dents, from Washington to Wilson, recognized and invoked the aid of Heaven in their Inaugural Proclamations. It is not also the custom of every one of them to invite the citizens of the United States to assemble in their respective houses of worship on Thanksgiving Day to give thanks to "the Giver of every perfect gift" for the material and spiritual blessings vouchsafed to the country and to invoke a continuance of Divine favors? And is not the general observance of the Christian Sabbath throughout the land a living evidence that this is a Christian country relying on the protection of the Lord of hosts?

Points to Proclamation

"And the President has just issued a proclamation exhorting the people of the United States to assemble today in prayer to implore our Heavenly Father to bring this terrible War to a happy termination.

"Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord the people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance.

"My brethren, you are in the habit of listening every day to the praises of the great Americans who have distinguished themselves by their martial deeds, or by their civic and Christian virtues. You are all proud of being the countrymen of a Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln, of a Marshall and Taney, of a Clay and Webster, of a Carroll, an England, a Kendrick and Hughes and a host of other men less known to fame.

"But do not be satisfied with praising other men who have honored Church or State by their good deeds. Accomplish something yourselves in your day. Each of you has also a mission from God. Do not shine by reflected light. Let your own light, so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in Heaven."

Profession Not Enough

"Do not be snatching faded laurels from the brow of your fathers. Let our own heads be crowned with fresh garlands won in the field of honorable labor. Say not with the Jews of old: 'We have Abraham for our father.' Say not, we are the political children of Washington and the religious children of Carroll. It will profit you nothing to possess the creed if you do not practice their civic religious virtues. Go then and make a name for yourselves so that generations to come may record your good deeds. And if your actions will not be sounded by the trumpet of earthly fame, what is far better let them be worthy of having the approval of God and of your conscience and of being inscribed with credit to you in the imperishable Book of Life.

"May the Lord of Hosts so guide the counsels of our rulers in the present crisis that their efforts may be crowned by an honorable a speedy

GLASS OF SALTS CLEAN KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what becomes of your kidney trouble and back ache.

"The falling leaves filled me with melancholy thoughts," said the poetic person.

"They used to have the same effect on me," said the unpoetic person.

"What changed you?"

"I moved into an apartment and don't have to rake them any more."

WONDERFUL TRIBUTE TO GREAT ADDRESS

"ONE OF THE MOST POWERFUL AND STIRRING MESSAGES UTTERED SINCE THE WAR BEGAN."

The N. Y. Sun Says The Government Should Spread Cardinal Gibbons' Address in Every City, Town and Hamlet

The address delivered by Cardinal Gibbons on the occasion of the dedication of the Knights of Columbus building at Camp Meade, Maryland, constitutes one of the most powerful and stirring messages uttered to the people of any belligerent nation since the War began, and in the elevation of its tone, the practicableness of its wise counsel and the clarity of its form it certainly has been outside by none.

From the depths of his understanding, fruit of wide experience, great learning and unprejudiced observation, the Cardinal spoke not only of the large and obvious problems that must be solved by our statesmen and our soldiers, but of the immediate continuing and homely duties that rest upon all of us, conspicuous and inconspicuous, powerful and weak; and his words should be read by every American, no matter what his prepossession or religious faith. In them were expressed the hopes and aspirations of a mighty patriotism that is prepared and eager to endure all for the welfare and the glory of the country; the injunctions urged by wisdom and based in disinterested devotion to the common weal.

The Government could engage in no enterprise more appropriate and helpful to the cause of national unity and worldwide democracy than to print and circulate in every city, town and hamlet, this great oration, for in it the paramount obligation of the citizen to the United States and to the demands of the United States to demand the fulfillment of that obligation are set forth with a simplicity, a directness and a convincing force that are seldom combined in the outcries of any man.—N. Y. Sun.

A CHRISTMAS STOCKING

The following letter was received by Gypsy Newsome accompanied by a beautiful Christmas Card, and answer to a stocking she sent through Prince Street School and this goes to show how a little act of kindness is appreciated by the boys at the front.

Dear Gypsy:—Just a few lines to thank you very much for the stocking I received on Dec. 24th. (This morning) packed by you. I think it is very kind of you indeed. Now that you have read these four lines I suppose you are getting "like all little girls" anxious to know who I am, where I came from and many other things. I know, because I have five little sisters myself. My name is Corpl. Thos. Reynolds. I came out here to France on 22nd August, 1915 and have been here ever since. I was wounded on July 26th this year and just came out of Hospital last week. I am at a Convalescent Camp now just getting over my wound. This will be my third Christmas in this country, the other two I spent in the trenches. I have one brother who has been out here one and a half years but I think he is missing. I used to hear from him every week but I have not heard from him now for two months. I came from St. Thomas, Ontario. I am not married so I have no children of my own, but I have so many little sisters that I got quite used to them. I have not seen them for a long while as I have been in the Army three years now. I spent my 21st 22nd and 23rd birthdays in France. I hope I will never have to spend another. If you would like to have my address it is Corpl. T. G. Reynolds, No. 400115 1st Canadian Battalion, D. Coy. No. 5 Convalescent Camp, Sect. 23, Army Post Office, France.

Well Gypsy I think I have told you all now. Once again I will thank you very much for your kindness and wishing you happiness, prosperity and success during 1918. Good bye for the present.

I am dear Gypsy Yours in friendship THOS. REYNOLDS

P. S.—Kindly answer as I would like to know more of you. I guess you go to school. Let me know all about it.

GENERAL CURRIE HONORED

CANADIAN ARMY HONOURABLE, Jan. 25.—General Currie, officer commanding the Canadian army at the front, has been given the Order de Couronne and Croix de Guerre and Major H. B. Williamson, D. S. OUR SHRINKING SINKING FUNDS

Sir.—Councillor Wright at the meeting on Monday evening made the statement, that the present Council placed 5,550 more to the credit of the Sinking Funds that the Council of 1914 and 1915. The amounts put to the credit of the Water Debenture Sinking Fund are made up from three sources as follows:

Table with columns: Year, Water Debt Sinking Fund, Market House Sinking Fund, Per Works Sinking Fund, Fire Dept Sinking Fund, Yearly totals put to all Sinking Funds.

Now Sir if you add this difference in the amount put to the Sinking Funds to the deficit (4883.94) for past year, you have a shortage of $11,266.29. I notice neither the Mayor, nor any other of the Councillors referred to the Sinking Funds, they knew better. Did Councillor Wright know, or did he try to mislead his audience on this important subject?

Thanking you for your valuable space. I am, Sir etc., CITIZEN.
