the Government start in at once and change the rules of this House, if it takes months to do it in order to adopt the closure."—Hansard, 1908, 8, pp. 930, 932, 934."

What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. People as a rule have short memories in politics, and it is just as well they should have been refreshed occasionally. The light Mr. Hazen has thrown upon Mr. Carvell's past attitude on the closure question will serve to detract from anything that pug-nacious member may now urge in condemnation of the Government. His insincerity is proved to the hilt.

KING'S COUNTY EXHIBITION

The King's County Exhibition opens at Georgetown tomorrow morning and the energetic committee in charge has made every arrangement to ensure success.

Following so closely upon the heels of the Provincial Exhibition held in Charlottetown, with its provincial and interprovincial competition, the county fair will necessarily be small in comparison. In importance to the county however, in educational value to exhibitors and spectators, and in all round value to the county and to the province, it will not be a whit behind the larger.

The purpose of exhibitions is to educate, to demonstrate the effects of particular methods of treatment of soil, to compare various kinds of animals, different varieties of grains, vegetables, etc. This, as far as it goes—and it should go far enough to include all the agricultural processes of the county—is just as important and as necessary as are the comparisons made and the inferences drawn at the larger exhibition.

Kings County differs, in many respects and especially in the quality of its soil, from the other two counties. It has, we believe the reputation of having better soil for the production of potatoes than any other part of the dominion. It will be well to study its possibilities in this respect. It now holds, we understand, the record for production per acre and also for quality. Very much should be made of this reputation. It should be better advertised than it is for a good table potato is a luxury that is not produced everywhere, not even in this province. Moreover there is a continuously open market and an invariably higher price for first quality potatoes. The market is never glutted in products of the best quality, and Kings County potatoes, placed on the market as such, would no doubt bring a higher price than those grown elsewhere in the province, with the possible exception of one or two small sections in Prince County.

There are other specialties doubtless, as there are in each of the other counties. The Exhibition should emphasize these, draw attention to them and turn them to account in the market.

The success of the Exhibition will depend altogether upon the interest taken in it by the people of the county whose exhibition it is. It is for them to make a determined effort to make it a success and the best yet held. Each year should see an improvement over the past year and there is always room for improvement.

And the rest of the province should profit by the King's County exhibition. Those in the other counties who pride themselves on special products should make it a point to attend and see what their neighbors are doing, how they are doing it and what the characteristics of the soil are which produces the desired results. There is very much to be learned at every exhibition and this the last of the larger exhibitions to be held will afford a grand opportunity to compare the products of the different parts of the province.

It is hoped, therefore, that every effort will be put forth first of all by the people of Kings County themselves, and secondly by their neighbors in the other counties whose exhibitions were so generously patronized, to make this the greatest exhibition yet held in Kings County and a creditable finish to the circuit of successful exhibitions of 1913.

Let everybody attend the Exhibition. Provision has been made for a splendid show and for the accommodation of visitors.

NOTES.

Negotiations for acquiring the electric light and power business for the city have been reopened with the new company.

Sir Gilbert Parker, who is now in Toronto, has just published a new book, "The Judgment House." It is perhaps as well he is not in England, for the judgment of the critics is not flattering. The Athenaeum describes it as "pitiful" and the Scotsman as unfortunately being "not good melodrama."

The Chronicle, a financial weekly of Montreal has been attempting to give the Island fox business a knock. In a concluding sentence the Chronicle says "the keeping of animals for fur will be on a more permanent basis when we hear less about $5,000 foxes and more about $5 racoons." Now on the 25th inst. we quoted a similar comment from Conservation, the official journal of the Conservation Commission at Ottawa. The wording is identical, and we must draw the inference that the writer of both articles is the same. But surely "P. M. B." of Conservancy would not lend himself to an attack on the Island's great and promising industry of which his knowledge, to say the least, is most imperfect.

This week when our attention is being directed by Rev. Dr. Fullerton and the Rev. Dr. Shearer, to the need of greater devotion to Christian ideals and social service the following prayer of a disappointed Socialist, who having discovered the feet of clay of the new gods, returns remorsefully to the old, will be of interest—it has been described by the Nineteenth Century as a prayer deserving to be enrolled among the manifold cries of the human heart:—"Thou, God and Spirit of all things, Thou seest the most hidden thought, hast led me to this moment. When I laugh I think on Thee—said, I think on Thee . . . In these days again Thou hast spoken to me. Let not all suffer as I do. Let me understand how I am to serve Thee. The new word for mankind—let me find it. As yet I cannot help anyone—I am too weak. I pray to Thee for the men whom Thou hast shown me. Thou knowest Fraconard: Thou seest through Scappini. Grant that good should happen instead of evil. Take away the sorrow I feel for Berta. . . I thank Thee for what Thou workest in the dark. Thy Kingdom come! Now let me sleep, and lead me home tomorrow. Worship, worship, in eternity!"

TODAY IN DOMINION HISTORY

One hundred years ago to-day General William Henry Harrison began his pursuit of General Henry A. Proctor and Tecumseh, the commander of the English and Indian troops charged with the defense of Canada against the invaders. Upon finding Fort Malden burned and Amherstburg deserted by all but women and children, Harrison and his army encamped at Sandwich. Lack of horses prevented immediate pursuit but on Sept. 30th Col. Richard M. Johnson arrived with his cavalry. A council of the American officers was immediately held, and two lines of pursuit were considered. One was by Lake Erie to Long Point, the other by land to the rear of Proctor. The latter was chosen. Cass's brigade and Ball's regiment were left at Sandwich, and McArthur's brigade remained in Detroit. The remainder of the enemy, about 3,500 men, mostly Kentucky mountaineers, marched away toward Chatham, where Harrison had been told that Proctor was encamped. In the meantime a number of small vessels containing artillery and provisions for Proctor's army escaped the vigilance of Perry and made their way to the mouth of the Thames and up that stream. Proctor and his 700 white soldier and Tecumseh with 1,200 warrior encamped at Dolson's, where they remained until the approach of Harrison's superior force. Harrison's army made rapid progress along the Thames, accompanied by three of Perry's vessels as convoys to transport. With Tecumseh cursing him as a coward, Proctor continued his flight until the pursuit of the enemy became so close that he was compelled to make a stand on the bank of the Thames, where he was completely defeated, and Tecumseh, greatest of Indians, was killed.

MANY FOREIGNERS COMING TO CANADA. OTTAWA, Sept. 28.—During the five months of the present fiscal year from April to August inclusive immigrants poured into Canada at the rate of about 1900 per day. The total for the five months was 292,577, an increase of 40,248 or 17 per cent as compared with the corresponding period of last year. A feature of the immigration this year has been the marked falling of the influx from the United States, while the immigration from the Slav and Latin countries of Europe has increased by nearly one hundred per cent. There has also been an increase of about 17 per cent. in British immigration. The total British immigrants for the five months was 112,831, an increase of 16,167. Immigration from the United States totalled 63,721, a decrease of 15,388. Immigration from all other countries totalled 106,955, an increase of 38,797.

DUMONT'S NEW MONOPLANE. PARIS, Sept. 28.—Santos-Dumont one of the pioneers in aviation, has constructed a monoplane on a new model which was tested today at Villacoublay with excellent results. It demonstrated its exceptional stability. A peculiarity of the Santos-Dumont monoplane is that the body hangs nearly three feet below a long single wing.

MEXICAN REVOLUTION DECLARED ENDED. MEXICO CITY Sept. 28.—Messengers were sent by order of President Huerta yesterday to all the Consuls representing Mexico in foreign countries, to the effect that the revolution was ended, and that the elections would be held according to the government programme.

TRAIN HELD UP BY SLIT SKIRT. HINTON, W. Va., Sept. 29.—Emerging from a mob of Hinton's citizens which had taken possession of the Chesapeake and Ohio depot here to-day in their endeavor to see the latest dress creation worn by Miss Nannie Wheeler, Henry Wilkens says: "Well, we've had slit skirts down here with blue, red and green backgrounds, but that's the first I've seen with a calf exposure."

Apparently oblivious of the sensation she was creating, Miss Wheeler, on her way to the station, tripped gayly along and at each step the slit, which has been placed in the back of her skirt, would open, revealing Miss Wheeler's shapely silk stockings. Two policemen tried to disperse the crowd, but seeing the uselessness of the effort, both fell in behind the young woman and did a little gazing themselves. At the depot so anxious was the crowd to get a closer view of the train arriving here a few minutes after noon was held up fifteen minutes by the throng which covered the tracks. The excitement ended when Miss Wheeler finally got on the train.

FIRST THINGS

The first voyage of an American vessel around the world was made by the ship Columbia, which sailed from Boston 126 years ago to-day. The globe was first circumnavigated by Magellan, a Portuguese in the service of Spain, who set out in 1519. The voyage was completed in three years and twenty-nine days. Grialdo, a Spaniard, was the next to perform the feat. The first English circumnavigator was Sir Francis Drake, whose voyage began in 1577. Cavendish and Le Maire, a Dutchman, were the next to make the grand tour. The first French circumnavigator was Bougainville, who had been Montcalm's aide-de-camp in Canada.

CHINA APOLOGIZES

NANKING, Sept. 28.—General Jhang Hsun, the commander of the Chinese troops at Nanking, accompanied by a bodyguard of fifty cavalry, went to the Japanese consulate this morning, and apologized, in accordance with the Japanese demands in connection with the killing of several Japanese and an insult offered to the Japanese flag. The consul expressed his satisfaction at the action of the Chinese commander.

At three o'clock in the afternoon 100 of General Chang Hsun's troops with the Republican flag at their head, marched to the Japanese consulate and presented arms, while the commander saluted the consul. The Japanese troops meantime stood at attention.

PEKIN, Sept. 28.—The Japanese government emphatically denied today that an ultimatum had been sent by the Japanese Government to China. The legation stated that the Chinese authorities at Hankow and Shantung had fully complied with the Japanese demands.

A Shanghai despatch of September 17 announced that the Japanese minister had presented China with an ultimatum, allowing China three days to comply with Japan's demands for the recent attacks on Nanking. The obstacle to compliance with the demands, it was feared, would be General Chang Hsun's refusal to offer an official apology.

FIRE SALE BARGAINS CONTINUED AT PATONS

The fire sale of goods which were side tracked for Exhibition week are given first place at Paton's today and many big bargains will be given there today.

The special lines offering will be hosiery, gloves, silk waists, underwear and ready to wear clothing all of which have been described and as these goods simply must be cleared out within the next few weeks the tickets tell some sweeping tales of price cutting.

It is the chance of a life time to get high quality goods at astonishingly low prices and goods that everyone needs at this season of the year.

LEATHER GOODS

Patons have bought a large portion of the handsome leather goods exhibit at the exhibition made by Messrs Christie and as the goods are a little higher quality than the firm usually carries some choice purchases can be made at a satisfactory saving.

Ask to see the samples even if you do not buy. It will prove profitable.

MILLINERY. Miss Beers, Paton's expert milliner whose millinery efforts were so much appreciated by Charlottetown ladies at the spring and summer openings, has returned from attending the New York openings with numerous features for her fall opening to be held in about two weeks time.

There is a decided mark of individuality about Miss Beers's work which appeals to the wearer as one dislikes to meet a duplicate of one's head dress on every corner. This Miss Beers tries to avoid and her efforts in the past have proven so successful that the ladies of Charlottetown should await this opening.

Patons have now in stock some exceedingly chic models in outing and ready to wear hats which for style and color are unsurpassed. A visit to Paton's today will prove most interesting and profitable.
