Insect Carriers of Disease

The lessons of war have confirmed the serious part that insects play as carriers of disease. It is common knowledge that each species acts as a carrier of a particular disease. For instance, it is proven that the common house fly carries typhoid and enteric, the mosquito is a source of malaria, and the bed bug of "black water fever," while it is pretty certain that others of these pests, such as the common black beetle, or cockroach, which taints our food, are also disease carriers.

An unremitting warfare on all such insects is the duty of everyone, and the simplest and safest way to kill these insects is by the one preparation which has stood every test of scientific investigation and that is

Happenings of the Week

Mayor Wright was host at a Stag Bridge last evening at his home King's Square. The guests enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

Miss Gypsy Norton, who is leaving on Monday for Boston, where her marriage to Mr. Justin K. McGrath, of Fredericton, N. B., is to take place is being pleasantly entertained by her friends, who wish her abundant happiness.

After a few months stay in this city, National Secretary Mr. C. B. Appleton, of the Y. M. C. A., has been recalled to Halifax, much to the regret of his many friends.

Miss Bona Mills, the popular secretary of the Y.W.C.A., is enjoying a holiday with her home people in New Brunswick.

Mrs. A. A. Bartlett has returned from an extended visit to the Southern States, stopping for some weeks in St. John, on her homeward journey.

It was with regret that farewells were said to Rev. A. C. Field who left Wednesday morning for England. He carries with him many pleasant recollections of his nine months stay in Charlottetown.

A banquet and dance to the members of the Pastime Club recently returned from overseas, made a most sociable reunion on Thursday evening, which was enthusiastically enjoyed by the young people in attendance.

Mrs. C. R. Freeman has gone to Dublin, Texas, to visit for some time with her home folk.

Mrs. Bagnall and Miss Ethel Bagnall are being welcomed home from a delightful visit to Portland, Maine.

Tennis is taking up the attention of the young people just at present and the several courts in the city were opened this week, although the weather was not altogether agreeable.

The Rotary Club had as their guest at luncheon on Thursday, Dr. F. A. Hunter, M. B., F.R.S.C., of Toronto University, whose address on "Human Nutrition" was most profitable to the large number in attendance. The luncheon was presided over by the new president, Mr. W. S. Grant.

Lieut. Dorothy Dexter, Art Teacher in the Soldiers Vocational Training School here, has returned to her duties after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Dexter, for a short time in Truro.

His Grace Archbishop Worrell and Mrs. Worrell, of Halifax, are to spend the first two weeks of July in Prince Edward Island, His Grace visiting a number of the island parishes.

Mary Pickford has received a picture of herself with a letter from J. Whitehead, a British Tommie, who stated he had carried Miss Pickford's picture through four years of warfare. "I had it with me on the western fronts," he wrote, "through the Vardar and Struma battles in Macedonia, also on the Syrian deserts, and I carried it from Joppa to Jerusalem. Believe me, it has had some rough passages. I thought you might like it for a souvenir."

Canada's Greatest Known Price Tailors

The English & Scotch Woollen Co.

Our Tailored-To-Measure Clothes Offer You The Surest Way To Get The Fullest Measure Of Satisfaction And Value For Your Clothing Money

ANY man wearing English & Scotch Woollen Co. Tailored-to-Measure Clothes today (and there are thousands of them) will testify to the fact that he is getting the fullest measure of satisfaction and value out of the clothes we tailor for him to measure.

Our customers know from experience that our tremendous connection and buying power (25 Quality Tailor Shops in 20 Canadian Cities) puts more quality and better tailoring into our Tailored-to-Measure Clothes than other tailors and "Ready-Made" Clothiers can possibly offer at even double our popular standardized prices.

They know the only sure way to get the most out of their clothing money is to avoid War-Relics in "Ready-Made" Clothes—fabrics that were made before the armistice was signed—they know that English & Scotch Woollen Co. fabrics are all pre-war quality—materials that have been in our government bonded warehouse since early in 1916. Come in today, we will take your measure.

Suits And Overcoats Tailored-To-Your-Measure

No connection with any other concern doing business in Canada.

ENGLISH & SCOTCH WOOLLEN CO. Tailored-to-Measure Clothes are made and sold on honor—to be a credit to the personal appearance and judgment of every patron—to give longer and more satisfactory service than any clothes that can be bought anywhere at even double our standardized prices. For as little as $17 we will make for you a Suit or Overcoat of unimpeachable style—give you access to all our finest patterns and weaves, honest workmanship and complete service and a guarantee that stops now this side of your entire satisfaction.
