Alberton

Mr. Harold McLellan of O'Leary was in Alberton last week on business and pleasure combined.

The Trail Rangers are holding their concert in the Institute Hall, Alberton, where it is hoped that people will turn out and give the boys a helping hand and also enjoy a good evening's entertainment.

Many people of Prince Edward Island will regret to hear of the death of Mr. Thomas Hodgson, an aged and respected resident of Brooklyn, P.E.I.

Mr. Percy Prichard of Montrose had the misfortune of getting his horse in the top on the Montrose river at a place known as Mr. Robert Hardy's point. Mr. Prichard drove out a little too far when going around this point, the ice was thin resulting in the horse breaking through. However Mr. Prichard was not hurt and with a lot of trouble managed to extricate the poor horse, which has recovered from the bad bruising and freezing.

During the absence of Mrs. S. R. Burks and Miss Alberta Wallace, Miss Lucille McQuaid was in charge of Mrs. Burke's business.

Messrs John and Silas Matthews have left for Summerside on a business trip.

Mrs. Claude Murphy and Mr. Arthur Perry have arrived in Alberton. They are members of the Tighish Orchestra which is putting on a dance in the Alberton Hall.

The weather conditions are certainly poor for the skating rink for the past week. There was supposed to have been a match between the Alberton Regals and O'Leary Maroons Thursday night but it had to be postponed until Thursday.

Mr. Keith Howatt of Charlottetown was in Alberton for a day or two on business. Mr. Howatt is formerly from O'Leary and is well known here.

Miss Lucille McQuaid was visiting in Tignish during the weekend as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bernard.

Four teams took the ice Monday night to share a couple of points in the Lefurage Cup League. Wharf team compiled two points while the Do-k and Montrose drew for one point each. Alberton team was defeated by the wharf and failed to garner any.

O'Leary and Vicinity

The second doubleheader of the Lefurage Cup League was played last night in the Alberton Rink on a nice sheet of ice and both these games were fast and proved exciting for all the fans.

This game started by the Wharf taking a two goal lead in the first period, both goals coming from the stick of J. Mallett and B. I. Rayner added a third to close the period. Montrose put on a burst in the second period and found the net once. L. O'Brien got this marker on an assist from E. Millman. In the third period the Wharf again scored on a play by B. I. Rayner and Montrose repeated the twins twice. The first came from the stick of A. Malley on a pass from O'Brien while O'Brien passed to Millman for the second. Game ended 4-3 for Wharf.

Alberton and Dock play the game. This was also a fast game and started throughout. E. MacDonald opened the scoring in the first period and C. Hogan evened it up on a nice pass. Larking put Alberton ahead but MacDonald tied it once more. Larking repeated the performance and not to be outdone MacDonald snapped another one home. The period ended 3-3. In the second Larking made it 4-3 but R. Profit shot one on an assist from MacDonald and the period stopped at 4-3. The teams split pair of counters in the third period and Bill Oulton chucked up his team's fifth goal on a pass from Benny Oulton. E. MacDonald made his teams last tally.

Conditions Change

After February, when the Stevens investigation opened and following addresses by Rev. Ross K. Cameron, conditions improved. After she joined the union she was paid on a basis of $14.20. She left Eaton's of her own accord, due to sickness in the family.

Among the nerve-wracking experiences Miss Chambers cited was often responsible for keeping the lights late.

At noon hour if they were a few minutes late many girls were not allowed in at all. In the mornings there were hundreds waiting for elevators.

Witness was questioned by Kellough as to wages which he said were paid to her. Miss Chambers could not recollect having received the sums mentioned.

On that point Mr. Stevens suggested the figures be audited. Counsel was using figures that had not been proved by the witnesses.

The figures as submitted prove nothing," said Chairman W. W. Kennedy.

Miss Chambers declared she signed no pay sheet when she received pay. She would check up her wages with her own books and would sometimes find a difference. When she inquired at the office she was told this deduction had been made to make up for the extra given her previously in order to bring her up to the minimum wage.
