ILLS PASSED IN COMMONS

OTTAWA, March 2—(CP)—First reading of the bill to amend the House of Commons Act, 1914, was passed by the House of Commons at the present session today through third reading today, after seven weeks of debate in Parliament. Three non-controversial measures received final approval and are ready for the Senate when it meets next week and the bill to amend the House of Commons Act, 1914, was first read by Justice Minister Lapolette's bill to create a penitentiaries commission.
The bills passed were amendments to the Trust Companies Act and the Loan Companies Act to authorize those in instances to set up pension funds for their employees and the annual measure appointing auditors for the Canadian National Railways.
Mr. Lapolette assured the House members of the three-man penitentiaries commission would not be chosen for political reasons but for their experience and their knowledge of penology. He also intimated a medical man skilled in mental diseases might be on the commission or on its staff.

Coronation Marked By Solemnity

(By The Associated Press) ROME, March 2—Coronation, one of the most gorgeous ceremonies of the Roman Catholic Church, awaits Pope Pius XII although he has acceded to the Throne of St. Peter from the moment the two-thirds majority of the secret conclave chose him.
In the old days the coronation ceremonies were not confined within Vatican City limits. Pontiffs who ruled Rome by civil and military as well as spiritual right were drawn by splendid spans of white mules and accompanied by mounted knights in sumptuous military procession to take possession of St.
John Lateran, the Quirinale Palace and other seats of the old Roman Government.
Today their processions are held within St. Peter's but what their mimic in military pomp they make up in awesome solemnity.

Lengthy Ceremony

Coronation of a Pope is one of the longest of Vatican ceremonies requiring the presence of the Papal Court almost a full half day.
The new Pontiff must rise early to prepare himself. At 8.30 a.m. he, his immediate court, and the Sacred College leave the papal apartments and descend to the Chapel of the Sacrament in St.
Peter's.

The Pontiff is dressed in papal robes, mantle, and cloth of gold mitre by many attendants.
Seated on the Throne in the same chapel the Pope then receives the obedience of the chapter and clergy of St. Peter's led by the cardinal high priest.
After the obeisance in which cardinals kiss his hand and slippers, bishops his foot and knee, and other high officials, the Pon-tiff receives the Pope to walk in procession to the Chapel of Holy Relics there to adore the sacrament.

Two Outlets

I don't believe anyone could have come down on the elevator to get out because the elevator boy was too busy waking people up.
There were only two other ways to get down. Those were the dining room stairway and the marble stairway to the ladies entrance.
The dining room was blocked with smoke and the marble steps were as hot as fire.

I saw some men lying on the ground at the back. They were practically naked and they were crying. They must have jumped out. Some came into the yard and put coats over them before they took them away.

There had been fires in the hotel before but they could easily be put out. But I never saw such fury as this one. It was enough to frighten you to death.

I have been at the hotel for going on 28 years and could remember people for 24 years back.
Two guests came in last week and I remembered their faces although I had not seen them for 10 years.

I came to Halifax from L'Ar-dois, Cape Breton, suppose it's like losing a home, but I haven't had time to think about it. It's all been so confusing. I have been at the hotel longer than I have lived in my own home.

Mr. Simon (John Simon, the hotel owner) must be terribly sorry over what happened. He is a really nice man.

Arbitration on Wage Issue

KITCHENER, Ont., March 1—(CP)—An offer to submit the wage issue to arbitration after striking employees returned to work, was made today by W. A. Eden, Montreal president of the Dominion Rubber System.

Mr. Eden spoke on behalf of the Dominion Tire and Rubber Company and the Merchants Rubber Company, Kitchener plants, tied up by a strike called by the United Rubber Workers of America. Affected are 1,300 employees, not all union members.

Reports were in circulation today that efforts would be made shortly to reopen the plants. A deputation of workers who want to go back to their jobs, waited on Mayor George Gordon today to ask a promise of police protection.

W. E. Johnstone, Mrs. Nelson Mc-Leod, and Mrs. James McKenzie.
A business was about cleaning and painting the interior of hall. Left to Institute to choose color. After some discussion light buff and brown were chosen. Decided to get up Scotch concert program was appointed to prepare: Mrs. Oliver Paynter, Mrs.
Elmer Paynter, Mrs. M. McLeod, Mrs. A. C. Johnson, Miss Johnstone, Mrs. Profit and Mrs. James Bernard. All members to make candy for sale at concert.

Several small bills prepared and paid. Reported $425 from sale of candy at Christmas concert. Miss Johnson was to get the things needed for school.

So much other business, questions were left over till next meeting and try and have two.
Mrs. M. McLeod and Mrs. Profit conveners.

The program consisted of two contests, one put on by Mrs. E.
Paynter and a song contest by Mrs. Profit which caused much merriment.

Mrs. Elmer Paynter invited the Institute to meet at her home for Feb. Roll call to be answered by making an original valentine or verse.

The secretary was to send for one subscription of The Island Crusader. Meeting closed by singing "God Save the King." Lunch was then served by committee in charge.

Reviewed and approved by Dominion Headquarters
The Boy Scouts Association.

to save the guests right away.
Some taxi drivers across the street helped them get the ladders up to the windows.

Driven From Kitchen
The kitchen staff were driven out of the kitchen at about 6.30.
The fire was coming up under their feet then. The fire couldn't have been burning long because I would have smelled smoke. It burst out like a flash, but there were no explosions, at least not when it started, though there were some small ones later.

I got cinders in my eyes, but I stayed around Hollis Street watching them save the guests until quarter to eight.

I remember serving Mr. (Rod) McCull with coffee last night. Mr.
(R. T.) Caldwell was sick with a cold. Most of the guests in the hotel were coming to sleep at that time of the morning.

Miss Hubley, Miss Poirier and Miss Bourque were on the top floor at the front. That's why they couldn't get out.

The flames kept peeling away from the fire escapes. But the fire escapes were alright.

I can't understand why a fire would start and go up so fast.
That fire went like a forest fire.
Someone said in the papers there was a fire in the linen closet last night, but I don't know about it and if there had been one, someone would have heard of it.

Manitoba Takes Steps To Control Gasoline Prices

WINNIPEG, March 1—(CP)— Hon. S. S. Garson, provincial treasurer, announced in the Manitoba Legislature today that the government planned to introduce legislation which would give municipalities power to enter the retail gasoline business. Failure of oil companies to make sufficient reductions in gasoline prices prompted this step.

At a recent meeting of the union of municipalities of Manitoba the Government was asked for such power after delegates attacked what they described as exorbitant gasoline prices. Hon. Garson said the quest and would ask the House to approve amendment of the municipal act so cities, towns and municipalities could open service stations in competition with private companies.

Mr. Garson's announcement came on the day Imperial Oil Company Limited, British American and other firms decided on a cut of one cent a gallon, which would reduce prices to 12.5 cents. The figures on a three-cent reduction.
At present gasoline is selling from 27 to 33 cents a gallon in annual consumption of around 37,000,000 gallons.

Since early in 1938 the Manitoba government has been studying the gasoline situation. The Provincial Treasurer continued. The situation in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and British Columbia at present is realistic. Last December Mr. Garson conferred in the east with representatives of the oil firms, urging Imperial Oil officials to lower the price three cents a gallon.

After the collection of Valentines which amounted to a substantial sum the remainder of the evening was spent in games, contests and music. Mr. Francis Doyle being the winner of the prize for the guessing contest. A dainty lunch was then served by the Institute members.
Mrs. Glen Owen invited the members to meet at her home for next meeting. Roll call to be answered with a joke.

DIES IN LONDON

LONDON, March 2—(AP)—Howard Carter, 66, Egyptologist and discoverer of the treasures of King Tut-Ankh-Amen's tomb, died tonight at his London home.

Sudbury Man Is Convicted Of Murder

SUDBURY Ont., March 2—(CP)— An Assize Court jury today convicted "Big John" Ungarian, Sud-bury restaurant proprietor of the murder of Alice Kroitor, 18-year-old Yorkton, Sask., girl formerly employed by him as a waitress.

Mr. Justice W. D. Roach sentenced Ungarian to be hanged May 16. The jury deliberated two hours and 31 minutes.

Ungarian's plea that his mind was a blank for an hour before he shot Alice Kroitor to death and for some hours later, failed to sway the jury from accepting the crown's contention it had proved intent to kill the pretty waitress.

The girl was shot in her rooming house here Jan. 10 and Ungarian was arrested shortly after. At his trial, which began Tuesday, there was some dispute as to whether from whom he had been estranged since 1933, and his daughter, Olga, 15, both of whom testified liquor caused Ungarian to lose control of himself and blank his memory.

Only once during the trial did Ungarian's stolidity crack. That was when the Crown produced evidence letters that told of Ungarian's love for the girl who formerly worked for him as a waitress—letters Ungarian wrote but never mailed, but which turned up to condemn him.

Overseas Force Augmented

The volunteer pilot reserve will be increased by 2,500 men, Sir Kingsley said. He disclosed that the overseas air force was augmented by three new squadrons during the past year and assured the House that plans for production was improving rapidly in volume, with plants working full-blast.

The estimates set aside a subsidy of £2,050,000 for civil aviation in the United Kingdom with foreign countries. Plans have been made for establishment of several new air lines between England and the continent during 1939.

It was pointed out that 1,750 first line planes by March 31 was an extremely modest figure which fell far short of giving Britain's actual potentialities. From reliable sources it was given that 900 planes will be produced monthly before the year is out. At present, output is reported unofficially at half that figure.

similar period before the five-year rearmament plan was projected.
In a memorandum accompanying the estimates, Sir Kingsley revealed the balloon command has taken charge of the administration and training of 47 units in different parts of the United Kingdom now included in the balloon barrage system. Ten units are for London, and the remaining 37 for other important centres.

AIMS OF CBC

Canada. In making them, the broadcasting authorities were contributing substantially to the promotion of international goodwill he said.

Some time this month Newfoundland would open a radio station, operated under a corporation similar to that of Canada. Programs would be exchanged and all the C.
B.C. programs would be made available to the listeners of the island colony.

Mr. Brockington told of the plans to "cover" the royal visit for radio listeners this year and also indicated to the committee the manner in which the technical officers of the corporation were following the experiments and developments of television.

A new agreement he characterized as "generous and fair" had been entered into between the corporation and The Canadian Press for the broadcasting of news. The national co-operative news gathering organization placed its entire news service at the disposal of the Corporation. This would be given for the Corporation undertook to select and edit the items it desired to use.

If, however, the Corporation would pay the actual costs of the work, the sum of $20,000 a year had been agreed upon as the amount necessary.

Mr. Brockington will continue his survey to the committee tomorrow.

OLDTIMERS WORK

SASKATOON, (CP)—Seven of the original employees of the Saskatoon street railway, who started when the first cars left the factory 26 years ago, are still on the job. There were 70 workers when the tram service was inaugurated Jan. 1, 1913.

Scrub your hands with a small brush at least once a day. Massage hand lotion into them each time after they have been in wash time don't forget to drink plenty of calcium-rich milk and orange juice.
Lack of calcium often causes nails to split, hair to be stringy and dull.

Mintard's Lintment kills pain.

OTTAWA, March 2—(CP)—Resolutions, statements made here by Hon. W. D. Herridge in lauding the "New Democracy" movement last night found vic-tious expression in the House of Commons today. Liberals and Conservatives applauded as Arthur Slaght (Lib. Party) accused the Herridge speech of being "a new Moses in his own eyes," a "political mountebank" and "the greatest patronage monger in Canada."
Some objection was made to statements made on a question of privilege at the opening of the sitting, came from members of the Social Credit group and Justice Minister Lapolette described one Herridge's utterances as "a stupid statement."

Mr. Slaght said the Herridge speech was an attack on all members of the House and a charge of conspiracy of a criminal character against them.
In particular he objected to statements that Parliament was not free to serve the people, that the old parties were about to unite in forming a national Government which would be a Fascist Government and which would indulge in "Empire-destroying practices."

"This indicates," said Mr.
Slaght, "that this gentleman, a new found Moses in his own eyes, who in my view is a political mountebank, has charged every member of the House with being ready to conspire to form a Fascist Government."

Mr. Herridge had rallied at political patronage but he had been criticized by the representatives of Canada as a whole in this House.
The men whom the people of every riding sent here to represent the views, drew down from the public treasury, the bread paid for by the taxpayers, drank the wine paid for by the taxpayers in his house in Washington for four and a quarter years at an expense to this country in excess of $125,000.
"So has the Liberal Party,"

Moses in his own eyes," a "politi-
patronage monger in Canada."
privilege at the opening of the sitting, came from members of the
Minister Lapolette described one
stupid statement."

Mr. Slaght said the Herridge
speech was an attack on all mem-
acter against them.
In particular he objected to
the old parties were about to
unite in forming a national Government which would be a Fascist Government and which would indulge in "Empire-destroying practices."

"This indicates," said Mr.
new found Moses in his own eyes,
member of the House with being
ready to conspire to form a Fas-
cist Government."

Mr. Herridge had rallied at political patronage but he had been
criticized by the representatives of Canada as a whole in this House.
a quarter years at an expense to
this country in excess of $125,000.

Another Liberal Family Quarrel

SAINT JOHN, N.B., March 1—(CP)—Ralph Broderick, president of the Saint John Branch of the 20th Century Liberal Association, said tonight that the branch executive committee had passed a resolution at a special meeting passed a resolution charging the Saint John club members of the New Brunswick Legislature with "conniving" to exclude the local club from a convention of the New Brunswick 20th Century Liberal Association opening at Fredericton tomorrow.

The resolution also charged the W. W. Foster, M. L. A., president of the Provincial Association, "aiding and abetting the local members." said Broderick. It was resolved that the local club request his resignation as president, he added.

H. W. Sutherland, Fredericton, provincial organizer for the Association, said the Saint John Club convention was called because the branch had refused to follow the example of other clubs in reorganizing.
