A MONTREAL despatch says—The conference of government representatives from Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, will seemingly take place as announced. It is stated in local government circles today that Hon. Louis Gouin, who has just been at Anticosti, will confer with Premiers Tweedie, Peters and Murray, when in all probability the time and place of the Inter-Provincial Conference will be decided upon. A prominent supporter of the Quebec Ministry was asked today if Hon. Mr. Whitney would participate in these deliberations, and although he could not speak with certainty, the M. L. A. in question seemed to think that Ontario would not be represented at the Conference.

THE remains of the late Joseph H. Dingwell were laid to rest in the pretty little Presbyterian cemetery at Bay Fortune on Friday last, and were followed by one of the largest funerals ever seen in that locality. The pastor, Rev. F. C. Simpson, officiated at the house and grave. The pall-bearers were James Dingwell, Artemas Morrow, John Coffin, P. L. Campbell, Benj. Coffin and James Aitken. He leaves to mourn a loving wife, one daughter, Mrs. Albert Burk of the old homestead, and one son Wm. A. of Boston, besides many relatives and innumerable friends both home and abroad. He was a kind husband, a loving father and a good friend. He will be sadly missed by the family and friends he has left behind, and especially by the writer of this who with his family has spent many happy summers with him at the dear old home.—H.

THIS MEDICINE IS BREATHED. That's why it is sure to cure Catarrh. You see it goes direct to the source of the disease,—its healing vapor repairs the damage caused by catarrhal inflammation. "Catarrhoxone" always cures because it goes into those tiny cells and passages that ordinary remedies can't reach, goes where the disease actually is. Impossible for "Catarrhoxone" to fail as any doctor will tell you. Don't be misled into thinking there is anything so good as Catarrhoxone,—use it and you'll soon say good-bye to catarrh.
